

Oregon Men Train in Texas

ELLINGTON FIELD, Texas, March 31—Getting ready to take a pot shot at the Axis are two Oregon aviation cadets in the latest class now in training to become bombardiers and navigators at Ellington field, world's largest multi-motor flying school.

Robert C. Havens, 23, attended both the University of Portland and the University of Oregon. Before signing up as a cadet, he was an attorney and lumber broker.

Like the other Oregonian in this class, John N. Slotce, 25, also doubled up on his advanced education, attending both Oregon State college and the University of Oregon. In civilian life he was a production engineer and did personnel work.

These boys from the Webfoot state are receiving, while at Ellington, intensive training on the greatest network of concrete ramps and runways. Here they are taking detailed studies and processing, which will fit them for air crew work. As members of the air crew they will upon receiving their commissions as second lieutenants, assist the pilot of a victory bomber.

Quartet Will Present Music Recital April 20

The Coolidge Quartet, well-known chamber music group, will be presented in recital in the music school auditorium on Monday, April 20, at 8:15 p.m. Dr. Theodore Kratt, dean of the music school, announced recently.

The quartet is composed of William Kroll, first violin; Jack Pepper, second violin; David Dawson, viola; and Naoum Benditszky, violin cellist. This quartet was founded in 1936 under the sponsorship of the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge foundation of the library of congress in Washington, D. C.

The price of admission will be $1 for the main floor seats and 50 cents for the balcony. Tickets may be purchased at the music school.

Chemists Go to OSC

Faculty members of the University chemistry department will attend the meeting of the Oregon section of the American Chemical association at Corvallis Saturday. Two speeches and a dinner are scheduled for the convention.

Yeomen Elect Officers; Rockstein Named Head

Bob Rockstein, sophomore in science, was elected next year's president of Oregon Yeomen Monday night when the men's independent group held its annual election.

Bob Sabin was elected vice-president, Newel Comish secretary, and Fred Rugh, treasurer.

Plans for a pot luck dinner April 6 were discussed. The dinner will feature the installation ceremonies for the new officers and farewell speeches from the outgoing leaders.

Dave Knox, senior in BA, was former president and Bob Rockstein was treasurer.

Attend Conference

John Stehn, director of the band and assistant professor of music, and Miss Maude Garnett, assistant professor of public school music, represented the University at the meeting of the Oregon State Teachers association conference, in the music school section. The conference was held in Portland, Friday.

MAYFLOWER

MOVED OVER!

Ida Lupino
Louis Hayward
'LADIES IN RETIREMENT'
Also
'Almost Married'

MCDONALD

A WAR THRILLER!
'CAPTAIN OF THE CLOUDS'

with James Cagney
Brenda Marshall
also Robert Young
Marsha Hunt in
'JOE SMITH, AMERICA'

REX

THE SINGING COWBOY!

Gene Autry in
'SIERRA SUE'
Also
'ROAD TO SINGAPORE'
with Bing Crosby
Dorothy Lamour, Bob Hope

Faculty Places Three in Play

"The Guardsmen," a Ferenc Molnar comedy, presentation of the Very Little Theater playhouse at the fairgrounds, April 15 to 17, places three members of the University faculty in leading roles.

Marvin Krenk, instructor in speech and director of Radio Workshop, takes the male lead of the distrustful actor who fears that his wife is unfaithful. Savarina Graziano Smith, instructor of art education, is cast as his lovely actress-wife, Elvin Overton, visiting professor of law, will be seen as Bernard, the critic.

Gerda Brown, bookkeeper at the University Co-op, is directing the comedy.

Frank Sipe Speaks At Garden Club Meet

Frank P. Sipe, head of the botany department, spoke at the Willamette District Garden club meeting, Tuesday afternoon in the Eugene hotel. Illustrating his talk with colored slides, Sipe spoke on "Nature's Gardens" and described native flowers, trees, and shrubs with an explanation of how they contribute to scenic effects.

The slides showed many vividly-colored wild flowers, including golden sage, fleabane, Indian paint brush, and penstemon. Views from the Cascade mountains, eastern Oregon, and the Oregon desert were presented with scenes from the Eugene vicinity. Mr. Sipe prepared the slides himself for the botany department of the University.

Air Corps Gets Ex-UO Student

Merced, Cal., March 31.—A former University of Oregon student, now with the Aviation Cadets, is a member of the basic training class, 42-E, graduating from the Air Corps Basic Flying School here today.

Cadet Edgar R. Skelley is the man. He was a member of the varsity golf team while at Oregon. Skelley got his B.S. from Oregon in 1941. Before he entered the Air Corps he had 40 hours of Civilian Pilot training.

At the completion of a ten-weeks' training course at an Air Corps advanced flying school, Cadet Skelley will receive his second lieutenant's commission in the U. S. Army Air Corps.

HEILIG

TWO HITS:

Elizabeth Bergner
Randolph Scott in
'PARIS CALLING'
Also
'ROAD AGENT'
with Dick Foran

NEED A TYPEWRITER?

WE STILL HAVE FINE LATE

MODELS FOR RENT
$3.00 PER MONTH

OFFICE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO.
30 East 11th Phone 148

Boy Friend Drive a Tank?

Is He an Oregon Man?

If he does and is, then he'll be glad to receive a subscription to the Emerald. Ask about it today.

CUT FROM
$1.25 TO

$ 1

REST OF
SCHOOL YEAR

Send the Emerald Home, Too!

Phone 3300, Extension 354

Or write:

Lois Clause,
Circulation Manager,
Oregon Daily Emerald

Corsages and Potted Plants

Are Gifts of Beauty and Cheer for EASTER

ARCHAMBEAU'S FLOWER SHOPS

CAMPUS SHOP DOWNTOWN SHOP
Across from the Sigma Nu's At the Public Market
Phone 563 Phone 478