

Oh, well, we were warned that there would be days like these when we started this racket. One week and Oregon lost two head football coaches and we thought there was a shortage of coaches. Now get this.

The athletic board that met last night considered the applications of four prospects other than Warren, who had their collective eyes peeled on the Duck football post. The names might, be familiar to you: Tiny Thornhill, Jim Thorpe, Chuck McGuinness and Hal Chapman. Yeah, of course they're familiar.

The Unforgettable Jim Thorpe

Thorpe—all sports fans remember that name. They can recall when as a member of the Carlisle Indian football team he and his mates amazed the football world. Yes, and they will remember reading of his exploits in the 1912 Olympic meet when he took the decathlon and pentathlon crowns in track.

He is now coaching a small pro football team in New Jersey. His application asked for the head football job and also as an assistant coach post on the track team. What he and Colonel Hayward could do in the way of track!

And Thornhill Too

The name Thornhill holds fond memories for football fans, too. Anyone who has followed football on the coast well remembers his "Vow Boys" at Stanford, and the three coast championships he tacked down with them, and his two New Years' Pasadena dates.

The other two gents are well known in Oregon football circles. Chuck McGuinness is a University of Washington graduate and now holds down a football job at The Dalles. Chapman is the Woodburn mentor.

While this column is written before the athletic meeting has appointed the new coach, it can guess, and with little fear of being wrong, that John Warren will be the new football coach at Oregon. The column likes the choice. It likes John.

John Has a Tough Job

But "Honest John" steps into a tough job. There have been rumors floating around the Igloo, and the locker room, that Oregon has a winner in football this year. Warren takes over at a bad time. There remain two more days of spring practice and the entire practice to date has been aimed at drilling some "Oliver Twist" into the boys.

Warren isn't exactly a student of that type of play. Of course, he's been closely connected with it in his seven-year stay here, but he has devoted more time teaching fundamentals to his freshman charges and stuffing them with the systems of other teams so they might serve as scrimmage fodder for the varsity.

John will do all right, though. And what is more, he'll give some of the boys who didn't get a chance under the other coaches an opportunity to show their football wares. He only gets one assistant, which will make it tough. Anse Cornell, who hasn't done much football coaching since his days in Idaho, takes over the frosh activities. Hobby Hobson will even get in a few licks at football coaching, too, it seems.

Belated Opener with 'Bailey Men'

Oregon's baseball team will play a belated home opener against Washington State on Howe field tomorrow at 3. The opener will have all the festive garb of the bonafide opener that was scheduled with Oregon State last Friday, except for the presence of the dignitaries.

But it will have something that the opener with Oregon State couldn't give — Buck Bailey. And that three-ring coaching circus is worth the price of admission himself. About the only other thing the WSC boys will have to offer is a good pitcher named Bill Sewell, better known for his antics on the football field.

G-man Atherton is on the campus. The last time he was here he cost Oregon seven likely looking freshman athletes. He is on his annual Northern division tour of interviewing athletes. He stays here for week and then moves on to Corvallis. He will cover the campuses of Montana, WSC, Washington, and Idaho, too.

I wish Don Durdan would hurry up and graduate so Oregon could win an athletic event from OSC. It was his line single in the ninth that beat Oregon Saturday.

By JOE MILLER

Sherry Ross smashed into the thick of the IM softball fight by battering the Theta Chis, 8 to 0, as Walt Reynolds gave the Rattlers a lone single. The Rossmen broke up a scoreless pitching battle in the fourth by scoring five runs to put the fray in their hip pockets.

Bill Davis suffered a fit of wildness, walking Blair and Dodson. "Trigger" Trask pumped a double to right scoring both runners. Reynolds and Warren walked and Miller slammed a long fly to deep center to score two more for the Ross club. The last run came on a walk by Bob Reynolds and a single by Oly Rigo. Mead Hurls No-No as Nus Romp
Johnny Mead hurled a no-hitter over Canard club as the Sigma Nus romped away with the game, 13 to 0. The Steers twins and Russ Nowling supplied most of the Nu slugging power, while the rest of their runs were counted on walks and errors. Mead fanned 12 men in the six innings he hurled, while Canard's Nelson was getting slated for 11 blows. The DUs continued on their winning path by blasting the Chi Psis, 12 to 0. Bob Wren continued to lead the league in strikeouts fanning 13 Lodge-men. He pounded out four-for-four off Bud Fenton including two circuit smashes to help win his own ball game. The Chi Psis were at the mercy of Mr. Wren, "Black Sam" Houston touching him for their lone hit. Delta Us .....302 122 2—12 16 1 Chi Psis .....000 000 0— 0 1 3 Wren and Dugan; Fenton and Houston.

Phi Sigs Smash Yeomen
The Phi Sigs looked like the N.Y. Yankees in the second frame blasting out 15 runs on nine hits in that inning to submerge a leaky Yeomen outfit, 16 to 3. The Phi Sigs snapped back and looked like a powerhouse club against the opposition. Slim Jim Parsons gave up only two blows, while Yeomen throwers, Jackobsen and Herman gave up 10 and walked 14 men. Barrows and Spence Weills homered for the Phi Sigs. Yeomen .....100 101 0— 3 2 4 Phi Sigs .....015 001 0—16 10 2 Jackobsen, Herman and Smith; Parsons and Smith.

The Kappa Sigs came back with an amazing 2 to 1 win over a disorganized Omega hall ten. Bill Jameson bested Sherm Olts on the hillock, giving up five hits to the three Olts allowed. The Star boys counted their winning run on a single by Scotty Deeds and a long fly ball by Jack Lansing. Kappa Sigs .....001 001 0—2 3 2 Omega hall .....000 100 0—1 5 3 Jameson and Rhea; Olts and Roper.

Phi Gamma Delta also won by forfeit, when Sigma hall failed to show.

MASTER SHOWMAN . . . . . Buck Bailey, brings Cougars to Eugene Wednesday.

Buck Bailey, WSC Face Ducks Twice

Old Buck Bailey, ringleader of the rollicking Washington State Cougars and showman unsurpassed, blows into town with his baseball crew Wednesday for the first of a two-game series with the Ducks. A second game will be held on Howe field Thursday. Both games will be at 3 o'clock.

The Ducks almost broke the old Buck's heart last year by beating the Cougars four straight and had the WSC giant roaring like a bull moose.

Bill Hamel broke up a tight ball game in the opener last season by smashing a homer to left with two men on to give the Ducks a 13 to 12 win.

The following day Tony Crish, in a pinch-hitting role, golfed a single to score Don Kirsch in the tenth for a 5 to 4 triumph.

On the invasion trip to Pullman Pete Igoe blanked WSC with four hits, winning 9 to 0. Things were topped off when Dick Whitman larruped out a four-bagger to score two men ahead of him for an 8 to 5 victory and a grand slam for the series.

Highland '10' Drubs Chi Os

Highland House scored an impressive victory over the Chi Omega softball team Monday afternoon, 16-2, maintaining their undefeated standing in "A" league competition. Hard hitting and fair defensive play by the Highland ten gave them an early lead which they steadily increased throughout the game.

The outstanding hit of the game came when Gertrude Kay slugged one of Nancy Lewis's pitches into right center field for one of the longest hits of the season. She also gathered a triple and double, while Audrey Holiday netted four hits out of four times at bat.

Lucille Voegelein pitched good ball for the Highlanders, holding her opponents to a few hits, while Mary Alderson hurled a fast hook ball for two innings to really baffle the Chi Os. June Hitchcock and Doone Eccles scored Chi Omega's two runs. Robin Nelson, Nancy Lewis and June Hitchcock played good ball for the losers.

In "B" league play, Hilyard House won from Alpha Chi Omega, even though they were without their star pitcher, Mildred Thomas, in the infirmary with measles. The game was close throughout until the last inning, when Hilyard scored seven runs while holding the Alpha Chi Os scoreless.

This afternoon Susan Campbell plays Alpha Delta Pi in "A" league play, while Alpha Omicron Pi meets Pi Beta Phi ten in "B" competition.

OSC Grabs

second on Pederson's sacrifice. Don Durdan, basketball-baseball-football and-what-have-you star, then iced the game for Pitcher Elliott by caressing the apple to center field.

Dick Whitman made a beautiful play of the ball, throwing a strike home to Catcher Pilip. The ball and the storming Mr. Peters, with the speed of an express train, came to the plate as one. Result: Catcher Pilip on his ear, the ball on the ground, ond Mr. Peters safe.

Both teams gave brilliant support afield, a snappy double play for OSC—Elliott to Catcher Amacher to First Baseman Strode—in the fourth, cooling a Duck uprising.
