

Group Lauded By Audience, Vice Versa

"The audience was tremendous," said William Kroll, first violin of the Coolidge quartet who played at the music auditorium last night. "We went wild over them."

And the feeling was mutual, if the applause was any indication, for they would not let the players go until they had finished two encores and made many curtain calls.

Relaxation from string-quartetting? Naoum Benditsky, cellist, is a horticulturist; Jack Pepper, second violin, and David Dawson, viola, play tennis; William Kroll plays chess. They all play bridge but Benditsky; all follow baseball scores, in fact, William Kroll remarked with a twinkle in his eye:

"We sometimes almost miss a concert for fear of missing the final scores."

Swing? David Dawson loves it; Freddy Martin and Duke Ellington are his favorites.

Musical education? They agree that it should be a major subject in colleges, and gave Oregon a pat on the back for including it as a major.

But to the more serious side. These artists displayed that ease of execution and master of their instruments which are the marks of the truly great performer.

The Mozart quartet in G major K. 387 was performed with excellent suspension and tone control; the Beethoven quartet in E flat opus 74 was particularly lovely with the fluid blending of cello, viola, and violins.

Ravel's impressionistic quartet was perhaps the most enjoyed number; particular verve was displayed in this work. "Chansonette," by Mendelssohn, and "Little March," by William Kroll were the encores.

John Stehn Returns

John Stehn, director of band, has just returned from a trip to Ellensburg, Washington, and to Portland, where he has judged band and orchestral contests. On Saturday he goes to Kelso, Washington, to judge another one.

Clothes in the Limelight Need Extra Care

Competition is keen these days... and it's only the girl with A-1 appearance who makes a good impression. Be sure that you are at your best at all times. The New Service Way is the way to keep fresh and clean at a minimum of expense. Send them today for quick, dependable service.

Phone 825

New Service Laundry & CLEANERS
"Service Our Motto"
839 High St.

NEW SDX INITIATES . . .
. . . left to right, Fred Colvig, David W. Hazen, Gordon MacNab.

AWS Representatives Return from Confab

By BETTY ANN STEVENS

With a fanfare of car horns, Marge "Dib" Dibble, dynamic AWS prexy, and sparkling ex-prexy Elizabeth "Steedie" Steed arrived home yesterday from a ten-day trip to the AWS convention at the University of Utah at Salt Lake City.

About the car-horns, "Dib" exclaimed, "I was so embarrassed I nearly crawled under the seat."

"The convention? We just had a wonderful, wonderful time, and met a lot of keen people from eleven states," she went on enthusiastically. "'Steedie' led one of the discussion groups, and they slapped me on a constitution committee."

'Lots'

"Dib" added, "We went to lots of meetings, and, amazing as it may seem, I think our own AWS was one of the best-organized there."

She went on to explain that because most of the other delegates were still mulling over problems of freshman orientation, which Oregon has had organized "for years," she and "Steedie" found themselves repeatedly called upon for suggestions.

"Ideas from the confab? Well, we got a lot of wonderful ideas for next year—for raising money for defense stamps."

"I was petrified," remarked "Dib," "at the traffic signals in Salt Lake City." She added that drivers in that city seem bent on mayhem, with a total disregard to pedestrians' rights.

Pres. Homer P. Rainey of the University of Texas is touring cancer hospitals of the east and midwest to obtain information for a state cancer research project.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Herb Penny air raid warden.

Reporters:

Dorman Alford	Mona MacAuley
Bette Armstrong	Marjorie Major
Margaret Brooke	Roy Nelson
Elsie Brownell	Edith Newton
Ruth Kay Collins	Peggy Overland
Joanne Doiph	Betty Ann Stevens
Bob Edwards	Janet Wagstaff
Carol Greening	Mildred Wilson
Ruth Jordan	Marjorie Young
Flora Kibler	Barbara Younger

Night Staff:

Jim Watson, night editor
Shirley Davis
Ted Bush

Copy Desk Staff:

Herb Penny, city editor
Beverly Bean
Bob Edwards
Bill Stratton
Margaret Churchwright
Alva Granquist
Norma Trevarrow
Chuck Politz

Campus Calendar

Episcopal Communion service will be held in the Men's Lounge, Gerlinger hall, Wednesday morning at seven o'clock. Breakfast following, over by eight o'clock.

Westminster Tuesday luncheon group will meet as usual. Bring sandwiches and a dime.

Theta Sigma Phi members and pledges are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Eric W. Allen this evening at 6 o'clock for dinner and installation.

An open YWCA cabinet meeting will be held today at 4. Dean Leeper, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer movement, will speak to the group.

An all-campus YWCA assembly will be held Thursday at 4 for all coeds. Rev. Williston Wirt will be the speaker and YWCA cabinet members will be installed.

Freshman girls who attended the Phi Theta scholarship party are asked to meet at the news bureau today at 4 o'clock to have their picture taken.

Gamma Alpha Chi will meet today at 7 p.m. in the College Side.

One of the few courses in museum apprenticeship offered in the United States is given at the University of Wisconsin.

The federal government's civilian pilot training program for the current fiscal year is costing $25,000,000.

News from

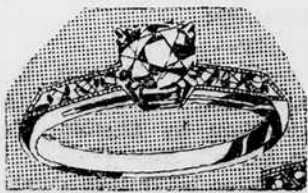

- Your Student Body
- Your Athletes
- Your Campus and
- Your Merchants

PRESENTED DAILY BY

- Your Paper

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

for
"THE"
one

Engagement Rings

to

Suit Your Taste

$16.50 Up, Federal Tax

Included

BRISTOW'S
Jewelry Store
620 Willamette