BROKE ICE . . .

. . . Coach Hobby Hobson's boys broke the ice against Washington State yesterday to hit the win column in conference pennant scramble.

Duck Netters Face Idaho '5'

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Webfoot tennis team plays its first home conference matches with the University of Idaho. Last Saturday in the conference opener at Seattle, they were beaten by the defending champions, six matches to one.

Coach Russ Cutler sent the team through a light practice session yesterday afternoon for the final tune-up. Frankie Baker and Johnny Williams, are the top-rankers, playing No. 1 and No. 2 respectively. Tanned Jim Ricksecker will face Idaho in the No. 3 spot. Joe Rooney, ex-University high school star, ranks No. 4 and Al Gard will be No. 5. In doubles matches for Oregon it will be Williams and Baker playing No. 1 and Ricksecker and Rooney in the No. 2 spot.

Idaho Team Improved

Reports on the Moscow team indicate that Idaho will be represented by a team somewhat of the calibre of last year when they finished in the middle of the division meet.

Saturday the Oregon varsity club plays Washington State on the local courts at 2 p.m.

'B' Title Won By UniHouse

University House won the championship of League II in "B" league competition by trouncing the Pi Phis, 26-4, Tuesday evening. Led by Marianne Blenkinsop, the University House ten jumped to an early lead while holding the Pi Phis in pretty close check.

University House will later meet the winner of the other "B" league, which will probably be Hilyard House or Hendricks Hall, for the championship of the "B" play.

The scheduled Sigma Kappa-Chi Omega game was postponed to this afternoon. Zeta Tau Alpha will meet Hendricks Hall.

Hamel Rates Finger Wave By Bobbling Ball First

Bill Hamel has "caught himself" a finger wave from Currier's beauty salon, free for nothing. He gets this valuable prize as a reward for making the first Oregon error in the Washington State series.

Some of the prizes offered for the opening day are still in the hands of the dealers, only five being won today.

Bob Farrow had a field day for the complimentaries, winning three today. He stole the first base for Oregon in the series that awards him a shoe rack from Keith Fennell's pharmacy; made the winning Oregon run yesterday, that gives him a leather binder from the campus book store, and batted in the first Webfoot run, that allows him to get his ears lowered free of charge at Charlie Elliot's barber shop.

Because of Farrow's hit, Dick Burns receives a tie from Hart Larsen's for scoring the first Oregon run of the series.

There are still two prizes remaining. Nobody won the sport shirt from DeNeffe's for belting the first homer, and no Oregon men were hit by a pitched ball to receive a hamburger and shake dinner from Taylor's.

Total University of Texas enrollment for the current long session is 10,042 individuals, 104 fewer than last year.

University of Michigan students donated 350 pints of blood during a recent campus "blood bank" drive.

Begleries Doles Out 3 Hits In Revenge Win

By LEE FLATBERG

Sports Editor, the Emerald

A run with two out in the ninth ruined hopes of a shut-out for Nick Begleries yesterday on Howe field, but the chunky little righthander still reaped a bit of revenge by setting the Washington State Cougars down with three hits and on the short end of a 6 to 1 verdict.

Little Nick pitched himself a beautiful ball game and even went so far as to bat in a run with a sizzling single to right.

Begleries pitched himself a perfect game for five and two-thirds innings. With two out in the sixth 17 men had gone down in order. Then Glen Hursey made first on an error to break the streak.

Cougars Take Road to Meet Oregon State

Washington State's powerful Cougars, weakened by the loss of Bill Sewell, ace chucker who fell before ex-G-Man Atherton's axe, move over to Corvallis today for a two-game skirmish against Oregon State.

With one victory, that over Oregon, 2 to 1, last week, the Orangemen lead the loop while the Cougars are in second place with one triumph and one loss. Oregon is in third with one win and two setbacks.

Brown Recovers

Word from Corvallis has it that the Beavers are back at full strength again. Vic Brown, ace sophomore center fielder, has been confined to the infirmary for almost two weeks with the mumps. Hitting better than .400 in pre-season tilts, Brown's return to the lineup, is expected to boost Ralph Coleman's offensive dynamite.

Glenn Elliott, veteran southpaw who tamed Oregon, will probably get the starting cap while with Warren Simas or Wade Patterson, another left-hander, will start tomorrow's game for the Orangemen.

Games today: Washington State vs. Oregon State, at Corvallis.

The Cougars banged out their first hit in the seventh when Dosskey laced a liner to left. They added two more in the top of the ninth, along with a walk, to push their only run across.

Oregon bunched seven hits in three different innings to ring up their six runs.

The Ducks got their first run in the first inning when Dick Burns walked, moved to second on an infield out, and then scampered home on Bob Farrow's liner over shortstop.

Webfoots Get Two

The Ducks put three hits and a sacrifice together in the sixth to push two more runs across. Farrow opened the festivities with his second hit, a single to center. Ted Pilip sacrificed him down to second and he scored seconds later on Begleries' mighty blow. Bill Hamel followed up with the only extra base hit of the day, a double to center, to send Begleries scurrying over with the second run of the inning.

The hungry Webfoot bats sprayed out three more hits and the same number of runs in the seventh. Bill Carney came up with a bloody infield blow to second and beat it out. Don Kirsch's first hit, a single, sent Carney to third and Kirsch went to second on the throw in. Burns walked to fill the bases.

Johnny Bubaio smacked a single to center and Carney scored but Burns was caught between second and third. Kirsch was forced off third by the play and was trapped and thrown out.

With two men out and men on second and third Pilip lofted a high fly to center which the fielder fubbed and two runs trickled across the plate to finish Oregon's scoring.

Farrow Paces Hitters

Farrow was the only player to hit safely more than once, banging out two singles in four trips.

Hursey, Cougar pitcher was touched for seven hits and gave up three walks. He struck out four men. Begleries struck out seven men and let up two walks.

Diamond Dust from WSC Game

By FRED TREADGOLD

Whether the old Buck has adopted a pacifist's attitude or has been taking lessons in self-control, we wouldn't venture to say, but he appeared pretty genteel during his two-day sojourn in Duckland.

It wasn't the same old raucous, umpire-baiting, bucket-busting Buck Bailey. Instead it was a milder, more temperate man, who confined his antics to an occasional outburst directed at the umpire or whistling and arm-waving gyrations to his misplaced outfielders.

The water bucket wasn't even threatened. Maybe Buck had seen the container—no fragile, thin-shelled bucket—but a sturdy, iron caldron! After all, he's only human.

Biggest laugh that the crowd got Wednesday was when some mischievous individual hooked a cow's tail to Buck's pants. Two innings of prancing about, with the tail wagging merrily, went by before big Buck discovered the object of everybody's mirth.

Donnie Kirsch, in most everybody's opinion, would get the medal for "valiant service" rendered, if such a thing was given. That chunky little second-sacker was all over the right side of the infield, scooping up ball after ball, making the hard ones look simple. Not a bobble in the carload, either.

Mid-season form was displayed by diminutive Nick "Bugs" Begleries, who tamed
