Tuesday, April 14, 1942

'The Guardsman' Starts 3-Day Run Wednesday

Eugene's civic playhouse, the Very Little Theater, turns to the University of Oregon campus again for the leading talent in its new play, "The Guardsman," which will open Wednesday night at 8 for a three-nights run at the fairgrounds.

Heading the cast of the Ferenc Molnar comedy are Marvin Krenk, instructor in speech, who takes the role of an actor who plays his greatest and hammiest performance for the benefit of his wife. Saverina Graziano Smith, instructor in art, is the restless actress wife who plays the lovely foil; and Elvin Overton, visiting professor of law, is their friend and critic, Bernhard.

Others

Others in the cast are Sylvia Cuthbert as Liesl, the maid; Gretchen Parker, former president of the Eugene branch of the University of Oregon Mothers club, as "Mama"; Theodosia Goodman as Mrs. Spengler; and Kenneth Griffith as the collector.

Directing the production is Gerda Brown, bookkeeper at the Co-op store and veteran of more than a score Guild Theater and V. L. T. plays. Adele Griffith, another Co-op worker, is assistant director.

Wardrobe

Landscape Students Make Campus Tour

Beginning landscape design students made some firsthand observations of landscape when they made a trip about the campus yesterday with their instructors, F. A. Cuthbert, associate professor of land architecture, and G. S. Jette, instructor in land architecture.

The group will make several more trips about the campus this term to study the trees and shrubs that are particularly interesting at this time of year.

for the production includes only teagewns and formals, students in her class in fashion design have designed a number of these. Reservations may be obtained by calling the home of Eyler Since Mrs. Smith's wardrobe Brown at 2808-R.

'THE GUARDSMAN' ...

. . a Very Little Theater production, stars Saverine Graziano Smith; left, and Marvin Krenk.

`Of Thee I Sing'

Tuesday:

Reading rehearsals, April 14, in Guild hall: 7:30-9, Act I, Scene IV, with lines and music. 9, Act II, Scene I (dialogue), with lines. Wednesday:

Wrestlers' rehearsal, April 15, in Guild hall. 2, All wrestlers will meet with Dick Ashcom, Floyd Rhea, and Dick Turner.

Tuesday night, Guild hall stage: 8-Supreme Court Judges: Willard Wilson, Ellert Wilson, Gene Cecchini, Bob Dudry, Press Phipps, Pete Lamb, Dick Lamb, Dick Barber, George Arbuckle, Dick Johnson, Dick Baker.

Women's chorus: Lilas Todd, Barbara Tripp, Gerry Berry, Dorothy Hanson, Stephanie Peterson, Edna Trout, Roe Hunsaker, Elizabeth Steed. Beauty chorus:

9-Act II, scene I, with lines.

Corley Gets Football Post

(Continued from page one) had received a commission as Lieutenant-Commander in the Naval Reserve and that he will report at Annapolis April 20 for a month's training.

Warren

John Warren, former freshman coach, was moved up to the line coach post, which Corley now vacates, in the special athletic board meeting. Warren came to Oregon in 1936 from Astoria.

Oliver is not retiring as University mentor, and will resume his top role when he returns from navy service.

Salary

No salary adjustments were announced in connection with the appointments, but the board revealed that these discussions will be decided when next year's budget is drawn up.

Neither coach could be reached for confirmation or comment last night, but board members stated they felt sure that acceptance was certain.

For more complete details turn____ to page four.

Princeton university in the last academic year gave $170,895 in scholarship grants, the largest sum in the university's history.

* Executive Commissee Ex-officio Member, Educa-

"My aim is to utilize the abilities and interests of all ASUO regardless of affiliations. It is only through such unbiased girls considerations that ideal student government can be realized."

Senior Representative WES SULLIVAN

Junior Representative MAX BROWN

Sophomore Representative HAL LOCKE

No Class Cards Are Necessary Everyone Can Vote!

Vote for Democratically Nominated Candidates