

Flatberg's back! He left for the army early Tuesday morning, but he was rejected and is back for a while, at least. He informs us that he was placed in class 1-B because of his weak vision.

The complicating part of the whole affair is the fact that he had received all his credits and dragged down a neat three point without taking a final and now will probably have to re-enter school to get his credits. Nevertheless, we are glad to see him back on the campus.

At the beginning of spring term, Colonel Bill Hayward issued a call for track aspirants. He was disappointed with the minute turnout, and the reason is obvious. The veteran Olympic and college track and field coach has had top-notch teams and champions for years and this sort of a let down was a blow to him.

At the first of the season, hopes were slim, but the squad has shown continual improvement, and it is entirely possible that Oregon State is going to have a bad time Saturday.

Three Returning Lettermen

There are only three returning lettermen on the squad that make up the backbone, but some of the transfers and green recruits are developing rapidly and things are beginning to look brighter.

The greatest loss was world's champion high jumper, Les Steers. Bill Beifuss was also lost in this event and the load fell on the shoulders of Bob Newland. Even though Bob is only a sophomore and has had little experience, he has shown well in the three meets thus far this year and is steadily improving. His best height this season is 6 feet 3 inches. He did this in the Portland dual meet early in the season, establishing a new record.

Another loss was that of Bob Hendershott in the pole vault, but his place has been ably taken over by one of the three returning lettermen, Homer Thomas. The interesting thing about Thomas is the fact that he hadn't pole vaulted until he entered the University. He answered an Emerald call issued by Frosh Coach Ned Johns and has proved an outstanding track man.

He started the 1942 season around 12 feet and has kept going until he has continually cleared 13 feet 6 inches and is threatening 14 feet. If he keeps up his present pace, he should top the 14-foot mark before the season is over. The thing that pleases many of us, is the fact that he is protected by advanced ROTC and will be back next year for sure.

Zenas Butler Mainstay

Another mainstay is the colored sprinting star, Zenas Butler. He is another of the returning lettermen, and is one of the most dependable men on the squad. He is essentially a hurdler, but is usually entered in the sprints and broad jump as well. He made his best performance of the season during the Portland meet when he gathered four firsts. Butler is one of the reasons for the brighter track outlook. He can usually be counted on for a first in one of the two hurdle events and a place in the 100 or 220. He is always a strong competitor in the broad jump as well. If it weren't for such versatile men as he, the small squad would not have a chance of winning a meet this year.

Tuckwiler Most Consistent

Probably the most consistent man on the squad is Captain Francis Tuckwiler. He is entered in the middle distances and runs one of the smartest races of any one on the squad, and has placed in every meet this season. Tuck can always offer a thrilling climax to any race he runs by his kick in the home stretch. He has been seen many times running fourth or fifth in the back stretch, but always ends up in the upper bracket. More men like Tuck would produce a championship team in any league. He came here from Pasadena J. C. last year where he made two letters. He ran with Kramer while he was in the south.

There are many others worthy of mention, but probably outstanding, is the development of Warren Finke in the javelin. He started early in the season as a green recruit, but has steadily improved until he has finally become one of the most outstanding men on the squad. His best distance is 172 feet and it is steadily increasing.

Wilson Outstanding Sophomore

The most promising sophomore on the squad is Don Wilson in the mile. He consistently runs it around 4:30 and is developing rapidly. He has placed in all the meets this season, and has been a dangerous contender in the two mile. His private feud with Bob Fischer in the dual meet Saturday should prove interesting. He ran against him in the Oregon State relays and it was one of the most thrilling races of the day.

Sigma Nu Wins, 15-4

PiKap Hurler Gives 14 Hits

By JOE MILLER

The marauding Sigma Nus put another notch in their power-laden bats by battering the leaky PiKaps 15 to 4. Tomorrow the rampant Nus encounter their last obstacle to the IM crown, the slugging Sig Ep outfit.

The debacle of the PiKaps can be laid to two things; one, the terrific potency of the Sigma Nu bats from the top to the bottom of the order; and two, the tiredness of PiKap hurler Bob McFadyen. He was no match for the Nus, who crashed out 14 hits.

The first frame produced two runs on a double by Al Gray, walks to Dick and Nowling, both who stole bases. The Steers twins brought in runs with long fly balls. In the second Ashcom walked, stole second, and came hom on a two-base error by Jim Harrison, Orth going to second. "Bongo" Williamson pumped a single to center bringing home the run. Gray doubled, but Dick grounded out leaving them both stranded.

Meanwhile, Johnny Mead was having little trouble keeping the PiKap clubs in close check. They touched him for two in the third on blows by Harrison and McMullin, two stolen bases, and an error.

Five in Fourth

The Nus got five big runs in the fourth. Gray started the festivities with his third hit in four frames, Dick, Nowling, and How-

Ad Men Plan ADS Conclave

Professional advertising men from all over the state will gather at the Eugene hotel Saturday at 6 o'clock for the annual Alpha Delta Sigma conclave. Members of the local advertising fraternity will be hosts.

Dr. Donald M. Erb, University president, will be guest speaker and will address the group on "Wartime Economy." Leith Abbott, advertising manager of the Southern Pacific in Portland, will be toastmaster.

Awards

Part of the program will be the presentation of the W. F. G. Thacher scholarship award to the best all-around junior man in advertising and the awarding of the Byington cup for outstanding service to the honorary.

Alpha Delta Sigma plaque to the association member who has done the most for the chapter during the year will be presented. There will be special entertainment features also.

The conclave will be preceded by initiation of pledges and of new officers Friday evening at 7 o'clock in Gerlinger.

REX

Adventures, Thrills!
Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in
'Corsican Brothers'

— also —

Carole Landis and George Montgomery in
'Cadet Girl'

Lookin' Back

TWO YEARS AGO

May 14, 1940

Ducks tip the Washington Huskies 8 to 6 to remain in second place in the northern division race.

FOUR YEARS AGO

May 14, 1938

Oregon swamps Idaho 13 to 7 in the opener of a baseball series. "Wimpy" Quinn paced the Ducks with a homer and two singles.

SEVEN YEARS AGO

My 14, 1935

Oregon defeats the Oregon State netmen 6 to 1, making a clean sweep of the singles.

Sigma Delta Psi

Ray Segale, assistant intramural director, announced all Sigma Delta Psi applications must be turned in by Monday.

dy Steers came through with successive hits. With the bases chocked full of Nus, Ashcom whaled out a long single, and then stole around to third base. He scored on Johnny Orth's long fly ball. Williamson walked, stole second, and scored while the PiKaps were getting the diminutive Gray out.

This powerhouse aggregation went scoreless in the fifth, then ground out five more runs in the sixth. Gray, the third sacker seemed to be doing everything for the Nus, started things again with a double. Nowling, Howdy, and Hank Steers, and Gale Quinn blasted out four successive extra-base blows. With bases again crammed, Dick Ashcom, another Snakeman star, lined out an ordinary single, but by reason of some powerhouse running, and a little sloppy PiKap fielding, ran it into a triple.

The PiKap offensive thrust was provided by Backstop Ross Wehe, who put a homer behind Dick Ashcom, John Todd, and Art Sprick.

PiKaps102 000 1— 4 6 4
Sigma Nus ..221 505 x—15 14 2

Mead and Howdy Steers; McFadyen and Wehe.

Coed Netters Shut Out OCE

Oregon's coed tennis stars defeated the courtsters from the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, 7-0, yesterday afternoon on the University courts. The contests are an annual feature sponsored by WAA. After the games were over, the players and officials from both schools were served refreshments in the social room at Gerlinger.

Babs DuPuy, representing Oregon in the number one spot, had a comparatively easy time taking a 6-0, 6-2 victory from Monmouth's Molly Horton.

After getting off to a shaky first set which she lost, 6-4, Gertrude Kay settled down to win the second and third sets, 6-4, 6-0.

Dot Herman, Oregon's third girl, overcame Hope Rumbaugh's second set comeback to score a 6-0, 6-4 victory. After swishing through the first set with a love score, Dot met plenty of opposition in the remaining part of the match, finally edging out Hope in long rallies and plenty of close games.

In the fourth position, Monmouth's Barbara Peterson lost 6-4, 6-1 to Clair Renn of Oregon. In the last singles match, Virginia Wells, Oregon's new interhouse singles champion, showed her right to the crown by swamping Terry Hubbard, 6-0, 6-1.

The doubles matches were closer than the singles, each one going to three sets before the Oregon coeds finally came through. Phyll Root and Jean Morrison of Oregon took a 6-0, 5-7, 6-1 match from Molly Horton and Terry Hubbard.

In the last contest of the day, Robin Nelson and Helen McKeen drove out a 6-2, 3-6, 6-2 win over Barbara Ruef and Hope Rumbaugh.

IM Finals

Sigma Nu faces Sigma Phi Epsilon in the final round of the intramural playoff at 4 p.m. on the new field.

Students at the University of Tampa are being paid commissions by the city to collect delinquent taxes from 11,000 persons.

The Last Shipment

Of all white rubber soled Moccacon Oxfords has just arrived. Don't wait—these will not last long.

$5.95

Also: Campus Shoes of All Types

in all sizes—Buy yours for summer and next fall now!

Spectators

$6.95

1060

Willamette