Zeta Hall Shut for Term

Plan Helps Eating Set-up

By EDITH NEWTON

An innovation in dormitory set-up will provide for a late breakfast on Saturday, it was learned Thursday after Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, dormitory director, had previously decided to close Zeta hall and Emerald house.

As student registration took another long glide down, particularly in number of men students enrolled, Mrs. Turnipseed concluded it would be advisable to close Zeta and move the students living there to another hall. The majority of Zeta men, approximately 28, were moved to Omega hall. Others went to halls of their own preference.

Emerald House

Emerald house, opened last fall term for the overflow of dormitory girls, was also closed after registration, since 24 dormitory girls had moved out after rush week leaving sufficient room for the 13 Emerald house occupants.

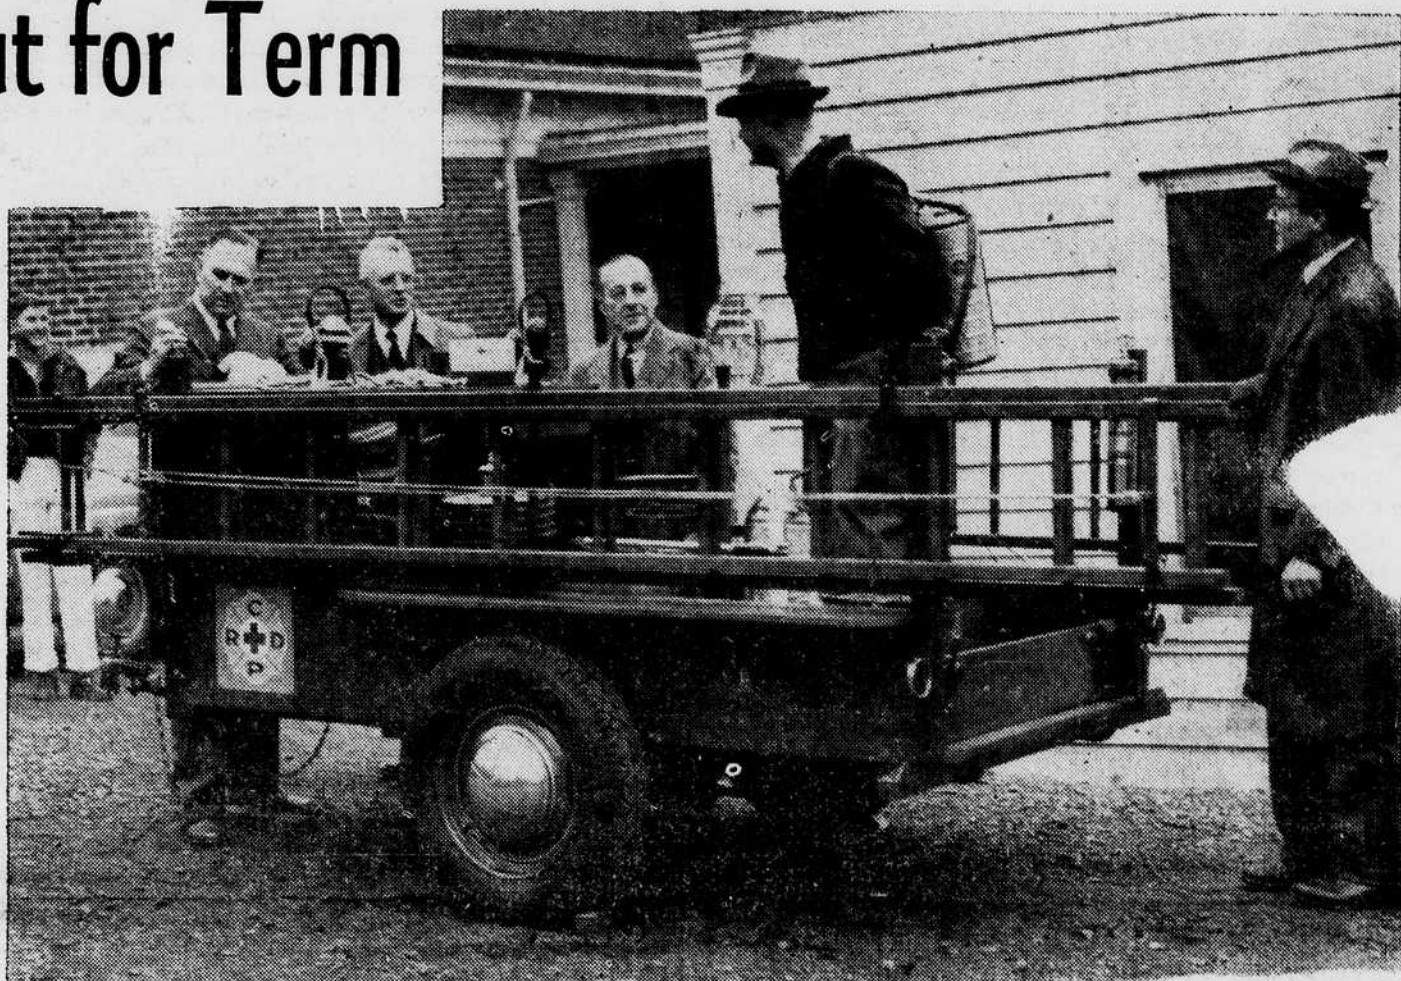

Dormitory students will have an opportunity to sleep later on Saturday this term and still have breakfast, it was decided when the food committee met with Mrs. Turnipseed and Miss Helen Goodenow, dormitory dietitian.

New Breakfast Plan

According to the new plan, breakfast will be served from 8:15 to 9 o'clock Saturday as it is on Sunday. For students who must eat earlier because of jobs or other reasons, the breakfast line will be open for 15 minutes beginning at 7:30 Saturday mornings.

At the suggestion of the committee, a new policy was started yesterday whereby a dorm student will check each day's menu tallied as follows: Earle Russell, 73; Bud Steele, 46; Max Miller, 29; Stanley Dyer, 20; Relf Case, 13. A lone ballot, possibly a straggler from AWS elections, backed Marge Dibble, new AWS president.

Votes were counted by a committee of four: Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel; Jean Friderger, sophomore; Jim Frost, director of elections; and Helen Flynn, sophomore.

Russell will appoint yell dukes to assist him in the near future.

Riflers Take Second Place

"A miss is as good as a mile"—and the University men's rifle team really knows it since they lost the 1942 National Reserve Officers Training Corps rifle competition for the William Randolph Hearst trophy.

The University team composed of Malcolm Almack, Parker Hemingway, Robert Ellinwood, Warren Carkin, and Lee Ghormley, placed second in the competition with University of Idaho's team having an edge of one point to give them a final score of 948.

Major-General Jay L. Benedict, commanding general of the ninth corps area, announced the results of the national contest this week.

The Webfoots have been national champions in 1935, 1937, and 1939, and are one of the few teams in the nation that have

'Bataan Ballet' To Buy Truck

By BERNIE ENGEL

With the proceeds going to purchase an auxiliary fire trailer for civilian defense, Sigma Delta Chi presents the General Douglas MacArthur dance and floorshow at 9 o'clock tonight in McArthur court.

Art Holman's orchestra will play for the dance and between-halves show. The dance is informal and it is requested that students spend money for defense stamps rather than for flowers.

Tickets may be purchased at the booth in front of the College Side for $1.50 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today. Tickets bought at the door will cost $1.25.

The between halves show, first spring varieties to appear in the campus in several years, is made up of student entertainers and includes Hawaiian dancing, singers of all classes and ranges, and comic skits.

Special lighting effects and two blackouts will be used to add color. Jery Lakefish directs the varieties and Jim Bronson has written the script. Everything was pronounced shipshape after final rehearsal last night.
