

Nickel Hop Heads Meet

Nickel Hop committee heads met last week to discuss further plans for the strictly informal, all-campus event to be held Wednesday evening, April 22 at all women's living organizations.

Presidents of men's living groups will be contacted this week to announce the "Hop" and to encourage all their members to attend co-chairman, Virginia Wells and Dorothy Clear said.

Campus Clothes

They emphasized the wearing of campus clothes as apropos to the informal atmosphere of spring term and the comfort of the dancers.

Shoe boxes, as containers for the nickels, will be collected next week from downtown business houses for distribution to house representatives, who will be announced later.

New Setup

There will be a different set-up this time regarding a prize, Miss Clear said, the winning house to receive a requisition for a $5 record order. The winners of the last Nickel Hop will keep the traditional silver cup until next fall term when it will be awarded to the group having the highest attendance. The $5 record order will remain as the spring term prize, she explained.

The advertising committee is working on signs and an appropriate slogan, to be placed at various points on the campus.

'New Earth' to Feature UO Students in Solos

Dr. Theodore Kratt, dean of the school of music, recently announced that three students will sing solo roles in the University of Oregon choral union production of Henry Hadley's "The New Earth," on April 19. The three students are Margaret Zimmerman, Eugene soprano; Ray Leonard, Portland baritone; and Lee Ghormley, Milton tenor.

The Eugene Gleemen, widely known male chorus, will be the guest artists for the choral recital. The University symphony orchestra will accompany the choral union.

A chorus of University women will sing Montani's "The White Silence," accompanied by Mrs. Doris Calkins, instructor in harp, at the harp, and Emery Hobson at the piano.

Fall Injures UO Soph In Sandlot Ball Game

Carl E. "Bud" Wimberly, sophomore in business administration, received severe bruises and lacerations about the head and face last night when he tripped and fell, striking his head against a cement curbing.

Wimberly, who was practicing softball at the time of the accident, had several stitches taken in his head and is now under treatment at the Sacred Heart hospital.

York's Town Hall in 1937, they have appeared as guest artists with such radio stars as Bing Crosby and Rudy Vallee.

Soloists

They have appeared with orchestras abroad under Mengelberg and Adrian Boult. In this country, they have been soloists with the New York Philharmonic (three performances), the Hollywood Bowl and the Chicago orchestras.

Their concert here will be the fifth and last in this year's Greater Artist series, sponsored by the educational activities board.

Worth Expected

No Write-ins

No write-ins were recognized in the student body elections in accordance with the ASUO constitution and by-laws.

Class representatives to the executive committee were unanimously elected, since only two students were nominated from each class of the three to fill the six positions open.

Council

Russ Hudson and Wes Sullivan were elected to the senior representative positions.

Jim Bennison and Max Brown were elected junior committeemen.

Walt Dickinson and Hal Locke will act as sophomore representatives for the 1942-43 school year.

Votes were counted by Jim Frost, director of elections; Lou Torgeson, ASUO president; Jean Spearow, exec comm members; F. V. Cahill, instructor in political science; Calvin Crumbaker, professor of economics; and L. Kenneth Shumaker, director of the lower division advisory group.

Webfoots Show Fight In Rough Scrimmage

If Oregon's football team show as much fire and scrap on the gridiron next fall as they did in last Saturday's scrimmage, the Webfoots should rank with the hardest-fighting elevens in the country.

Because blood flew Saturday. The White team representing the varsity slugged the Greens all over the field, but they could not put the ball into pay dirt. Tommy Roblin and "Omar" Newquist again engineered the White's drive, but the Greens with the Steers boy anchoring the center of the line along with "Bloody George" Dugan at the left flank, stood fast in the neighborhood of the five-yard line.

Batterin' Bill Davis and Bob Reynolds, both up from last year's frosh, ripped through the middle of the varsity line for substantial gains. "Noob" Nowling and Dick Ashcomb looked particularly effective in stopping the surprising attack of the Greens.

Oregon's offensive will be different from Oliver's modified box formation. Instead the quarterback handles the ball from up close, somewhat on the order of the "T" formation. A minimum amount of effort is placed on blocking with speed and deception counted on to break the runner loose.

Co-op Displays Photos Of All Campus Houses

Recent photographs of all campus living organizations are now on display in the Co-op store. The pictures, taken by Dave Foster, announcer on radio station KORE, are printed on silk and linen which makes it possible to clean them with a damp cloth if marked with finger prints.

These pictures are quite different from the usual post card scenes that are available at the Co-op.

Frosh Choose

No petitions for nomination were later filed with the director of elections after the assembly. Therefore the only names appearing on the ballot were those candidates nominated at the Villard assembly a week ago Tuesday.

Several write-in votes were cast. Fritz Giesecke and Don Asselstine garnered one vote each via the write-in route. Some puzzled freshman evidently gave up in disgust and cast his vote for a mythical candidate whom he chose to christen "God Knows."

Ted Hallock, who will be a junior next year and is therefore ineligible, was written in for treasurer.

Along with elections came the

A five-run uprising in the third frame gave the ATOs a 7 to 3 win over a surprisingly strong Campbell club. Paul Bocci was troubled by wildness, but he held the Clubmen except for two runs in the third. Bob Sell got three-for-three and Chick Cecchini drove out two long ones. Lee Ghormley and Cook were the main Campbell threats and tiny Felix Asla gave the Taus a bad time on the hillcock.

Awfuls Slug Win

The Awful Awfuls slugged a sloppy Phi Psi ten all over the ball park to capture a 14 to 4 runaway. Elmer Olson fanned all but one of the Psis that faced him in the three frames he hurled. Everybody hit for the Awfuls as "Cousin" Brokaw was slugged from pillar to post.

news from Ted Yaw, freshman class president, that his treasurer, Lou Felsheim had been declared ineligible because of grades. Bill Huggins was appointed to fill the position for the remainder of the term.

Entrants Need Not Buy Campus Sing Tickets

Contestants in the all-campus sing will not be required to buy tickets for the occasion, it was announced today. The campus as a whole, however, must buy 15-cent tickets for admittance.

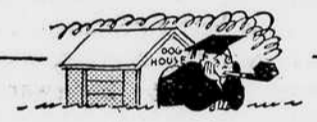

The tickets are now on sale at the educational activities office. Ticket booths will appear next week on the campus.

All song leaders are requested to meet Dean Kratt in the music school on Thursday at 4 p.m.

Dr. W. C. Jones Named On Wartime Committee

Dr. William C. Jones, head of the University political science department, has been named the Pacific coast member of the committee on wartime services of the American Political Science Association. He will represent the Pacific coast in all discussions.

The purpose of the committee is to mobilize the contributions of the political science profession for the successful conduct of the war.

"TAKE YOUR OLD RING and go far, far away! You're finished with college, but I'm finished with men who smoke smelly pipes! My heart says yes, but my nose says phew! Good-bye!"

SO DAN REFORMED. He switched to Sir Walter, the mild blend of fragrant burleys. His girl took one sniff... smiled... and snuggled. Ever tried a tin? Swell for moonlight and noses!
