

Carney Trims OSC, 6-5, With 10th Inning Homer

Ducks Win Thriller; Stop Staters' Streak

Bill Carney blasted a towering home run over the right field embankment of Howe field in the tenth inning yesterday to write finalis to a hectic Oregon-Oregon State ball game, and send the Beavers limping off on the killing Inland Empire trip on the short end of a 6 to 5 beating.

The setback clips a six-game winning streak for the Beavers and rekindles Oregon's faint hopes of copping the baseball crown again.

A Great Ball Game

It was a great ball game. It's hard to know where to start in recounting it. There was that great diving catch by Dick Burns in the top of the tenth that turned into an unassisted double play and cut off an OSC rally. And there was Johnny Bubalo's homer in the eighth that tied up the ball game at five all. Then, too, there was Don Kirsch's three-run homer in the fifth that gave Oregon a 4 to 2 lead.

Oregon drew first blood in the third when they shoved their first run across. Nick Begleries, starting pitcher, reached second on an error by Harry Amatcher. The burly OSC backstop overthrew on first, on a flooper by Nick and he scooted to second. Dick Whitman singled to right to score Begleries.

The lead was short-lived, as the Beavers came back with a two-run flurry in the fifth on Don Durdan's home run. Doug Pederson reached first on Bill Hamel's error and Durdan cleared the sacks with a line drive homer into center.

Undaunted, the Ducks came back in the last of the fifth and posted three runs via a walk, a double play that went wrong, and a long home run by Kirsch over the left field bank.

Bill Hamel walked to start the inning. Begleries reached first and Hamel went to second when a double play failed to materialize. Then Kirsch's home run sent three runs scurrying over the plate.

It was 4 to 2 for the Ducks and with Nick still strong, things looked good. Then, with one away in the sixth, the Beavers touched Nick for two straight singles and Bob Rieder came into the game.

Bill Hamel cut off any Beaver's dreams of runs that inning when he pulled in Pederson's line drive over the bag and doubled Norm Peters off the sack.

Rieder lost control in the seventh and put two men on by walks. Then Bob Farrow booted one at short and the bases were full. Elwyne McRae took care of the loaded sacks by dumping a double into extreme left and sending three runs across to put the Beavers out in front again, 5 to 4.

Rieder was through, now, and Bub moved over to take care of the pitching for the rest of the game, and to earn the credit for the win. Bub strong-armed and knuckle-balled his way by the rest of the batters.

Still lagging by one run, Bub evened up his own ball game by slashing out the third home run of the day, a long drive over the very busy left field bank.

With the score tied up the stage was set for some nice playing by Oregon. Hamel singled in the ninth but was left stranded. The Beavers couldn't touch Bub's offerings but Vic Brown walked in the tenth with one away. Then Peters sent a drive down first

Cindermen Travel To Pullmen Friday

Colonel Bill Hayward has kept a watchful eye on his Webfoot cinder squad this week, trying to pick a traveling team to face Washington State at Pullman Saturday.

Because of transportation costs, Hayward will be able to take only 16 men, including trainer, manager, and himself. Tryouts were held for the middle distances yesterday, but no announcement was made as to the complete team. It will be necessary to take the most versatile men in order to be represented in all the events.

Possibilities

Some who are likely to make the trip are Zenas Butler, sprints, hurdles, and broad jump; Homer Thomas, pole vault; Bob Newland, high jump and broad jump; Don Wilson, mile and two mile; Ralph Kramer, sprints and hurdles; Francis Tackwiler, middle distances; Chuck Elliot, weights; Stan Skillicorn, 880; Warren base which Burns gathered in on a beautiful flying dive to double Brown off of first.

It was Carney's show from there on in. With two strikes against him and none away, he caught hold of one of Glenn Elliot's southpaw offerings to send it over that same left field embankment, break up the game, and beat the Beavers.

While only in for two innings, Elliot gets credit for the loss to end his winning streak at three straight. Bub earned the win for Oregon.

Frosh Meet OSC Friday

Crowded out of the sports program yesterday by the Oregon State baseball and the football scrimmage, the Duckling baseball team will put on the finishing touches this afternoon in preparation for the invading Oregon State Rooks.

It will be the first of the annual four game series played between the two schools.

The Rooks have rang up an impressive list of wins against outstanding high school teams to date and are tabbed as a hard hitting crew.

The game will be a part of the Mothers' day festivities Friday, and will follow the luncheon, being played on Howe field at 4.

Ducks Start 'Empire' Trip

NORTHERN DIVISION STANDINGS

Oregon State	6	1	.857
Oregon	5	3	.625
Washington	5	3	.625
Washington State	3	5	.357
Idaho	0	7	.000

With Oregon State and Mr. Elliot neatly disposed of, Howard Hobson and 15 diamond men leave at 5:15 this afternoon for the dreaded Inland Empire trip.

The Ducks meet Idaho in Moscow Friday and Saturday, move over to Pullman to play Washington State Monday and Tuesday, and then complete the fatiguing "six games in seven days" toughie with Washington in Seattle on Wednesday and Thursday.

The fifteen men making the trip with Hobson are: Ted Pilip, Bill Peterson, Bill McKeivitt, Bob Rieder, Nick Begleries, Nelson Sandgren, Al Wimer, Johnny Bubalo, Don Kirsch, Bill Hamel, Bob Farrow, Dick Whitman, Bill Carney, Dick Burns, and Bob Normoil.
