

Juniors Herald Plan For Novel Weekend

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLIII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1942 NUMBER 87

Dean Morse Billed As Final Speaker

WAYNE L. MORSE . . . dean will address today's all-student assembly.

Arbitrator To Discuss War, Labor

By AL LARSEN

The nation-wide recognition given to Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, for his outstanding contributions as a labor arbitrator makes his appearance before the last general assembly of the term, 11 a.m. today, an event of special interest to the University upon which his increasing achievements are a glowing reflection.

Dean Morse, who has delivered a majority of the decisions of the national war labor board, will discuss the major problems of labor during the war period, giving a resume of what is happening in the labor movement,

(Please turn to page five)

HORACE ROBINSON . . . will direct "Of Thee I Sing," substitute for Junior Weekend's dance fete.

Robinson to Direct Musical Comedy

By MARJORIE MAJOR

With the millrace a mud memory, the educational activities board last night approved the Junior Weekend production of the musical comedy "Of Thee I Sing" by the drama division, the junior class, and the educational activities board. Director and general coordinator is Horace W. Robinson, associate professor of drama.

Under fire for the three months following the draining of the mill race, which excluded any possibility of the traditional canoe fete. Production work is to begin immediately on this Pulitzer prize winner of 1931.

Interviews for parts in "Of Thee I Sing" begin today from 11 to 12 and from 3 to 5 in Mr. Robinson's office, the drama studio. Volunteers will be interviewed for the dramatic dialogue, the singing leads, the singing choruses, and the beauty chorus.

"Of Thee I Sing" is the only musical comedy ever to even be considered for the Pulitzer prize, and it received the award on the merits of fine comic writing. It was written by George Kaufman and Maurie Erskine, with a musical score by George Gershwin and lyrics by Ira Gershwin.

Campus-Wide

Participation in the spectacle will be campus-wide, since the

(Please turn to page twelve)

Confab to End For BA Men

Seven business men, outstanding in their respective fields, will bring the annual student business conferences, sponsored by the school of business administration, to a close today.

Speakers

Speakers this afternoon will be James Emmett, assistant sales manager, Pendleton woolen mills, Portland; Percy W. Brown, Eugene; J. H. McKinley, Tromp and McKinley, Eugene; W. T. Switzer, store manager, Montgomery Ward and company, Eugene; Roy Morse, Broadway, Incorporated, Eugene; Ben Hazen, Benjamin Franklin Federal Savings and

(Please turn to page five)

Events Filed For Week

Complete winter schedule is given on page 12.

All students considering attending summer session should call at the office of Dr. Dan E. Clark before spring term registration.

A fourth performance of "The Wingless Victory" will be given by the Guild theater on Friday night, March 6. Reserved seats may be secured by calling 3300 extension 216.

Dates are limited to two this weekend with 10:30 permission Friday and Sunday nights and 12:15 permission Saturday night. Next weekend will be further limited to one date on Saturday night with 12:15 permission.

The date for withdrawals from classes is Thursday,

(Please turn to page eleven)

Executives Set Election Dates

What the executive committee did:

1. Set date for selection of rally committee.
2. Set date for ASUO nominations, elections, and inauguration.
3. Postponed yell leader elections.

The rally committee will be selected this Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6. Men will be interviewed by the executive committee at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, women at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in McArthur court.

Nominations for student body officers are scheduled for Tuesday, April 7. Election, under the jurisdiction of Jim Frost, will be the following Tuesday, April 14, and the inauguration assembly Thursday, April 16.

Because only one application was received for yell leader, the committee decided to postpone election for that office until next term. Further applications will be accepted.

A request for an additional $17.50 for excess expenses incurred by the Dads' Day committee was referred back to the budget committee for further study.

Finals

Finals will soon be upon us.

Though I work like a Beaver
I find that spring fever
Ensues when old Sol shines down
on us,

And the moon through the night
Throws enough mellow light
To inspire the most latent Adonis,

So I sigh and relate
As I pick up my slate
That finals will soon be upon us.