Ducks Spurn Money

By BARBARA YOUNGER

The red, white, and blue spirit showed like neon lights in Oregon students when they rose to a man (one remained seated) to say that they would rather have seven per cent of their co-op receipts in defense bonds than five per cent in cash.

When students forsake that scarce glittery stuff for pieces of paper with pretty printing, they must know that those pieces of paper are guarantees that they won't be completing their education at either the University of Heidelberg or Tokyo.

Bonds Optional

The Co-op board is considering offering defense bonds and stamps to students who would rather have them than cash.

One dear creature replied: "I think defense bonds would be just lovely!"

Would you rather have seven per cent of your Co-op receipts in defense bonds than have five per cent in cash?

	Yes	No
Men	100%
Women	92%	8%

Another question was asked of men in ROTC. It was, "Do you think that there is a place in the service for college men with minor disabilities?" All men answered in the affirmative.

Pianist Shows Great Talent

By CAROL GREENING

Few musical tasks seem too arduous to Emery Hobson, pianist, who featured the technically intricate Beethoven "Sonata," opus 10, number 3, in his senior recital last night at the music auditorium.

His agile fingers weaving delicate patterns on the keyboard, Hobson displayed excellent tone control in the second movement of the sonata, bringing out the full beauty of the stately measures. Brilliant variety was shown throughout the piece, which is distinguished for its orchestral quality.

Song Flight

"On Wings of Song," by Mendelssohn-Liszt, contained excellent opportunities for Hobson's technical skill. The singing melody of this ever-popular number was brought out beautifully; Hobson's excellent control was again displayed.

Other more modern pieces on the program drew prolonged applause from the small but highly enthusiastic audience. The Chopinesque "Mazurka," by George Hopkins, professor of music at

Assembly Scheduled

The freshman nominating assembly will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 7, in the Villard hall auditorium.

the University; "The White Peacock," by Griffes, which had such shimmering poetry in it, and "El Vito," by Infante, full of Spanish folk color, all showed brilliant craftsmanship on the part of a sincere artist.
