

Second Vesper Service Show Set for Sunday

The second University Vesper service will be held this Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Music School auditorium, Dr. Paul B. Means, professor of religion and secretary of the vesper committee, announced today.

The program of the service will be similar to the previous one held winter term. John Stark Evans, professor of music, is in charge of the musical part of the program and announced that Laurence Pratt, freshman in music, will play several organ pieces, among them "A Visitor," by Rhinberger, and the Largo from the "New World" symphony by Dvorak. Margaret Zimmerman and Ruth Sprecher will sing a duet. The Westminster readers will take charge of the meditations part of the program.

This service is held under the auspices of the school of music and the student religious council, representing the various voluntary religious organizations on the campus. It is under the general direction of Dean Theodore Kratt.

Amphibians Plan

At a meeting of the Amphibian club last night, Jeanette Neilson, president, announced plans for a swimming pageant to be given during April. "Practices are ex-

Notices Filed

Petitions for the position of chairman of the rally squad are being filed in the educational activities office at McArthur court in care of Mary Graham, secretary, by 5 p.m. Friday, March 27. They must be accompanied by a signed statement of intention to run, and a certificate of scholastic eligibility from the dean of men.

Male faculty members are to be honored at a tea to be given by the YMCA advisory board at the YM house from 4 to 5:30 p.m. today.

Epidemically speaking, the infirmary is now being overwhelmed to the extent of seven new cases of measles, leaving the three Betas not so much alone, and bringing the total of measles-struck patients up to ten.

Infirmary patients are: Wreatha Johnson, June Chesney, Sarah Whitton, Peggy Smith, Chester Sergeant, Tim Brinton, Carolyn McKinley, Eleanor Stewart, Norman King, Quentin Sidesinger, David Fortmiller, Bruce Stephenson, Bob Hammond, Ross Sellars, Lefla Telfer, and Dorothy Flanery.

tremely important," said Miss Neilson, "and all members not attending meetings will be dropped. The time for the meetings has been changed from 7:30 to 8:00 but the pool will be open at 7:30 for those who want to come early."

Spring Ad Staff Named by May

Fred O. May, Emerald business manager, last night announced the following new appointments to the spring term business staff:

Jim Thayer, former business and day manager, as promotion manager; Connie Fullmer, classified-advertising manager; and new day managers: Elaine Dahl, Thursday; Barbara Thompson, Friday; and John Jensen, assistant Saturday.

Jeanne Routt, Paul Thurston, and Russell Smelser will remain on their regular day manager posts.

Also retaining their present posts are Lois Clause, circulation manager; Tyke Flynn, office manager; and Helen Rayburn, layout manager.

May added that all those who are interested in joining the business staff, but did not attend the Wednesday meeting, should contact him immediately.

Enrollment

(Continued from page one) and school at the end of the week. The latest classification included only figures Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It disclosed a 15 per cent increase in junior registration, and decreases of 39 and 33 per cent in senior and sophomore enrollment in comparison with last year.

C. L. Constance, assistant registrar, said that the decrease of sophomores and increase of juniors was probably caused in large part by the receipt of a larger number of junior certificates.

The late registration fee became $5 Wednesday, the maximum charged. Refund may be had only on written proof of illness or other serious cause for delay, as the University regulations specify.

In connection with out-of-state registration, C. K. Stalsberg, cashier, states that out-of-state fees will be due on April 6.

Davis Given

Captain Davis' major fields are education, personnel management, and business administration.

During his career as an educator he has pledged the following honorary societies: Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Kappa Phi Kappa, and Pi Rho Zeta. While at Oregon he has pledged Scabbard and Blade.

The Tanaka Memorial

The answer to these vast ambitions of the Hirohito hordes is right now being germinated in the brains of such men as MacArthur and Cripps. In the meantime, remember those planes flying north to Alaska . . . they are not going up there for tourist duty. Remember also that the Aleutians are not far from Japan . . . soon there will be nice bombing weather.

Emerald Business Staff Has Mail Clerk Vacancy

Not a dollar-a-year but a dollar-an-issue man is what Fred O. May, Emerald business manager, is looking for.

May is receiving applications this week for the position of mailing clerk. This job pays $1 per issue of the Emerald. The hours are from about 6 to 8 a.m.

Applicants should apply by 5 p.m. Friday in the business office, room 5, Journalism, in person, said May. Information needed is name, address, phone, age, class, draft status, and experience.

The new clerk will work as an "apprentice" this term, without pay, for several days, to get enough experience to take over next year. Some work on circulation records will be required.

Trinity college has a history class conducted by a blind instructor.

Campus Calendar

Amphibian tryouts will be held this afternoon at 5:00 in Gerlinger pool.

Phi Beta, music drama, and dance honorary, will meet this evening at 7:30 at Abbie Jane White's home, 1257 East Nineteenth street. All members and pledges are requested to be present.

The Lutheran Student association will sponsor an ice-skating party at 10 p.m. Friday, March 27 at the Eugene ice arena. All members of the organization and their friends are invited to attend. Persons without transportation to the arena are asked to meet at the YWCA at 9:30 p.m.

A faculty pot-luck supper is being sponsored by Westminster house this evening at 6. Each person who wishes to attend should invite a faculty member as a guest.

All science preference students will meet in room 103, Deady hall, Thursday afternoon at 4 to elect delegates to the Oregon Student Science conference.
