

ISA Selects Steve Worth For UO Head

Steve Worth, junior in journalism, became the independent candidate for nomination for student body president Wednesday after a tabulation of independent votes by the ISA senate at a meeting in Chapman hall.

Worth's election was unanimous for the "No. 1" position on the independent ballot. He has been active for the past year in the organization of the independent students' organization.

No. 2

The "No. 2" position was won by Mary Anderson, sophomore in physical education and well-known campus baton-twirler. Wes Sullivan, junior in journalism and Oregana magazine editor, was elected to the senior position; Max Brown, sophomore in science, will be candidate for the junior position; and Hal Locke, freshman in law, will be nominated for the sophomore commissionship.

Nominations Tuesday

The candidates for independent nominations were announced by Milt Small, president of the ISA senate. The candidates, according to Small, will be nominated for the student body positions open at the general nominating assembly next Tuesday morning.

Max Brown, the junior commission nominee, announced that the candidates will be introduced to independents at a rally dance, free to all independents, scheduled for Friday, April 10.

All-Campus Sing

If 24 people show up in each chorus,

'Twill throw an embarrassing problem before us.

With the number of entrants this contest will bring to

There won't be anyone left they can sing to. —J.W.S.

GERTUDE BOYD CRANE
... she sees Easter in a world at war.

Early Risers To Worship Easter Morn

By ELSIE BROWNELL

The completed program of the Easter sunrise service for all University students and Eugene town people was announced Thursday by Pete Howard, general chairman. The service will be held this Sunday morning at 7 in McArthur court.

At the same time the Student Christian council announced that the offertory received there in excess of that needed to pay expenses of the service would be contributed to the World Student Service fund.

"The extra needs of students in countries abroad have greatly increased the demands put on this fund, and so make the committee's selection both timely and wise," Dan Bacot, YMCA executive secretary, said.

Main Speaker

Prof. Gertrude Boyd Crane of Pacific university will give the early morning address on the top. (Please turn to page seven)

U.S. Stars, Stripes Chosen for Theme

War Brightens Brains

Winter term GPA's indicate that adverse conditions can be met and mastered. Despite unsettled world conditions, the draft and a shortened term, the roll of honor includes 29 more names than that of last fall term.

Two hundred six students are listed with grade points above 3.5. This is also an increase from last spring term when 161 students made the honor roll.

The number of four points also increased. Last spring 18 made straight A's; this fall term 20 turned them in; and winter term there were 22.

Those who hit the top with four points are: Shirley K. Anderson, Helen Angell, John A. Busterud, Paul E. Callahan, Frankie Cecil, Marjory E. Clear, Marion D. Cloud, Don H. Coulter, Billie J. Dexter, Armin H. Gropp, Roy J. Hensley.

Clinton S. McGill, Thelma C. Nelson, Edith A. Onthank, Jeanne E. Parker, Elizabeth S. Plankington, Betty J. Poindexter, John A. Powers, Nicholas V. Riasanovsky, Milton M. Small, Jean E. Spearow, and Don W. Treadgold.

Frosh Glee ...

Slack May Play Here

Committee heads for the Frosh Glee met Thursday night and formulated plans for the annual freshman dance, which will be held Friday, April 24, at McArthur court.

Hal Locke, orchestra chairman, announced that prospects were bright for obtaining Freddy Slack's orchestra to play at the dance. Slack, who is considered the originator of "boogie-woogie" music, was formerly a member of Will Bradley's nationally famous band.

Choice Next Week

His band is reported to have created a new sensation in California, where it has fulfilled several record engagements at top night spots. Locke said that the definite selection of an orchestra will be made next week, and if Slack's band cannot be obtained, Woody Hite or one of several Seattle bands may play.

Plans to have an elaborately decorated dance to express the naval theme were announced by Bud Bird, co-chairman of decorations.

Admiral Elimination

Selection of the five finalists for the first "Little Admiral" will be made later next week, according to Entertainment Chairman Bass Dyer. He said that all women's organizations are to submit a picture of their freshman candidates by Saturday. It is hoped that the San Diego naval base will make the final selection, although no word has been received from them yet.

Girls will be granted 1 o'clock permission to attend the dance. During intermission Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, plans to have its tapping ceremony. There may also be several numbers from finalists in the all-campus sing which will be held the following night, it was announced by publicity chairman Harry Glickman.

Bargain Hunter Buys Lost Dress

A much-feted green formal was among the incongruous conglomeration of apparel and nicknacks sold over the AWS auction block Wednesday in front of the Side. It went to Betty Lou (wily buyer) Brugman, sophomore in social science.

The sales netted $28.11, with auctioneers Joe Montag and Fred Lloyd wielding the gavel. Lloyd substituted for Bunny Potts, who was originally designated co-auctioneer with Montag.

The enterprise was considered a success, according to Marge Dibble, AWS president. She commented, "Oh, golly! It was wonderful!"

Sign Contest Ends at Noon Tomorrow

The high flying red, white, and blue banner of The Stars and Stripes will be the theme of Junior Weekend in order to carry out the "Of Thee I Sing" motif, the Weekend directorate decided Thursday.

With the announcement of the theme Betty Jane Biggs, promotion chairman, pointed out that the motif could be played up in the roadside sign contest which closes at noon tomorrow.

The selection of a theme was left in the hands of the committee instead of holding the traditional theme contest, explained Pat Cloud, junior class president. This was done, he said, because of many difficulties which have arisen because of war pressure.

No War Rah Rah

John Busterud, Junior Weekend chairman, pointed out that the theme was not chosen in order to play on the present war emotionalism but merely to carry out the central motif of the musical. The theme should be used as a "happy type of patriotism," he added, and is not used to remind students of Pearl Harbor but of the United States.

The directorate committee which selected the theme is: Cloud, Busterud, Miss Biggs, and Les Anderson, chairman of the Junior Prom committee.

Steele Gets Yell Position

Bud Steele, junior in business administration, with two terms of yell duke experience behind him, was again appointed to this position Thursday night by Earle Russell, re-elected yell king.

Steele was first appointed yell duke for last spring term. He served in this capacity for all of that term and for most of the fall term football season, before being declared ineligible on a scholastic ruling.

Duke Lynn

The new yell assistant was chosen from a group of candidates who have been trying out for the positions during the past week. Frank Lynn, freshman in business administration, was previously appointed to the dukedom for this term by Russell.

"I greatly appreciate being re-elected to the yell king position," said Russell Thursday night, "and I hope to really have a program worked out for next fall's football season. I would like to have another assistant, since three yell dukes are provided for in the constitution, and if I can arrange it I'll appoint a third one before fall term."

Committee Chairmen Named by KKK Chiefs

Chairmen to Reveal Theme Tomorrow

Committee heads for the Crazy Kopy Krawl, scheduled for Saturday, April 11, were announced last night by Bob Lovell and Jim Thayer, co-chairman of the dance. They are:

Emerson Page, promotion chairman; Doug David, tickets; Ken Bowes, programs; Don Belding, arrangements and Warren Roper, patrons.

The dance is being sponsored by Alpha Delta Sigma, men's national advertising honorary. The theme of the dance and further details will be announced Saturday, according to the two chairmen.

'Sing' to Rehearse

"Of Thee I Sing" reading rehearsal today at 1 o'clock—Act II, Scene II.

JIM THAYER ...

... one of the chiefs for ...

(Photo by Kennell-Ellis)
BOB LOVELL ...

... the Crazy Kopy Krawl