

Sigma Delta Pi Awards Medal

Betty Jane Poindexter, Spanish major, was awarded the medal for being the advanced student to make the most progress in the year, by the Association of Teachers of Spanish. The medal was presented by Robert Knox, president of the University chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honor society, at a banquet in Gerlinger Sunday. Miss Poindexter's name will be on the national list of students all over the nation to receive this award, according to L. O. Wright, professor of Romance Languages.

'Recreation' Course Offered Seniors, Grads

Due to the demand for trained workers in recreation problems and programs which far exceeds the supply, a course in this subject will be offered next fall to senior and graduate students in any department who desire to prepare for this defense service.

The seminar, conducted by Miss Florence D. Alden, is paying particular attention to the role and needs of the volunteer and part time paid workers in defense projects. According to Miss Alden, the demand includes not only trained workers but men and women with some knowledge of the needs and a desire to work in this field.

For further information call Miss Alden, department of physical education for women, either this spring or in the fall.

The sociology department announces the awarding of the Chi Omega award to Mary Peck. This award of $25 is given annually to the woman sociology major who is deemed most worthy on the basis of scholarship, character, and promise.

Mrs. Fletcher Lynn Donates Music to UO

Mrs. Fletcher Lynn, of Portland, has donated to the music school a collection of music that "covers 60 years of her musical life." It consists of the librettos and musical scores of operatic and musical scores of operatic amount of popular music.

Mrs. Lynn, an Oregon alumna, began her musical teaching career at Oregon 50 years ago this fall, and taught for some time. She married Mr. Fletcher Lynn, a graduate of 1890, and recently celebrated her golden wedding anniversary.

The music is part of a large collection. The popular music will be valuable for background for radio programs and plays dealing with that period.

His subject was "The Value of Organizing Work in Educating for Teamwork in a Democracy."

Crowd Hails Glee Concert

An audience of 2500 turned out last Sunday evening for the last concert of the season by the Gleemen. The concert, which was their annual spring concert for the year, resulted in the fund to buy necessities for soldiers stationed in Eugene from time to time being richer by $317.39, that being the amount collected in the silver offering taken at the concert. The Gleemen were as happy over the generous offering as the audience was over the program offered by them.

This concert was the final time the Gleemen will appear together this season except for tonight. Tonight the chorus will hold its annual social finale at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth house at the First Congregational church in the form of a dessert for all its members.

Portland Baritone

Paul Schereman, Portland baritone, made his first appearance in Eugene, as soloist for the group. He was the only guest soloist on the program. Joe Keever and Wilferd Cook, popular Gleemen tenors, were warmly received by the audience for their solos.

Other highlights of the program were the Grieg number, Landsighting, sung in honor of Norway's Independence day, May 17, and the patriotic finale, the Star Spangled Banner, with a brass quartet accompanying the chorus for this number.

Members of the Women's Ambulance corps made the collection, and a group of filter center women ushered.

Co-op Refunds Start Monday

Monday morning when the doors of the Co-op store open, students can start to collect the 5 per cent rebate on the cash register receipts turned in before noon May 9.

M. F. McClain, manager of the Co-op, expects that approximately $2,500 will be returned to students before school closes. At present three people are working on the slips to add them on adding machines to determine the amount due to each student.

Several students brought their tickets in after the deadline set by the store and asked for the rebate. The Co-op board considered this at their last meeting and decided that no slips received after noon on May 9 were to be considered for the rebate.
