

Ducks Grab Another One!

WSC Dropped Again; Bubalo Clips Rally

By FRED TREADGOLD

It was Johnny-on-the-spot Bubalo, that versatile all-around guy, who clamped down another triumph for our scintillating Ducks over Washington State 8 to 5 in Pullman yesterday. Handy Boob, who paced Oregon to their first win Monday with his big bat, came through again when Coach Hobson called on him, only in a different role.

Behind by three runs in the ninth period, the Cougars filled the sacks with just one out and showed every indication of giving starting pitcher Bob Rieder an even more difficult time with their warclubs hovering menacingly. Then Skipper Hobson gave Big John the "come here" sign.

Strikes Out Two

Boob traded his first baseman's suit for a pitcher's glove, threw over the allotted five balls, and proceeded to WHIFF THE NEXT TWO BATTERS! The win gave the Webfoots the series 3 games to one.

Third Sacker Bill Hamel led the Duck hitting parade of 17 blows, pounding out four hits, including a home run.

Today the travel-weary Ducks move into Seattle for a two-game series with Washington in what should be their toughest contests on the trip.

Wells Grabs Tennis Crown

The championship for inter-college tennis singles went to Tri-Delta when Virginia Wells won from the Alpha Phi candidate, Pat Larkin, 6-1, 6-1.

Both girls had played many preceding matches and so were prepared for the final onslaught "Tuesday afternoon."

In the first set the score was tied at 4 up, then Miss Wells zoomed ahead for the next two games and won that set.

The entire match was one of strategy and quick thinking. Instead of the usual game of defensive volleying, the shots were well placed where it would be hard to return them.

Miss Larkin proved very good on her net shots, placing them well out of her opponent's reach.

This game was the end of the intra-house tournament in which over 55 girls entered, about 20 more than usual.

Louisiana State university law school will offer a summer session this year to permit men who are subject to army service to speed up completion of work for graduation.

Orides Grab Coed Crown

Orides smashed its way to a 20-11 victory over Hilyard house last night, cinching the girls' intramural softball championship. Led by Mary Anderson and Pete Lawson, Orides mixed hits and opponents' misplays to build up a score throughout the game.

Pitched Good Ball

All the pitchers were weary from last night's game, but pitched nice ball. Mildred Thomas chucked her second game in two days for Hilyard and struck out eight opponents while Mason, Higgins, and Newton exchanged duties for the victors and were effective enough to keep the game under control.

Gals to Join in All-Star Festivities

The possibility of a five-inning girls' all-star softball game to supplement Friday afternoon's Independent-Greek fray loomed as a possibility after girl softball leaders Peggy Wright and Mary Alderson picked girl all-stars. These teams will be announced tomorrow.

If this game is played it will start at 3:15 as a prelude to the men's clash starting at 4. Starving for the Greek girls should be Virginia Wells of Tri-Delta fame, Chi O's Nancy Lewis and Robin Nelson; Alpha Chi Gerry Stowell, and Theta Anabelle Dow. Independent girls boast Elaine Dahl

Sig Eps Climb Into IM Finals; Pi Kaps Batter Elmer Olson, 13-2

Andrews Hits Long Homer

By JOE MILLER

The Sig Eps battered a leaky Sammie team, 13 to 3, to gain the finals yesterday. The one-sided battle was highlighted by a tremendous fourmaster by Porky Andrews that cleared the 350 foot left field fence and crashed into the side of Hayward field. Andrews went the route on the mound for the SPEs limiting the Sammies to five scattered hits.

The Sig Eps started their long parade across the plate by scoring three runs on a double by Bill Mayther with the bases loaded. Dean Van Lydegraf hit a two-run homer in the second. In the third Bob Henderson poled out a single, Andrews chased him home with a triple off the centerfield fence. Williamson scored "Porkchops" with a sizzling drive through the infield.

The Sammies broke the scoring ice in the third. LeRoy Weinstein got by on an error, stole second, and came home on his brother Al's single. The Sig Eps got five more in the sixth featured by Andrews' homer and Marshik's triple.

OSC Rooks Smash Duckling Club, 10-1

Oregon State's Rooks got their revenge from the Ducklings yesterday, when they waxed the yearlings 10 to 1 on the Oregon State diamond.

No Oregon man reached base until the fifth inning when Art Murphy walked. He walked again in the seventh and came home on a fly ball for the lone Oregon run.

The Rooks started their attack in the first, getting one run, and broke loose in the third gaining four runs on five hits. They scored again in the fourth, sixth, and eighth innings.

Olson until the fifth when they moved all out for victory by scoring seven big runs. The entire order went to bat in this frame.

Arne Jensen poled out a long triple over the rightfielder's head to start the sixth, but he was left stranded. The Awfuls made a dying gesture in the seventh scoring two runs, but the PiKaps were way home.

Amphibians, Mermen

The Amphibians, girls' swimming honorary, and the men's varsity aquatic team combine to present the annual swimming demonstration in the men's pool, tonight at 7 p.m.

Under the direction of Miss Warrine Eastburn, instructor in physical education and advisor of the Amphibians and Jeanette Neilson, president of the girls' honorary, the swimmers have prepared a program of formations, mixed relays, life saving demonstration, races, and fancy and comedy diving exhibitions.

The demonstration is free. Simplicity is featured as no elaborate pageant has been prepared.

More freshmen men at LSU choose engineering than any other course.
