Summer Jobs

Men and women students interested in summer employment opportunities should see Mr. Jarvis, at Miss Janet Smith's University employment office, Thursday and Friday.

Seabeck Calls UO Students

Students from this campus and from all other colleges and universities in the Pacific Northwest will meet at Seabeck, Washington, for the annual YM-YWCA conference June 13 to 21, according to Genevieve Working, junior in sociology and cochairman of the 1942 conference.

"Christian Faith for Social Reconstruction" has been chosen for the theme of this meeting. All University students are invited to the conference and those interested in attending should contact Miss Working or Dan Bacot, YM president, as soon as possible.

Registration fee for the conference is $6 and should be paid in advance. If reservations are made and must later be cancelled a full refund will be made. Room and board for the eight days is $12.

Dr. Carl Knopf, president of Willamette university, and Rev. Elwina H. Scheyer from Bothell, Washington, will be the main speakers at the conference.

Students and faculty members are invited to the conference. Last year 19 delegates from the campus attended the meet.

Facilities are available for various types of recreation and those attending may take part in whatever parts of the daily program they prefer, but nothing is compulsory.

Students stay in the Seabeck hotel and everyone eats his meals together in the main dining hall.
