

Hollis Opens Second Trial Next Tuesday

Members of the legal cast for the second and last of the law school moot trials have been revealed by Orlando J. Hollis, acting dean of the law school. The trial will be presented at the Lane county court house Tuesday, May 19.

Acting as attorneys for the plaintiff will be Ed Luckey, Leon F. Olmstead, and Hull Phillips. Defending the case will be John Luvaas and Irvin Mann.

Baliff-notary for trial proceedings will be Charles A. Phipps and Miss Mary Jane Wormser will act as clerk. Miss Jeanette Hafner will be reporter-sheriff.

Witnesses

Appearing as witnesses for the plaintiff will be Morgan Pritchett, Roland Rodman, and Cecil Wright. Witnesses for the defendant will be Phil Lowry, Carleton Reiter and Miss Jeanette Thatcher.

Details of the filed complaint will be released Friday. Orlando J. Hollis will be judge for the practice trial.

Stanford Drafts

K. J. O'Connell, associate professor of law, will teach at Stanford summer school, beginning June 18. His class will be on "Trusts."

Notary Public Busy in Co-op

Students in the Co-op store lately have heard a distinct thump quite often and several have wondered what was the cause. It's a military affair, but not a military secret and students have learned that the noise is coming from the seal of Notary Public Gerda Brown, bookkeeper for the student store.

All boys making application to the army, navy or air corps must have certain papers signed by a notary public and as such Mrs. Brown has been busy with her official seal making the applications meet the requirement.

YM Elects Howard President of Cabinet

Newly-elected YMCA cabinet officers for the coming year are: Peter Howard, president; David Pressman, vice president; and Ralph Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

Also on the cabinet are Bud Vandeneynde, Dale Cannon, and Dan Potter.

Couple Return

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Caverhill returned to work at the University library May 11. They have spent several months in training at the school of librarians at the University of California in Berkeley.

A course in ultra-high frequency techniques is offered at Iowa State college.

Reiter Wins Hilton Prize

Carlton R. Reiter, junior from Portland, won the $50 first prize in the annual Hilton prize contest held last night at Fenton hall. Second prize of $25, presented by the law school, was won by Jeannette Thatcher, senior from Medford.

Frank H. Hilton, Portland attorney, has offered the first prize, to the law student presenting the best oral discussion of a legal topic, since 1922. Since 1924 the winning arguments, of merit, have been published in the Oregon Law Review.

Judges for this year's contest were: William Bartle, Lane county district attorney; Winsor Calkins, Eugene attorney; and Charles Edwards, Eugene attorney.

Dr. Caswell Leaving To Do Research at MIT

Dr. A. E. Caswell, dean of the lower division and head of the physics department, will leave today for the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to do research work for the government for the duration.

Dr. and Mrs. Caswell will drive through California to see their son, John, a graduate of the University, who is employed in San Francisco.

Dr. W. V. Norris, professor of physics, will be acting head of the department in Dr. Caswell's absence.

UO Alum Joins Faculty Of South Dakota State

Shailer Peterson, a University alumnus and formerly of Eugene, has been appointed director of educational research at South Dakota State college in Brookings for the coming school year. In his new position he will work under the president of the institution.

Graduating from Oregon in 1930, Peterson received his master of arts degree in chemistry at the University in 1932. This year he filled a position as science supervisor of Minnesota high school; and instructor in the college of education at the University of Minnesota.

Gov. Sprague to Review University ROTC Unit

Governor Charles A. Sprague has accepted an invitation to be present at the annual Governor's Day review of ROTC cadets on Thursday, May 21.

Governor Sprague will present commissions to the graduates of the University Reserve Officers Training corps.

Master Dance Elects Officers

Elise Older, junior in physical education, was elected president of Master Dance, modern dance honorary, for the forthcoming year at a meeting of the group Wednesday night. Margaret Murphy, sophomore in arts and letters, was named secretary-treasurer.

This year's president, Tom Hardy, was formerly the only boy ever to be president of a modern dance honorary in the nation.

At the meeting Jim Bartell was voted into junior membership, and Drusilla Johnson and Barbara Scott were made senior members.

The master dancers will make a trip to Woodburn Friday to take part in a May Day celebration there. Scheduled for next week are two parties for the honorary, one a farewell dinner Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Pirkko Roecker, adviser of the group who is not returning next year. Wednesday Mrs. Virginia Kerns will have a party for the dancers to wind up the year.

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

13th and Pearl

Sunday

Services—8 and 11

Student Canterbury Club—6:30

Third Floor, Gerlinger

Wednesday—7 a.m., Communion, Gerlinger Hall

Rev. E. S. Bartlam, Rector Phone 4606 or 4808
Miss Caroline Hines, Student Advisor Ph. 4605-J or 4808

Important to Steady Smokers:

The smoke of slow-burning

Camels contains

LESS NICOTINE

than that of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested — less than any of them — according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself!

CAMELS HAVE THE MILDNESS THAT COUNTS AND A FLAVOR THAT DOESN'T TIRE THE TASTE

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Camel

— the cigarette of Costlier Tobaccos