

Frosh Track Team Drills

After traveling to Corvallis for the annual relays with a min-ute squad, the Duckling track-men are gradually getting back into shape.

Probably the greatest loss in the relays, was that of Tom Boy-len in the 880 and mile. He had an attack of pneumonia the week before the meet, and has just re-turned to the squad. It is three weeks before the Oregon State dual meet and he plans on being in shape before that time. He has run with the varsity in previous time trials and has consistently placed. The distance events proved weakest in the relays for the Ducklings.

Todd Ineligible

Another loss, this time because of ineligibility, is that of Johnny Todd. He was declared ineligible because he had attended night school before attending the University, and found it out only a few days before the relays. He is entered in the 440 and his return should bolster the squad.

The next frosh meet is the dual meet May 16 with the Rooks, and they will attempt to break the spell. They broke even in the re-lays, 2 to 2.

According to a Johns Hopkins university survey, persons born in the spring are taller and heav-ier than those who make the summer, fall or winter trip with the stork.

UO Sharpshooters Qualify on Pacific Coast

The University rifle team was among those qualified to repre-sent the Ninth Corps Area in the intercollegiate gallery rifle matches, it was announced at the headquarters of Major General Kenyon A. Joyce, commanding general of the Ninth Corps Area, Fort Douglas, Utah.

The schools were qualified in a series of matches fired between March 16 and April 16 under rig-idly controlled uniform condi-tions. Each team fired at its "home" gallery and forwarded the results to Corps Area head-quarters, which reported them to the national board for the promo-tion of rifle practice.

Schools represented by win-ning teams will be awarded one year's custody of a silver cup and individual members will receive medals.

Other schools to qualify were Washington State College, Ore-gon State College, University of Idaho, University of California, and UCLA.

Lemons Appointed As Boys' Co-op Manager

Howard Lemons, president of directors of the students' co-oper-ative association and house man-ager of Canard club, was named general manager of the three boys' co-ops by the board Mon-day night. He is replacing Leon-ard Farr, who is leaving school.

Lemons will have charge of buying for the association for next year.

from an idea suggested by Joe Miller, junior in journalism. Last March 4, he and Harry Prongas were copromoters of the all-star basketball doubleheader that drew 2300 fans into the Igloo and $225 into the coffers of the student de-fense fund.

In Howe Field

The game will be held either on Howe field or the No. 1 IM softball field, and Burns and Lar-sen are confident of a crowd of 2500 students and families to wit-ness the star-studded fray. Burns, an outstanding ball player him-self, will pick and coach the Greek stars, while Larsen and Miller are going to name the In-dependent selections. A demo-cratic method will be used in naming the men, in that every living organization's entire team will be surveyed and their athletic managers can suggest their out-standing men.

Independent managers should turn in their nominations to Lar-sen by early next week, while Greeks should see Burns.

Burns will announce the Greek all-stars in next Wednesday's Emerald and the Independents will be revealed the following day. The many outstanding men chosen are expected to put on one of the greatest softball shows ever seen at the University. Sev-enteen men and coaches will be the playing limits for both squads, as decided upon by both cochair-men.

Girls

Before-game and between-in-ning entertainment has not yet been decided upon, but the possi-bility of holding a three-inning girls' all-star game has been sug-gested and will be given full con-sideration by the chairmen. Also on tap may be Ted Hallock and his swing band and Norma Tre-vorrow in her Hawaiian singing and dancing number.

Ernest Williams Wins German Book Award

Dr. Astrid M. Williams, assist-ant professor of German and fac-ulty adviser to the German hon-orary, Delta Phi Alpha, an-nounced Monday that Ernest E. Williams, Portland, has won the book award presented annually by the honorary for being the outstanding student in German at the University. The book, "Briefe deutscher Musiker" ("Letters of German Musicians"), was compiled by German poets.

The award was made from the standpoint of interest, progress, and general excellence in Ger-man, Dr. Williams stated.

Attend Girls' Meet

Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, di-rector of dormitories, and Eliza-beth Steed have been asked to attend the girls' league moth-ers' luncheon at Lorraine high school Wednesday, May 6.

Both Mrs. Turnipseed and Miss Steed will speak to the group.

that there may be a three-inning contest between the girl softball stars of the WAA. There has been some great softball played by the girls, and they are an-xious to show their stuff. If so, Peggy Wright will manage the Greeks and Mary Alderson, the Independent.

The umpires have not been de-cided upon yet, but the Indepen-dents are sure to demand "Buck" Mayfield to handle one of the posts. The Greeks' choice will probably be Ted Sarpola, one of the outstanding arbiters in the regular IM softball league.

Report Confirmed

The death of Second Lieu-tenant Ernest W. (Ernie) Robertson, ex-Oregon gridiron star, was confirmed late last night by news reports coming from Florida. Robertson and six other U. S. army fliers were killed when a bomber and pursuit plane collided Wednes-day.

Field Man Returns

Virgil H. Langtry, field con-sultant for the league of Oregon cities, will return to the campus today. He has been touring eastern Oregon cities and will leave this weekend for visits to other state municipalities.

WAGE WAR ON WASTE

This year, more than ever before, we must save in every way, when every cent counts so much. Wage a war on waste to do your part at home. Con-servation of electrical energy through proper use is a valuable contribution to the war effort and will help us maintain the good service supplied the University for over 30 years.
