Arom the Pulpit

By CAROL GREENING

A University vesper service will be held in the music school auditorium at 5 p.m. Sunday. It is sponsored by Dean Theodore Kratt of the music school and representatives of campus religious groups.

Dr. Williston Wirt will speak on "The Greatest Commandment" at 11 Sunday morning at the First Congregational church, Thirteenth and Ferry streets. In the evening at 6:45 the Plymouth club will hear Jesse Moon discuss "The Fundamentalist Point of View."

Baptist

First Baptist church services are at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Dr. Vance Webster will speak on "A Living Savior's Grace" in the morning and on "Is Your Salvation Worth $45,000 to You?" The B.Y.P.U. group will meet in the church at 6:15. Rendell Aldrich will lead the discussion with the topic, "Sin."

Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will teach the University class of the First Christian church Bible school at 9:45 p.m. Dr. S. Earl Childers will speak on the theme "Paul's Challenge to Youth," at 11 a.m. The regular evening service at 7:30 will be in charge of the young people of the church.

Christian Scientist

The lesson sermon topic at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, for this week is "Love." Services will be held at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m.; Sunday school at 9:30 a.m.

Dr. Norman K. Tully will speak on "The Christian Imperative" at the Central Presbyterian church at 11 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m. his topic will be "Lions and Adders." A young people's chapel service will be held at 6 o'clock in the evening. Margaret Mickel-

UO Schedules Talent Monday Night on KOAC

Students who twist their dials to KOAC Monday night will hear two University-sponsored programs. At 8:15 the school of music will present a varied program for the enjoyment of melodicminded listeners, and at 8:30, "Higher Education Speaks" will feature the University school of architecture and allied arts for the second time.

Both the music school and "Higher Education Speaks" are presenting two programs each during the week of February 2-7. Musical programs are Monday and Tuesday nights; educational programs Monday and Wednesday nights.

Solicitation of Books For Forces Continues

Solicitation of books for the armed forces will continue next week, Miss Bernice Rise, circulation librarian, said yesterday. "The Victory book campaign drive has slowed terribly, and we want this drive to build up service men's libraries to go over," she said.

To date the box in the circulation lobby is half full, containing last year's best sellers, Readers Digests, literature texts and novels. Pocket book editions of poetry, mystery stories, and humor are especially sought by the campaigners.

Books will be repaired by the library staff, if necessary, before being sent to USO rooms, ships and naval bases. Persons who donate the books should put their name and address on the fly-leaf.

Junior Canoe Fete

(Continued from page one)

Southern Pacific railway tracks, shifting of the highway, and construction of a large park area around the main segment of the stream. When the entire project will be finished is not known as vet.

Layouts of the development show a broadened, semi-lake portion of the race for the Canoe Fete. An amphitheater on the south bank seats 6,000 people at capacity and faces a large stage and band-shell set across the water amid the trees and lawns of the park area. A small lake lies at the west end of the park.

OREGON CMERALD Reporters:

Jack Billings Elsie Brownell Elaine Dahl Margaret Deane Joanne Dolph Bob Edwards Bob Fowells Ted Goodwin Carol Greening Ruth Jordan Al Larsen

Marjorie Major John Mathews Bette Miller

Roy Nelson Edith Newton Margie Robinson Jean Spearow Betty Ann Stevens Janet Wagstaff Mildred Wilson

Friday Office Staff:

Carolyn McKinley Maureen Conklin Penny Mullen Leslie Brockelbank Saturday Advertising Staff: Paul Thurston, manager Judy Eccles Bill Hunt John Jensen Friday Layout Staff: Marilyn Woodruff Copy Desk Staff: Herb Penny, city editor Jack Billings, assistant Bob Edwards Fred Kuhl Night Staff: Bob Edwards, night editor Marjorie Pierce Ted Bush G. Duncan Wimpress John J. Mathews Jack Billings Bud Churchill

Fred Kuhl Ora May Watson Edith Newton George

Old Fair Collection

Souvenirs of the Panama-Pacific international exposition at San Francisco in 1915 have been purchased by John Henry Nash for display in the Nash room collection.

The programs, invitations, passes, and guide catalogs were obtained from John Howe, San Francisco importer, publisher and collector of books.

Draft Experts

(Continued from page one) tion; army air corps, James C. Stovall, instructor in geography; navy air corps, Franklin Sherwin, instructor in civilian pilot training.

Students interested in learning more about opportunities in these branches of the service were urged by Dr. Pallett to confer with these men. Such conferences were especially urged before vol-

DAILY EMERALD Saturday, January 31, 1942 Page 3

Oregon Mothers Club Holds Meet on Campus

Twenty-five mothers of the Oregon Mother's club, representatives from all sections of the state, met yesterday on the campus, with Mrs. A. E. Caswell, president.

A luncheon, given by Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, was held in the director's room at the men's dormitory, after which discussion was held concerning the raising of money for the three scholarships presented by the Oregon mothers annually.

UO Grad Joins AFS

Kenneth Leatherman, graduate in anthropology in 1939, volunteered recently as an ambulance driver in Egypt for the American Field service. He will leave short ly for duty.

Leatherman spent the summer and fall of 1939 on an extended bicycle trip through Europe.

Lost Articles Found

Two articles, in addition to those listed in the Thursday Emerald have been found in the art building and may be had by identifying them, according to Mrs. Mable Houck, secretary and librarian of the art school. The two articles turned in yesterday were a purse and a sum of money.

Campus Calendar

Student F.O.R. group will meet tonight in the YWCA bungalow at 6:30.

Yeomen will meet in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall at 7:30 Monday evening.

Department Discussed By Art School Faculty

Victoria Avakian, associate professor of applied design, and Andrew Vincent, professor of drawing and painting will be the speakers on a half-hour program Monday over KOAC when he explains how the department of general art works. The program will start at 8 p.m.

W. S. Hayden, associate professor of architecture, and Miss Brownell Frasier spoke last Monday about architecture and interior design, what the professions are in connection with these subjects, and what students are doing in these fields.

George Jette, instructor in landscape architecture, spoke on Tuesday concerning its relation to defense.

All hand dipped chocolates, lusciously filled with cream, fruit, nut and chewy centers of goodness!

son will lead the service.

Westminster

Westminster house will have Dr. John Casteel, director of the speech division, as guest at the 6:30 forum. Dr. Casteel will give "A Morality Play for the Leisure Class," a one-man performance. Alice Blachly and Virginia Taylor are in charge of the service. A girls' trio, with Mardell Webb, Ruth Baker, and Carol Read will sing. Dick Thomas will continue the series on "Adventures in Personal Religion" at 9 Sunday morning. Florence Anderson is in charge of the morning worship service.

W. Irwin Williams, First Presbyterian church, Salem, will speak at the First Methodist church on "The College, The Crisis, The Christ," at 11 a.m.

Wesley

Wesley foundation will hold its evening chapel hour at 6:30. Lois Ginther will conduct a Bible quiz and discussion.

At St. Mary's Episcopal church at 11 a.m. tomorrow Father Ernest Bartlam will speak on "Betting One's Life." The Canterbury club will meet at a fireside at 6:30 p.m.

Dorm Committee

(Continued from page one) in the dormitories to make note of all wasted food and to report their findings to the food committee.

Report

Mercer revealed that at the. next meeting of the Oregon Dads' club, which will be during the Dad's weekend in February, Fred Stickles, president of the Eugene group of Oregon Dads, will make a report on his investigaiton of the conditions in the dorms.

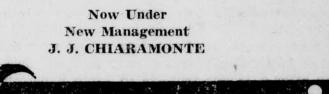

Representing the dorms at yesterday's meeting were Charles Lundquist, Frank Quinn, Wallace Lambert, Hall Simons, Dick Bennett, Ty Hutchens, Mercer, Winifred Green, Ruth Green, Lulu Pali, and Helen Mae Hatcher. Jean Spearow, Helen Holden, and George Pederson are also members of the committee but could not be present.

The group plans to meet again Thursday afternoon.

untary enlistment in the armed forces.

' Persons who have already signed for the "V-7," "V-5," or naval reserve were urged to register in the office of the registrar on the second floor of Johnson hall. The University administration may then keep them informed of new developments in the plans as the University is informed of them, Dr. Pallett said.

FE and COFFEE

mours

known for good

We can fulfill your order for any of your weekend picnic needs. Cold meats, salted nuts, salads and cheese for the skiing party. Take your change out in Savings Stamps.

HOGAN'S GROCERY and COOK'S MAR

DR. ELLA C. MEADE

OPTOMETRIST

Phone 330

lood

Workers in factories, schools, or military units must keep careful eyes on the slightest details. Important to everyone in this day of vigilance is keen and perceptive vision.

14 W. 8th