

Bye-Bye to Past Rulers Said Today

It's a women's world . . . hail and farewell to this year's coed rulers.

Thursday at 4 the retiring AWS officers will turn over their duties to a new but swell group of gavel-wielders at installation . . . t'be followed at 6 by a banquet at the Gamma Phi Beta house . . . yum . . . also, we are all glad to see "ex" Elizabeth Steed up and at 'em again.

The "All-Kwama" picnic will be held on the second of May instead of the previously announced date in anticipation of fairer weather . . . all the honorary members for years back will be guests of the present white-sweaters.

Important Dates . . . the Nickel Hop . . . soon . . . co-chairmanship consisting of Dot Clear and Virginia Wells was revealed at the last AWS cabinet meeting . . . the Phi Theta twisty sale will roll around during the next hungry months.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS . . . Past AWS President Elizabeth "Steedie" Steed, "Golly, it's been a grand year—thanks to all! I only wish I could experience it again. But the new cabinet has a group of officers that I feel sure will do a grand job.

Maxine Hansen, past vice-president, "It was wonderful while it lasted."

Nancy Riesch, past treasurer for AWS, "Balancing the budget was easy after the success enjoyed by the auctions and Nickel Hop. A truly perfect year.

Marge Curtis, past AWS secretary, "Whew, some of the correspondence really kept me going—but I enjoyed getting the mail. More fun."

Barbara Lamb, past reporter for AWS, "Thanks for a year full of fun, laughs, and work. A year adding another notch in a "women's world."

Charting her course . . . Blonde Abbie Reveals True Love Is--Music

By BETTY ANN STEVENS

"2098W, please—yes, 2098W." A pause, and a rather high soft voice said, "Hello? Yes, this is Abbie Jane White. Coed of the week? Well—I'm taking care of some children over on Fairmont, but I can get away at 9:30 tonight. Shall I come over and see you?"

So, at 9:30 began a very unorthodox interview in which the interviewee, asked more questions than she answered.

Blond, Gamma Phi Abbie Jane, new YWCA prexy sat on the edge of the advenport, toying with her car keys.

Do-Re-Mi

"Music-minded?" she asked, "Oh, slightly. I mean I love music, and I started to minor in it, but— Yes, I was president of Phi Beta," she affirmed.

"I play the piano, but I don't play any orthodox things." She doesn't play "boogie-woogie" or classical, "just what I like." Her music teacher was "furious" with her when she tried to swing "Silent Night" when she was in the fourth grade, she added with a grin.

"My plans for the 'Y'?" she asked. "Well, let's see— There's one thing that I'm interested in mainly—the tea group, and the music group, and combine the two, and it seems to me that things can be just as inspiring through music. It's always mostly discussion groups."

Men?

A Phi Theta, she is also a member of the "Spinster's club." To the question, "How about men?" she countered with a sly twinkle, "Well, how about them? Nice people. No comment." She admitted an interest in man, however, as "the fellow I go with isn't in school."

As for hobbies, etc., she announced, "I collect dust!" She then said unexpectedly, "I have a teddy bear named 'Gladly!' She leaned back and with a mischievous gleam in her eye declared, "He's cross-eyed."

"Skipper"

From a year of Phi Beta presiding, Abbie Jane White takes over the reigns of the YMCA.

More seriously, she said, "Yes, I'm a language major. I'm taking French, and lots of people seem to think it's kind of a lost cause at this point, but I don't think so." She's not quite sure just what she's going to do in the field of language, when she graduates.

To Wed

A June wedding will be that of Miss Rebecca Anderson to George Stowell Burson of Fillmore, California. The announcement was made last weekend.

The bride-elect is past president of Orides, a member of Mu Phi Epsilon and of Phi Beta, mu-his honoraries. She was a member of Phi Theta Upsilon and this year also is senior representative on the ASUO executive committee.

Mr. Burson is a senior in forestry at Oregon State college.

Engaged

The engagement of Miss Ruby Jackson to Robert B. Frazier was announced to about 30 friends at an informal tea held Saturday afternoon at the bride-elect's home.

Yellow and white spring flowers decorated the room. Receiving with Miss Jackson were her mothers, Mrs. Joseph Jackson and the groom-elect's mother.

Both Miss Jackson and Frazier are University students. The former is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority and Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary. Frazier is former news editor of the Emerald and a member of Sigma Delta Chi.

The Last Word

By MARGE CURTIS

Easter Sunday is the time to wear the new spring hat you've been saving, to walk to church in clean, white and tan spectators, and to pin a flower to the lapel of your best suit or lightweight coat. All this, of course, depending upon the "Oregon mist."

It is customary for some fraternities to have annual Easter breakfasts, and if you should be invited to one of these, dress as you would if you were going to church. Wearing of hats is optional, however, and is up to you and your escort.

Radio dances scheduled for Saturday night call for short silks, as do theater dates.

Nino Martini sings Tuesday evening at McArthur court, and campus clothes are in order for the concert, although it is perfectly proper to wear silks and heels if one wishes.

Rome endured as long as there were Romans. America will endure as long as we remain American in spirit and in thought.
