

The all-star softball classic between the Independents and the Greeks slated for the Saturday afternoon of Junior Weekend shapes up to be one of the bitterest battles seen in the local area for a long time. Feeling runs a little high on both sides and in an explosive game like softball, fireworks may flare.

The Independents are going into the fray with the cry of "Remember the All-Star Game!" This, to any of you who don't know, refers to the rather rough deal that the A-Independents received (that's the claim, anyway). There were some violent objections to the affiliations of some of the referees. We won't venture an opinion of any of this, but it certainly lends to the color of the classic, which looks very much like it will become an annual event on the campus in softball, touch football, and basketball.

Sarp and Shep

The umpires have been selected by cochairman Hank Burns and are Ted Sarpola and Jim Shephard, both Greeks. But this choice met with the wholehearted approval of Independent Al Larsen, the other cochairman. We can promise that Sarp and Shep will be fair—they are straight-shooters. We still maintain that it is a pity that Buck Mayfield cannot take over the arbiter's role, even if for an inning or two. He goes into a spasm when he calls a man out, and the bleachers shake at his stentorian tones.

The spike-edged battle looms up to be a pitchers' show. Although both Burns, Larsen, and myself are keeping our opening selections far up our sleeves, we've got a sneaking hunch that DU "Birdie Bob" Wren will match opening throws with the Awfuls' pride, "Ollie" Olson. Behind the plate for the fraternity men should be either Bunny Potts or George Dugan, Wren's battery mate, while Dave Marine and Jimmy Oswald will handle Independent duties.

(Ed. note—The Greek catching selections are not definite as this is going to press before Burns had named his men.)

Infielders Are the Key

The infield will be where the game is decided. Both key hurlers throw "stuff" balls, the kind that when they are hit, come screeching down at the infielders. The Independent infield lines up very strong on the left side with Gamma Hall's Jim Linse at third base, a tall, fast boy with a rifle arm. At short they have Bobby Reynolds, the hustling "showboat" that covers an acre of territory. On the right side of the infield Kirkwood's Aaron Jones and Omega's "Brush" Campbell look like two good bets at second base, while Burly Arne Jensen and "Nobsey" Morris of the Campbell crew are fair fielders and heavy hitters.

For the Greeks, ATO Ox Wilson shows fire and drive from the shortstop area in addition to being a fine place-hitter. Sig Ep "Porky" Andrews, the workhorse of their ten, may be moved to an infield post. Sammie Al Weinstein is a smooth, easy working second sacker. DU Ed Niklas hits a long ball and cavorting about the initial sack he gives his infielders a mountainous target to fire at. "Hammering Hank" Burns, himself, lends the keystone sack strength and his potent war club will give the Independents plenty of trouble.

Seating arrangements for the 2,400-odd students and families that will witness the contest are going to be arranged for. In the next few days bleachers are going to be set up on the New Intramural softball field to accommodate the fans. Although plans for seating have not been completed yet, the Independents and Greeks may sit in opposite sections and be led in cheers by Yell King Earle Russell and Buddy Sali-nardo. This would give it all the color and excitement of a varsity show.

It's All for Free!

Remember, this show is free, so be sure and not to miss it. It has all the looks of a great show, thanks to the untiring efforts of cochairmen Al Larsen and Hank Burns.

The coaching situation is almost completely cleared. Manny Vezie is almost sure to be back next fall, which will give the Ducks one of the finest end coaches in the country. John Warren has taken over command of the Ducks' fortunes in style that even his most ardent fans hadn't expected of him. One of his better-known ball players said the other day regarding "Honest John," that he thought Warren will make as good a coach as Tex.

This statement comes from one man that should know, and maybe a tipoff to an upswing of Oregon morale for next fall. Warren has a fine squad now, and if they are not draft-ized or Atherton-ized, they should go places next fall. But, we can expect a lot of trouble from the service teams, especially Tex Oliver's crew from the St. Mary's naval service school.

Canardmen Bash Betas 5-2; Awfuls Slip from Loop Lead

By JOE MILLER

The torrid IM softball race was thrown into an uproar yesterday afternoon when an amazing Phi Delt ten blasted the Awful Awfuls from title chances with a 7-1 trouncing. Jim Cozzens held the usually potent Awful bats, and Elmer Olson was unusually wild giving up seven walks. This, coupled with seven Phi Delt blows into the region of an unprotected short center field, gave the Phis runs to spare.

Canardmen Climb

Another surprising upset saw Canard club decisively down the Betas, 5 to 2. The Canard troupe belted out 10 blows from the offerings of Quent Sidesinger while Roy Nelson was holding the Betas in close check.

ATOs Bump SAEs

The ATOs drove by the SAEs, 4 to 1, on the strength of a great hurling exhibition by Paul Bocci. Boch whiffed 12 Sig Alphas, gave one lone single, and their usually strong bats were helpless before his assortment of "stuff."

Sigma Nus Ramble

The Sigma Nus kept crashing—this time it was the Yeomen who weren't even good batting practice for the Nus—they succumbed 17-2. Long John Orth ascended the hill for the Snakemen to give Johnny Mead a rest.

Campbell Out on Top

Campbell club outslugged Kirkwood co-op, 12-6, in a free-hitting affair. The Campbells crashed out 16 hits, seven of them for extra bases. Milt Small led the attack with a homer and a triple, George Booras collected a double and single, and everyone else in the lineup hit safely but Kitson.

Pi Kaps in Running

The PiKaps pulled back into a tie for their league title by blasting the Phi Psis to the most one-sided lumping of IM play so far. They won the "track meet" 20-2. Nine home runs were cracked out by the free-swinging PiKaps among their 22 safe blows. McFayden hurled again for the PiKaps and was untouchable.
