

Emerald Staff Stuffs Monday

With Dean Eric W. Allen of the school of journalism as toastmaster, the Emerald banquet for all members of both the business and news staff will be held next Monday at 6 p.m. All reporters and those who have been working on the advertising and business departments are invited.

Presentation of pins and awards will be made by Helen Angell, editor, and Fred O. May, business manager, for those who have earned the required number of hours. A farewell speech will be given by them to members of their respective staffs, then Ray Schrick, newly-appointed editor for next year, and Betty Jane Biggs, business manager for the coming year, will announce their new staff appointments.

George Turnbull, adviser to the Emerald, will present the Turnbull-Hall plaque to the most outstanding senior on the Emerald staff. The only difficulty that has arisen in the past over this presentation is that the only senior on the staff has been the editor, and the main qualification to the awarding of the plaque is that any senior, except the editor of the paper, can be awarded the plaque.

Sigma Delta Chi

A presentation of the Sigma Delta Chi scholastic awards, by Charles Hulten, will be made for those members of the Emerald who have the highest scholastic records of the staff.

The program for the affair will feature the gala appearance of the drum duet, the members of which are G. Duncan Wimpers and John Mathews. Joanne Nichols will sing for those present, and the AOPi trio will make an appearance.

All persons invited to the banquet have their names posted on the bulletin board in the Emerald news room, and must sign their initials if they plan on attending.

Pamphlets for Libe

Speeches by Deems Taylor and Erika Mann, in pamphlet form, have been received by the library, according to Dr. Arnold Elston, assistant professor of music. The subject of these speeches is "Should 'Enemy' Music Be Played?"

Westminster Forum To Discuss Students

Students and professors at last have a chance to express their views on each other.

Last Sunday's forum at Westminster house was a joint Wesley-Westminster house discussion on "Professors, Good and Bad." Lois Clause, Betty Walden, John Erickson, and Al Larsen were the speakers.

This Sunday Dr. H. W. Bernard is responding by leading a discussion on "Students, Good and Bad."

Asklepiads Begin Drive

Asklepiads, pre-medics honorary, is heading the campus drive to fill the Lane county blood bank.

Members of the honorary have pledged one hundred per cent to give a pint of their blood to the bank, which is being built to give immediate transfusions at the hospital rather than lose valuable time in finding a donor, typing the blood, and giving the transfusion.

Store Invaluable

Such a store would prove invaluable in case of a disaster to Eugene or other civilian populations, as well as being available to the armed forces.

Anyone who wishes to aid in the program is invited to do so. Arrangements may be made by:

1. Signing your name and other information on the Red Cross donor list.
2. Dr. E. D. Furrer will call you for blood typing and testing. This will take about five minutes. If your blood type is satisfactory, he will make an appointment for taking the blood.
3. Independent students may sign the slip by seeing any Asklepiad member.

'Y' Advisory Board

The YMCA advisory board elected the following officers for the coming year: G. Bernhard Fedde, chairman; Karl Onthank, vice chairman; Paul B. Means, secretary; and Carl Kossack, treasurer.

Fall Speaker From Brazil

Dr. Hernane Tavares de Sa, distinguished Brazilian educator and journalist, who is in the United States studying its educational system, will speak at the University early fall term under the auspices of the Institute of International Education.

Westminster College of Fulton, Missouri, has awarded Dr. Tavares a fellowship to study the educational systems of the United States, with a view to the possible application of North American educational methods in Brazil.

A close student of international affairs, Dr. Tavares is a regular contributor to the Journal do Brazil, Brazil's second-largest newspaper. This paper has accredited him as special correspondent in the United States with the specific assignment of writing up the leading North American institutions of higher learning.

This South American has written a book in English entitled "Dear Neighbor, Here Is Brazil," which will soon be published in the United States. During his travels he will gather material for a similar book about the States which will be published in Portuguese in Brazil next year.

Dr. Tavares, who received his medical degree at the University of Louvain, Belgium, in 1935, is 31 years old. He is a full professor of biology at the University of Sao Paulo and is also professor of educational policy at the Faculty of Philosophy of Sao Bento. He is official representative of these two Brazilian institutions in the United States.
