

Little Theater Names Leaders

Standing committees who will carry forward special branches of work in the Very Little Theater during the coming year, were announced last Sunday night by President Gretchen Parker, at the group's monthly meeting at the home of Dorothy Parks.

The play committee, headed by Adrian Martin, will also include Ethel Christie, Mary Krenk, Claire Gibson, and Adele Griffith. Other committees include: hospitality, Elva Cuthbert, Dee Knollin, Clare Hart; house, Eyer Brown and Bud Griffith; make-up, Ethan Newman, and Sylvia Cuthbert; publicity, Marvin Krenk and Glenn Hasselrooth; costumes, Marjorie Zane; tickets, Gerda Brown and Ruth Fisher; historians, Lois Neman and Sally Allen.

Return

Welcomed back into the group were one of the VLT's charter members, Robert W. Earl, and Mrs. Earl. Earl is one of the group founded the Eugene Very Little Theater, and for the past few years he has been affiliated with the Portland Civic Theater.

A work part has been planned for the coming Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the playhouse. Supper will be served at 5:30. Eyer Brown, assisted by Bud Griffith and Henry Korn, will be in charge. All members have been invited.

Annual picnic of the organization will be Sunday, June 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eyer

Oregon Graduate Aids Psychopathic Study

Birnet Hovey, former University of Oregon student in psychology, and now senior warden's assistant at the medical center for federal prisoners, Springfield, Missouri, is contributor of a study on criminal psychopathic personalities to the April edition of the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology.

Two groups of male adult prisoners studied, showed that maladjusted subjects exhibited more definite antisocial tendencies and other abnormal development traits than did relatively well-adjusted first offenders of the control group.

To Honor Caswell

Members of the University science faculty will honor Dr. A. E. Caswell, head of the physics department and dean of the lower division, at a dinner at the Anchorage May 10. Dr. Caswell will leave this month for the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to do research work in connection with national defense for the duration of the war.

Dr. H. B. Yocum and Dr. W. D. Smith are in charge of arrangements for the dinner.

Brown. Everyone who has worked on VLT shows during the past year, as well as members, may attend. Henry Korn and Robert Horn will be co-chairmen, and Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Neman will be in charge of the entertainment.

Casteel to be Toastmaster At Speech Convention

John L. Casteel, director of the speech division at the University, will act as toastmaster at the noon luncheon during the Oregon state speech association's annual convention in Portland, Saturday, May 9, it was announced here. Kirk E. Montgomery, instructor in speech, will also attend the convention.

Immediately following the

Welcome Mothers

Come and visit us, too, and have some of the favorite campus dish, our famous "Chicken in the Rough." We serve this specialty in informal baskets with a heavy sprinkling of crisp shoestring potatoes. It's as good as it sounds!

Seymour's

CAFÉ • COFFEE SHOP
known for good food
AIR CONDITIONED

luncheon, an after-dinner speaking contest is to be held for college students. Jane Hooker, Medford, will be the University's contestant.

Dr. Maurice H. Seevers, professor of pharmacology at the University of Wisconsin, has been called to the University of Michigan.

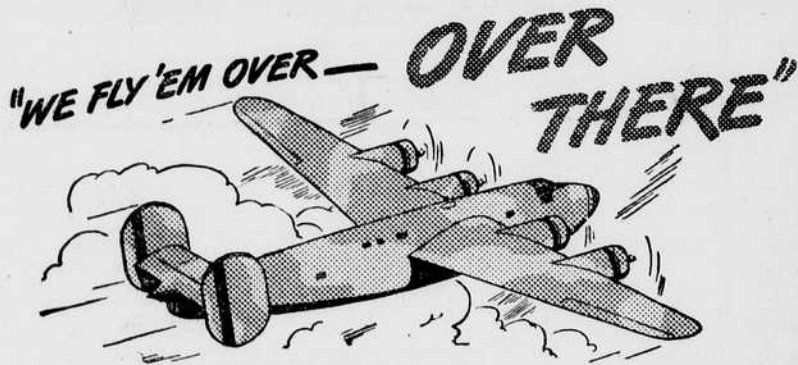

On Mother's Day this year, send flowers. She'll love a beautiful corsage, or a distinctive arrangement from Chase's.

And don't forget—special flowers for the Junior Prom.

Chase Gardens

58 East Broadway.

Phone 4240.

WHEN YOU'RE FLYING the big bombers across, you don't want jangled nerves. These veterans at the right are Camel smokers. (Names censored by Bomber Ferry Command.) The captain (nearest camera), a Tennessean, says: "I smoke a lot in this job. Camels are extra mild with plenty of flavor."

YOU WANT STEADY NERVES to fly Uncle Sam's bombers across the ocean

WITH THESE MEN WHO FLY BOMBERS, it's Camels. The co-pilot of this crew (name censored), (second from left in photograph at the left) says: "I found Camels a milder, better smoke for me in every way."

Important to Steady Smokers:

The smoke of CAMELS slow-burning

contains LESS NICOTINE

than that of the four other largest-selling brands tested — less than any of them — according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself!

IN MY NEW DEFENSE JOB, I APPRECIATE CAMELS MORE THAN EVER. THEY'RE EXTRA MILD WITH A GRAND FLAVOR

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

FIRST IN THE SERVICE—

The favorite cigarette with men in the Army, the Navy, the Marines, and the Coast Guard is Camel. (Based on actual sales records in Post Exchanges, Sales Commissaries, Ship's Service Stores, Ship's Stores, and Canteens.)

—AND THE FAVORITE AT HOME!