

Class Nominations Due Today

Frosh, Soph Class Cards Sold Until 7

With exactly as many Greek candidates announced as there are class offices and exactly as many independent candidates named as there are holes in a blank wall, three separate nominating assemblies are scheduled for 7 p.m. for the classes of '43, '44, and '45.

The class of '43 will meet in 207 Chapman, the class of '44 in 105 Commerce, and the class of '45 in 203 Villard. Class cards for the freshman and sophomore classes will be sold until 7 o'clock, Jim Frost, first vice-president of the student body, announced last night. Junior class card sales closed, according to their constitutions, last Thursday.

Declarations

Students planning to run for a class office must have their declarations of intention to run and certificates of scholastic eligibility turned in before the nominating assemblies.

Candidates announced are:

Ineligible

The Greek senior class presidential candidate, Don Cawley, was declared ineligible yesterday because he did not buy a class card before the sales closed. Nancy Lewis will run for the vice-presidency of the senior class, and Lois Becholdt is slated to try for the position of secretary.

The class elections will be held along with the general ASUO elections Tuesday, April 14.

Army Day Sees ROTC Parade

A large number of ROTC cadets and cadet officers turned out last night to march in the Army Day parade downtown.

Led by the University band and marching under the direction of Captain Harvey Blythe of the military department, the cadets aided regular army units and veterans in the celebration.

Enrollment Drop Rises Three Points

The second week of late registration brought University enrollment up to 2784 last Saturday. This is a 15 per cent decrease from last year at this time, but a gain from last week's total, which indicated an 18 per cent drop.

April 11 is the last day for registering or making program changes, according to C. L. Constance, assistant registrar, who points out that enrollment may still make further gains.

Males Fall

The decrease shown in male registration fell from 26 per cent to 22 per cent. Late entrance of 92 men to student status thus makes the masculine total 1538.

Feminine enrollment also gained. There are 1246 women on the campus, a decrease of only five per cent from last year. Last week's figures showed a six per cent drop.

Schools which presented the most marked losses last week showed gains in the enumeration of this week. The physical education enrollment, most noticeable in this respect, has only decreased 31 per cent; last week the drop was 46 per cent.

Law School

A 25 per cent loss is now indicated in law school rolls. Last week the drop was 28 per cent.

Education enrollment, which also picked up last week, is now eight per cent below that of last year. In last week's break down it was 14 per cent lower.

Class registration rose and fell proportionately to the general figures. There are now 871 freshmen, 1003 sophomores, 364 juniors, and 367 seniors. The juniors present the sole growth in class figures, a 24 per cent increase from last year.

April 11 is the last day for registering or making program changes.

The federal government is spending $5,800,000 on college ROTC units this year ending June 30, 1942.
