

Men's Edition

OREGON Daily EMERALD

Men's Edition

VOLUME XLIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1942

NUMBER 103

Musical Show Set for Sunday

Dr. Kratt Leads Hit At 8 a.m.

Eight hundred voices and musical instruments will combine to present a gigantic production in McArthur court Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Dr. Theodore Kratt, dean of the school of music.

Chief participants in the song-fest will be the choral union, the University symphony orchestra, and the Eugene Gleemen.

'Tremendous Thing'

Margaret Zimmerman, soprano; Ray Leonard, baritone; and Lee Ghormley, tenor, will be soloists for what Dr. Kratt terms "a tremendous thing!" "The White Silence," a work for women's voices, harp, and piano, will precede the main number. It was written by a contemporary American composer, Nicola Montani. Emery Hobson will be at the piano and Mrs. Doris Calkins, instructor in music, at the harp.

The work chosen for this year's choral union recital is of special significance in war time, since "The New Earth" is based on the

(Please turn to page eight)

Concert Sunday

Attendance at Choral Union Rates you an A as you know, So why not give everybody an A Who goes to hear their show.

—J.W.S.

Wilbur Bishop Steps Down...

By BILL BELT

"I feel just like a bird that's been let out of a cage," said Wilbur Bishop, retiring editor of the Oregana, as he packed up and prepared to relinquish to incoming Editor Wes Sullivan the McArthur court office he has held for two years....

Bishop Reminisces

Small, serious Bishop, after nearly a year's work on the current issue of Oregon's year-book, said his job hadn't been exciting. "But it was doing what I like to do. It was great, planning the Oregana, and seeing it created step by step," he said.

Bishop is sitting back and "taking things easy" during his last term at school before going into flight training this summer and later enlisting in the air corps.

New Editor Takes Charge

New Oregana Chief Wes Sullivan already has things well under way for next year's year-book. "I will endeavor to follow the general trend the Oregana has been following in the last few years," he said.

"The job of editor has had more and more responsibility attached to it as the Oregana has been given greater recognition," said Sullivan.

Student Photography Staff

The editor announces, in the way of innovations, a student photography staff that will as-

(Please turn to page eight)

Juniors To Honor Eleanor I

Queen Eleanor Engdahl and her four princesses will be formally introduced to the Oregon campus for the first time Tuesday night at the junior class party, Pat Cloud, president of the junior class, said Friday. The party is free to all juniors. Class cards are not required.

The party will be a stag-stagette affair. Those with partners from other classes, however, will be admitted. There will be a small orchestra to provide music for dancing.

Chairmen for the party are Joe Montag and Russ Hudson. Refreshments will be served.

Petitions Due

Applications for positions as editor and manager of the "Piggers' Guide" should be turned in to the educational activities department on or before Saturday, April 25, announced Dick Williams, educational activities manager.

Vronsky Plus Babin Equals Marriage Plus Career

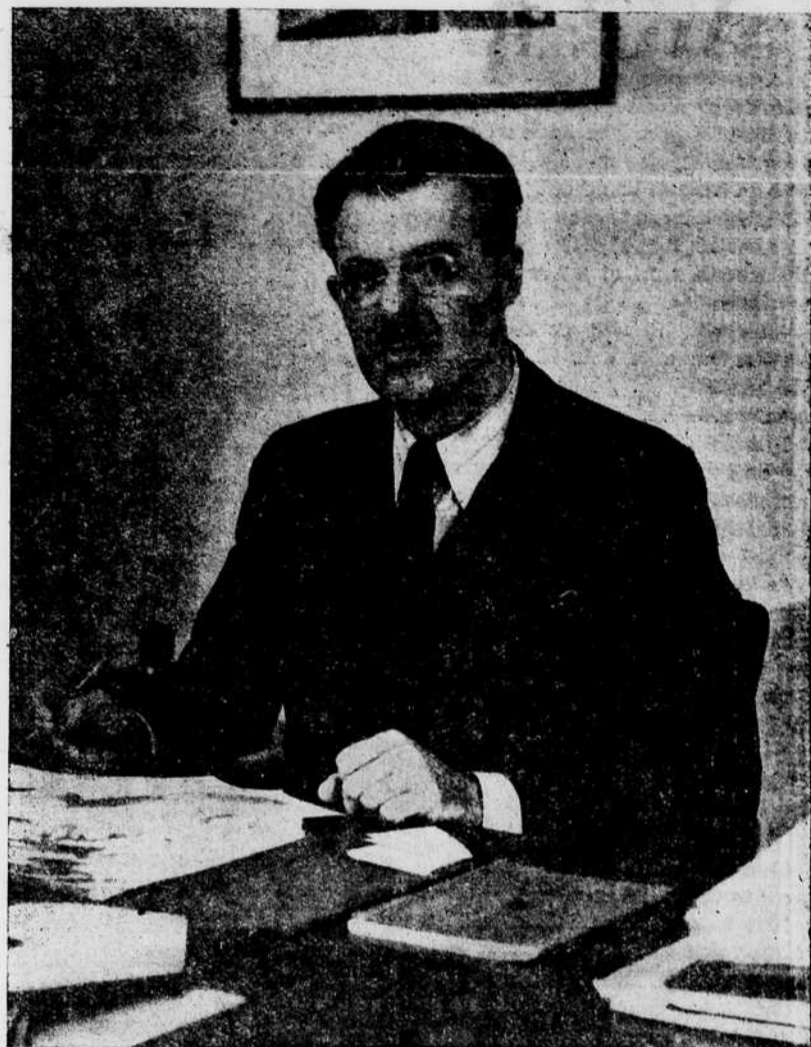

By BOB EDWARDS

Few artists are able to combine marriage and a career as successfully as the piano team, Vronsky and Babin, who will play in McArthur court, Monday, April 27.

Individually both were known outside their native Russia as successful concert artists, and had toured Europe and England. It might be said that they were competitors, but marriage made their two careers one. It may be said that they married each other's music as well.

New Yorker Says

The New Yorker magazine spoke of their playing as that of "two Romantics, almost vocal in

DEAN THEODORE KRATT ...

... will lead the choral union Sunday in "The New Earth."

Glee Ticket Sale Starts Monday

BY HARRY GLICKMAN

Tickets for Friday night's Frosh Glee go on sale in all men's living organizations Monday, it was announced yesterday by ticket chairman Phyllis Horstman.

Admission to the annual freshman dance, which will be held Friday, April 24, at McArthur court, is $1.10. The dance will last from 9 till 12:15, and girls will be granted 1 o'clock permission.

Ticket Reductions

All freshmen who have purchased class cards will receive a 25-cent reduction on their tickets. These tickets can be purchased for 85 cents at the educational activities office, starting Monday.

Hopes by freshmen that the Frosh Glee would be one of the best campus dances of the year have been bolstered by reports that Jan King's orchestra has been favorably received throughout the northwest. King's "band of a thousand melodies" recently completed a successful engagement at Jantzen Beach in Portland.

Selection of the Little Admiral, who will reign over festivities at the dance, is expected to be made shortly at San Diego, where officers of the naval base will make the choice from the pictures of six finalists sent there.

Little Admiral Finalists

The six finalists are Betty Edward, Lois Hafele, Barbara Hannum, Verlie Myers, Sue Stater, and Betty Weaver. A battleship, which will be part of the decorations, will be named after the winner.

Ticket Representatives

The ticket representatives in each living organization are: Alpha Tau Omega, Tom Hazzard;

(Please turn to page eight)

TURNING THE COVERS ...

... of last year's Oregana are Wes Sullivan, '43 editor, and Wilbur Bishop, '42 editor.

ONE ROMANTIC ...

... of a famous team is Victor Babin.

style, for they make their pianos sing like matched voices."

Babin, who was a pupil in composition of Franz Shreker, has already found publishers for his works in Europe and America. In addition to a pianoforte concerto, he has written for two pianos and for voice, and has made arrangements for two pianos.

His only opportunity for creative work is during the short interlude of summer rest between tours; like the psalmist of old, he looks "to the eternal hills from whence cometh his strength" ... In other words, the American Rockies, where he has a camp in the most picturesque part of these rugged mountains.