

Below--

Three campus organizations jump the gun as the first campus houses to buy national defense bonds. Shown are, top, Kappa Sigma; middle, Phi Delta Theta; bottom, Delta Gamma. The official University drive opens next week.

Defense Bond Sales Plan May Set Pace for Nation

—See pictures columns 1, 2, 3

—See story page 3

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLIII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1942 NUMBER 61

War Stamps To Turn Stiles At Senior Ball

—See story page 3

THE BOND SALESMEN

Instead of tickets, dancers at the Senior Ball will buy $1 worth of defense stamps, which they may keep, Emerson Page, right, dance chairman, announced Friday. The senior class, headed by Pat Lawson, will pay for dance expenses from their treasury.

Skull, Dagger Gives Defense Hop Tonight

—See story page 3

—Courtesy Register-Guard

Dies In Jump

Lt. James O. Reed, member of the crack Oregon swimming team in 1934-35-36, was killed Thursday when his parachute failed to open after he had bailed out at Chanute field, Ill. See story page 8.

