

Judges Despair; Navy to Choose

Puzzled judges, trying to select the five finalists for Little Admiral of the Frosh Glee, gave up in despair last night and were forced to send the pictures of six comely freshmen instead of five to San Diego, where officers of the naval base will choose the winner.

The six finalists are Betty Edward, Alpha Phi; Lois Hafele, Chi Omega; Barbara Hannum, Gamma Phi Beta; Verlie Myers, Pi Beta Phi; Sue Stater, Delta Gamma; and Betty Weaver, Alpha Delta Pi.

According to Bass Dyer, chairman of the entertainment committee, pictures of the candidates are now on their way to San Diego. Members of the selection committee were Dyer, Glen Macy and Lorraine Davidson, co-chairmen of the dance; Hobart Bird, decorations chairman; Harry Glickman, publicity chairman; and Bruce Hamby and Buck Buchwach, of the Athletic News Bureau.

Glee Plans

Meanwhile, plans for the Frosh Glee, to be held Friday, April 24, are nearing rapid completion. The dance will last from 9 till 12:15. Girls have been granted 1 o'clock permission by the Dean of Women's office.

Jan King's "band of a thousand melodies" will furnish music for the dance. Highlight of the evening will be the coronation of the Little Admiral. Other entertainment will include tapping by Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's service honorary.

Tickets for the dance will sell for $1.10 and go on sale in all living organizations this week. Freshmen who hold class cards will receive a reduction on their tickets.

Extension Classes

The extension division announced that there are 18 state-wide classes meeting now with an enrollment of 271. These classes do not include Portland and are located in Corvallis, 5; Eugene, 8; Grants Pass, 1; Salem, 1, and Klamath Falls, 1.

Several of these classes are for first aid and defense work.

Editor Will Quiz Staff Aspirants

Applicants for staff positions on the 1943 Oregonian will be interviewed today by Editor Wes Sullivan in his office in McArthur court between 1 and 4 p.m. Thursday.

Three top positions are open: managing editor and two associate editors. These staff members will work directly with the editor in planning the book.

Other jobs to be assigned include four division heads for activities, schools, men's and women's divisions, executive secretary, promotion director, sports editor, assistant managing editor, and two assistant managing editors.

Only students with professional photographic equipment and previous experience in photography are asked to apply for positions on the photography staff.

Noted Group Honors City

Eugene is the only city in Oregon besides Portland to be honored by the presence of the Coolidge quartet this year, John Stehn, director of band, announced yesterday.

Saying that the string quartet is one of the most perfect forms of musical expression, Mr. Stehn told of the wide fame of the quartet, and the fine quality of their work.

Founding

Founded in 1936 under the sponsorship of the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge foundation of the library of congress in Washington, the quartet has played single concerts and chamber music cycles throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Honolulu.

William Kroll, first violin, Jack Pepper, second violin, David Dawson, viola, and Naoum Benditzky, 'cello, compose the quartet. Works by Mozart and Ravel will be included on the program.

Only Four Bits

Mr. Stehn also stressed the point that one would have to pay $2 anywhere else to hear the quartet, while here the price for students is only 50 cents for balcony seats.
