

Campaign Nets $375 War Aid

Saturday's defense bond campaign headed by Harry Prongas netted pledges totalling $375, it was reported today. In the short space allotted the campaign, 12 hours, house representatives contacted 520 people, who promised to invest amounts which will total $75 a month through the duration, Prongas said.

Students who were not contacted can still do their part for defense by purchasing defense savings stamps and bonds at the Co-op. The campaign of which Prongas was chairman was a part of the all-campus defense drive headed by Russ Hudson.

Houses which pledged 100 per cent and their representatives) were: Alpha Phi, Pat Palmer; University house, Maxine Wyse; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Jean Johnston; Theta Chi, Bud Putnam; Chi Omega, Dorothy Routt; Alpha Tau Omega, Bill Huggins.

Other representatives were: Alpha Chi Omega, Ann Vodeberg; Alpha Delta Pi, Florence Hamilton; Alpha Gamma Delta, Norma Baker; Alpha Omicron Pi, Barbara Lamb; Alpha Phi, Pat Palmer; Alpha Xi Delta, Florence Cooley; Chi Omega, Dorothy Routt; Delta Delta Delta, Jean Friderger; Delta Gamma, Peggy Magill; Gamma Phi Beta, Connie Averill; Hendricks hall, Jean Spearow; Kappa Alpha Theta, Phyllis Root.

Kappa Kappa Gamma, Jean Johnston; Pi Beta Phi, Margaret Keating; Sigma Kappa, Jean Snyder; Susan Campbell hall, Helen Mae Hatcher; Zeta Tau Alpha, Kay Fox.

Alpha hall, Stan Hager; Alpha Tau Omega, Bud Vandeneynde; Beta Theta Pi, Bob Igl; Campbell cooperative, Harry Sturges; Canard club, Paul Merrick.

Chi Psi, Tom Huston; Delta Tau Delta, Dave Hart; Delta Upsilon, Wilbur Linde; Gamma hall, Jack Brown; Kappa Sigma, Joseph Montag; Kirkwood co-op, Frank Toby; Omega hall, Chuck Boice; Phi Delta Theta, Jim Thayer; Phi Gamma Delta, Bob Hohne; Phi Kappa Psi, Barry Campbell; Pi Kappa Alpha, Bob Yancy.

Sherry Ross hall, Joe Miller; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Bob Ballar; Sigma Alpha Mu, Ray Pakouz; Sigma Chi, Conrad Schmick; Sigma hall, Harry Larsen.

Sigma Nu, Max Miller; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Maurice Salomon; Theta Chi, Bud Putman; Zeta hall, John Jensen; Sigma Kappa, Tuck Wilder.

Because so little time was available for the campaign, the sign with names of houses pledging 100 per cent will not be displayed in the Co-op as was previously intended, according to Prongas.

Air Highlights Roll Tonight

KOAC highlights from Eugene tonight get under way at 7:30 p.m. with the music school's program, which will be sponsored by Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music honorary. Eight musical gems will be heard on tonight's program, which features violin and vocal ensembles, and two instrumental soloists. Barbara Crisp, accordionist, has chosen a number from her fascinating repertoire of original compositions. Elizabeth Walker, violinist, is the small, brilliant concertmaster with this year's University symphony orchestra.

At 8 p.m. neighborhood newscasters, Jean Spearow, Elaine Dahl, and Chuck Boice, will bid a tearful farewell to their colleague, Hal Olney, who leaves Friday to be inducted into Uncle Sam's military machine. Tidbits from newspapers throughout Oregon will be presented, including the sad tale of a chicken whose efforts to increase production (for defense, of course) resulted in her demise.

"The World in Review," at 8:15 will again present Dean Victor P. Morris of the business administration school, interpreting and discussing the latest war developments.

Sig Ep Elects Officers

Sigma Phi Epsilon chose house officers for the coming year last night. Elected were Lloyd Manning, president; Morrie Salomon, vice-president; Don McIntosh, historian; Bob Henderson, secretary; Ernie Short, house manager; Duncan Wimpers and Warren Christianson, marshals; and George Andrews, guard.

Tour Planned For Frosh Girls

Choice of the most attractive coeds' room on the campus will be the upshot of the annual coed tour for freshmen sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, Wednesday, February 25. Freshman girls are to meet at 4 p.m. in front of the Co-op to begin the tour which will give them a chance to visit various living organizations on the campus.

At the Co-op girls will split into two groups, one of which will take them to the Gamma Phi Beta, Hilyard, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Pi Beta Phi houses, ending at Alpha Chi Omega. The other group will also end at the Alpha Chi house and will visit Hendricks, Delta Delta Delta, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Delta Gamma, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Each girl is to write on a slip of paper the room she likes best. The rooms will then be discussed at the Alpha Chi house, where cookies and tea are to be served, and votes will be counted. Then the winning house and members living in the room which was voted the most attractive, will be announced.

The tour is expected to give coeds new ideas on how they would like to decorate their own rooms, as well as to acquaint them with other houses. The committee for the tour is Carolyn Holmes, chairman; Eleanor Engdahl, and Mary Anderson.

Two Men Pledged

Marshall Pattison and Ross E. Lanser were pledged by Sigma Phi Epsilon last week.

YM Fireside Stars Love, Marriage Talk

As part of the love and marriage series, the University YMCA will hold its fireside for unaffiliated students in the YMCA house tonight at 7:15.

Dr. Lawrence S. Bee, assistant professor of sociology and one of the leaders in the firesides this year, will be in charge of the meeting tonight.

Clay Jones is chairman of arrangements. Though the panel has been arranged for independent students outside of campus living organizations who have not had a chance to take part in one of the organized discussions, all University men are invited.

Kwama Booth Open

Students not living in any organizations can purchase their tickets from the Kwama booth in front of the Side the mornings of March 3 and 4 from 9 to 12, Harry Prongas, co-chairman, announced.

Both squads have been picked (the "A" squad is at the bottom of the sports page today) and will begin practice as soon as the regular IM playoffs are over. Bill MacArthur, Independent coach and Ted Sarpola, Greek mentor, are expected to drive their charges hard in the abbreviated time before March 4.

Buck Buchwach, the Omnipresent, will be on hand to announce both tilts over the McArthur public address system. Dick Strite, Guard sports editor, is going to keep score, and Art Litchman, sports editor of the News, will handle the stopwatch.

Hart Collection Now on Display

A representative display of the art work of Lance W. Hart, an assistant professor of drawing and painting at the University until the time of his death, are being shown in the Little Art gallery of the art building. This exhibit is open to the public every day from 9 to 5.

Oils, water colors, prints, and ink work are shown among the 83 pieces that were loaned to the school by Mrs. Hart especially for this display, and will be shown until February 28.

Show Progress

The various pictures show the progress Mr. Hart made in his style of painting from approximately 1923 until the time of his death last May. Some of the earlier work was done while the artist was in Europe.

At the Chicago art institute Mr. Hart studied from 1912 to 1916. In 1914 he took part in the Chicago artists exhibit. During the last war he served as second lieutenant in the field artillery.

Ordinary Seaman

Wishing to go to Stockholm to study, Mr. Hart sailed from Portland in 1922 as an ordinary seaman on the British freighter "Gothicstar," bound for Glasgow. In Sweden he attended the Royal Academy of Fire Arts for two years and did several of the oil paintings shown in the display.

Later the painter worked as an illustrator of stories for a large weekly magazine for which he received a small fee. He later did numerous murals, among them those in the ballroom of the Town club in Portland.

In 1938 he became an instructor at the University and remained here until his death last spring.
