

Huskies Nip Ducks, 2-1, With Ninth Inning Rally

Ford 'Cuffs' Oregon With Seven Blows

By LEE FLATBERG

A Washington uprising in the ninth inning yesterday on the "Mud Flats," spiced with an argument, garnered two big runs for the Huskies and gave Tubby Graves and Co. a 2 to 1 win over the Ducks. The two teams will battle it out again this afternoon at 3.

The Huskies came to bat in the top of the ninth trailing 1 to 0. Boddy Gilbertson, first up, blasted a double to right field. Hal Logan followed suit with a looping single to center to send Boddy to third.

Then the squeeze was on. Boddy was off with the pitch and Dave Gordan laid a bunt down third base line. Begleries fielded the ball but his throw to Ted Pilip was high and glanced off his glove and Boddy was safe. Logan went to third on the play and came steaming into the plate but was shooed back by Spec Burke.

The Washington boys were off the bench immediately, led by the colorful Graves. Words were flung around. Burke stood pat on his decision that the runner was entitled to only one base on the play and the Huskies went back to their bench.

But the Huskies weren't through. Bob Bird banged out a long fly to center and Logan scored the winning run when Pilip missed him on the play at home.

Ducks Threaten

The Ducks threatened in the last of the ninth when pinch hitter Pete Peterson singled, moved to second on Bill Hamel's bunt, and then scooted to third on an infield out. Dick Whitman and Don Kirsch grounded out to end the threat.

Oregon picked up its lone run in the seventh. With two down, Hamel beat out an infield hit and moved to second when Whitman walked. Then Kirsch stepped up and calmly parked a long single out into right-center to score Hamel on a very close play at the plate.

As usual, the game had to be played on the very gooey surfaces of the "Mud Flats." Mud and all, both teams came up with some beautiful ball, with only one error being made.

Carney, the Robber

Bill Carney robbed the Huskies of two hits on long towering drives to his pasture. He pulled down Bird's long drive on the dead run in the second, and then did himself even prouder in the fifth on a long poke to center field by Frank Constantino. Sputtering Constantino coming back to the bench muttered, "What does a man have to do to get a hit?"

Oregon touched Doug Ford's slants for seven hits but some mighty nice fielding held the Ducks in tow. Bub blasted out a triple in the second but was nipped at the plate when he tried to score on an infield out. The Ducks threatened again in the eighth when Bub reached third again, but a diving one-handed catch by first baseman Bill Gissberg checked the rally.

Nick Begleries was touched for nine hits but kept them scattered till the fateful ninth. The Huskies got two hits in the seventh and had a man scooting in from third, but a beautiful throw in from center by Whitman cut off the run.

Frosh Tangle With Burns Nine Today

Weather permitting, Anse Cornell will send his newly acquired Duckling baseball team against the Burns high team this morning at 10 on Howe field. If the field is in bad shape the Frosh will be shooed down to the "Mud Flat" so as not to ruin Howe field for the varsity game in the afternoon.

The Burns crew is no push over, according to press stories, and boast a strong pitching staff.

Pitcher Not Named

No starting pitcher has been named by Cornell but it will probably be either Whitey Lokan or Bob Signer. The infield will be the same as has started the other game this season. Si Sidesinger will take over first, John Gitzen at second, Art Murphy at short, and Bass Dyer at third for the infield.

In the outfield will be Merle Aden, Bob Aiken, and Jim Pryor.

The annual "little civil war" with the OSC Rooks is slated to start Junior Weekend. The two teams will tangle Friday in Eugene, and then move over to Corvallis for the Saturday game.

Weather Nips Coed Sports

With "Old Man Weather" putting his damp clammy hand into the affairs of all, coed sports have struck a hitch, and the play at the end of the week finds the action stopped with competition nearly complete.

Highland house, by trouncing the Kappas last Wednesday, earned the right to tangle with the Orides for the "A" championship.

The Orides, one of the strongest teams in coed sport circles, came through their league play with little trouble and should draw the nod when the two play for the crown next week.

In coed tennis, play has reached the semi-finals in the all-campus play with Gertrude Kay and Clair Reen pair off and ready to go in one bracket, and Dorothy Hermann and defending champ "Bab" DuPuy paired off in the other semi-final play.

Ducks, Bevos Match Net Strokes Today

By ERLING ERLANDSON

Early this morning at 5:40 the sun rose over the Oregon campus. Early this morning at 9:30 the rooks from Oregon State clash with the frosh from Oregon on the tennis courts.

Early this afternoon at 1:30 the much-better-than-last-year Beaver varsity net squad and Russ Cutler's racketeers come out fighting. For the Lemon and Green it will be Frankie Baker in the king position. In the Orange and Black corner his opponent will be tall Ken Hedberg.

Johnny Williams plays No. 2 for Oregon and is noted for his smashing style of attack. Tanned Jim Rickjecker goes onto the courts as No. 3 man. Joe Rooney, ex-Jefferson high of Portland, is ranked No. 4 on the Duck team. In the No. 5 post it's Eugene's Al Gard pushing them over the net.

Bill McKalip will field Evan Hatfield, Hal Bagby, 18-year-old ace, and two Bobs, Bruckhart and Downie against these.

On the courts for the frosh we'll see Fred Howard serving No. 1; Art Damschen batting in the No. 2 lineup; Mount Shasta's John Jensen at No. 3; Wilson "Nick" Reed delivers from the No. 4 post; and Hugh Crawford of Heppner is on duty in the No. 5 ranking.

Oregon State's varsity has had two matches so far this season. On April 24 they won from Washington State, 4 to 3, and on April 25 walloped Idaho on the Corvallis courts, 5 to 2. Oregon has played four matches, three conference and one with a Portland amateur club. They were beaten 5 matches to 2 by the Irvington club in the non-conference opener. Washington downed them 6 to 1 at Seattle, then they came back to top both Idaho and Washington State, 5 to 2 and 4 to 3, respectively.

Beautiful Game...

Ducks Meet Huskies at 3

Smarting under the sting of a close 2 to 1 count, Oregon's Ducks, undaunted and determined, try again today when they cross bats with Washington's league leaders on Howe field at 3 o'clock. Yesterday's game was not decided until the last of the ninth and was a nip and tuck embroglio all the way.

For Huskies

Tubby Graves will nominate his starting chucker from among the trio of Laurie Heath, brother of Cleveland's slugging Jeff Heath; Dick Hazel, ace curver; and Bob Cummins, squat fastballer.

Hoping to curb the boisterous Washington bats, Hobby Hobson will probably choose from between John Bubalo, knuckle-bailer, and Nelson Sandgren from McMinnville. Sandgren so far this season has allowed no runs in eight innings of relief work.

Completing the batteries will be Frank Constantino and Ted Pilip, of Washington and Oregon, respectively.

RUSS CUTLER . . .

. . . sends his netters against OSC today.
