

Campus Sing Replaces Frat Vocal Contest

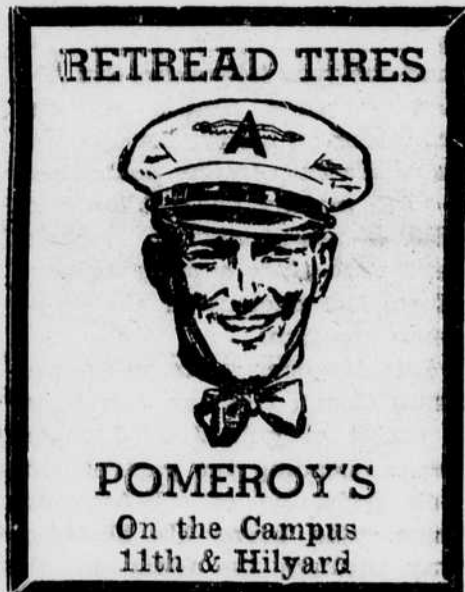

Oregon's traditional "interfraternity sing" is now an "all-campus sing," Lou Torgeson, ASUO president, revealed last night in announcing plans for the executive committee to supervise the event, rather than the Interfraternity council and Panhellenic.

The executive committee will appoint a chairman and a committee to work with him. These appointments will be ratified by the council and Panhellenic before they are effective, however, Torgeson said.

The Interfraternity council and Panhellenic will continue to sponsor the sing, allotting money for expenses, and purchasing prizes. The principal difference in the activity this year and last, Torgeson explained, is that this year all campus groups are eligible to participate.

Miss Aida Brun Named To Fill NYA Position

Miss Peggy Jane Peebler, NYA and personnel secretary, left the University Tuesday to attend business school in Portland, according to Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration. Taking her place is Miss Aida Brun, who will act as Mr. Onthank's secretary and handle the NYA files.

Nickle Hop Chairman Petitions Due Soon

All freshman and sophomore girls interested in the position of co-chairman of the Nickle hop should turn in petitions between 4 and 5 to Elizabeth Steed at the AWS office in McArthur court before Thursday.

CPT Flyers Must Report

It has been requested that the students listed below report to James C. Stovall, civilian pilot training coordinator, in the CPT office, 107 Condon hall, this afternoon between 1 and 5.

Asked to report are: Kim McKim, Hall Baker, Rod Vandeneynde, Richard Clark, Warren Treece, William Matsler, Thomas McKelvie, John Lansing, Roger Jayne, Guldbrand Kramer, Samuel Carrol, Clyde Hollinbeck, Peter Riley, Frances Jordan, Bob LaFon, Hal Baker, Philip Hunt, Nelson Hodges, George Oldfield, Ernest Lehman, and Bion Osborne.

Speech Titles Must Be Filed

Each contestant in the present Jewett contest, one of a series of public discussion contests sponsored by the W. F. Jewett fund, must register his name and the title of his speech by 5 p.m. Wednesday, January 14, according to Kirt E. Montgomery, instructor in speech.

The speeches, a maximum of seven minutes long, must present some phase of "National Defense Bonds" with a view of persuading the audience to buy defense bonds. The contest is open to all undergraduate students.

Finals will be held Wednesday evening, January 21, at 7:30 p.m. in room 207, Chapman. Prizes are $15, $10, and $5.

First Speech Clinic Held by UO Class

For the first time by the U. of O., a speech clinic was held at Prineville January 10 to examine speech and reading defects. Those making the trip were Bill Hoppe, Jane Hooker, Carl Harrison, Rendel Alldredge, and Mr. Jack L. Bangs, instructor in speech.

Mr. Bangs said, "We examined 30 speech defective children at the high school at Prineville, and 12 reading cases. The clinic was very successful, and we hope to have it again."

Jack. You're here first! What way did you come?"—Tenderfoot.

It was silent outside,
Like snow falling on velvet.
The quiet hush of the night
Stole between the Transparent moonbeams,
Filling my soul
With strange disturbing dreams:
And there sat that darn' girl
Eating hamburgers and onions.

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet,
Eating her curds and whey,
Along came a spider
And sat down beside her,
And said, "I'm rigor mortis.
May I set in?"

Love Lectures Lack Speaker

Arrangement for a series of lectures and discussions on family relations are being made by the student committee on love and marriage.

The committee is attempting to obtain Dr. Paul Popenoe, head of the Los Angeles family relation clinic, as speaker at a general assembly February 12. Dr. Popenoe has appeared at many colleges and universities lecturing on marital questions.

Present plans include separate assemblies for men and women on February 12, followed by fire-side discussions in the living organizations during the next week. A representative from each organization will be appointed to arrange for the meeting in his group. These discussions will be led by prominent townspeople and faculty members. The committee is working now to secure speakers for the Tuesday and Thursday night meetings.

Committee members are: Janet Morris, chairman, Mary Ellen Smith, Bob McKinney, Les Anderson, Marjorie Major, Marge Curtis.

Frosh Committee to Aid Student Union Boosters

Appointment of a freshman student union committee to help "keep student union alive" was announced last night by Og Young, campus student union chairman.

The new committee will work with the existing sophomore committee under Uly Dorais, and the junior committee under Glenn Williams. Its chairman will automatically become a member of the all-campus committee.

Freshmen desiring committee positions may file petitions in a box in the Co-op store all day Thursday, Young said. The petitions will be read Friday by the all-campus committee, composed of Eleanor Sederstrom, Ann Reynolds, Williams, Dorais, and Young, and by Gerald Huestis, president of the Independent Students' association.

Petition Form

The petitioner should submit in his petition his name, address, phone number, activity record, GPA, and other particular ability that makes him fitted for that work. "From 16 to 18" members will be chosen to serve on the committee, Young said.

Selection of members will be made without regard to politics, Young said, although it will not be made on the strength of GPA as the present sophomore committee was picked a year ago. GPA will count, however.

Building Wanted

The so-called "student union"

move is an effort to obtain a building on the Oregon campus which will be used solely for recreational purposes. Such a building would be comparable to the Memorial Union at OSC and "student union" buildings on other campuses.

Job Secretary to Talk Before Portland P-TA

Miss Janet Smith, employment secretary, will speak to a P.T.A. in Portland Wednesday on her work in finding jobs for undergraduates and in placing graduate students.

Miss Smith will stop in Salem to see the state forester to discuss the employment of physically fit University men to fight forest fires during the summer.

New Pledge

Sigma Nu fraternity pledged Clay Patterson Monday, according to the dean of men's office.
