

UO Nominates Heads Tuesday

ASUO and class officers are to be nominated in four separate nominating assemblies Tuesday, April 7.

The general student body officers will be nominated at a special student assembly at 11 a.m. Three class assemblies have been planned—the class of '43 to meet in 207 Chapman; class of '44 in 105 Commerce; and the class of '45 in 203 Villard. All class meetings are set for 7 p.m.

Those students planning to run for a student body office must, according to the ASUO constitution, present their declarations of intention to run and certificates of scholastic eligibility, signed by the dean of men or the dean of women, to Jim Frost, first vice-president of the student body, who is in charge of all elections. These papers must be turned in not later than midnight Sunday, April 5.

Conclave Scheduled

The annual Westminster conference at Kitson Springs, Oregon, has been scheduled for April 11 and 12. Dr. A. E. Caswell and Dr. Paul B. Means will be featured speakers. New officers will be installed.

Elvin Overton To Play Critic

Elvin Overton, visiting professor of law, will be seen in the role of Bernard, the critic, in Ferenc Molnar's "The Guardsman," which is being produced by the Very Little Theater, April 15 to 17.

Overton, however, is no newcomer to the stage. He took prominent parts with the Tennessee Players at the University of Tennessee, and later numerous roles in Very Little Theater productions at Macon, Georgia, where he was on the faculty of Mercer university.

Versatile

Among his many prominent parts were those of the movie producer in "Stage Door," the juvenile in "The Bad Man" and "Penny Wise," and the barkeeper in "Outward Bound."

Overton came to Eugene last September to take the place of Carlton E. Spencer, professor of law, who is now serving with the armed forces. His role in "The Guardsman" will be his first local role, and will probably find him in one of his most difficult positions, that of keeping peace between the fiery and romantic actor and actress, played by Marvin Krenk and Saverina Graziano Smith.

St. Mary's University owns a 53-passenger bus.

Yeomen Elect Bob Rockstein

Robert Rockstein, sophomore in science, Monday was elected president of the Oregon Yeomen, independent men's organization.

Vice-president for the coming year will be Bob Sabin. Newell Comish will serve as secretary, while Fred Rugh will act as treasurer.

The new officers will be installed Monday, April 6, in Gerlinger hall after a potluck supper, according to Dave Knox, retiring president.
