Intelligence Service Calls; Chester Fee 'Joins Up'

Soldier, poet, sportsman, Chester Fee, professor of English, for the second time in twenty years will leave the Oregon campus to serve his country.

Mr. Fee holds a captain's commission in the reserve division of the Intelligence. During the last war he was among those who organized the intelligence service. On one occasion a discouraged German spy attempted to kill him by shoving him down an elevator shaft. Mr. Fee survived with a broken ankle which somewhat Appled his counter - espionage work for several months.

His book, "Chief Joseph-Biography of a Great Indian," has received favorable notices in news-

Graduation

Select them at

DeNeffe's

—and you'll have that satisfying assurance that comes from choosing just the 'right' thing. May we suggest:

> Sweaters $2.50 to $10.00

Sport Shirts $1.00 to $5.00

Ties $1.00 to $1.50

Bill Folds $1.50 to $10.00

Kirsten Pipes $7.00

Hickok Jewelry $1.00 to $2.50

and many other items. Make your selection now

DeNeffe's

Your Downtown Campus Store McDonald Theater Bldg. 1022 Willamette

> We Feature Gantner Swim Trunks

papers from New York to San Francisco. To gather material for this book and several other of his works he lived among the Indians of Oregon and Washington. His latest work to be published is "Marcus Whitman — Wilderness Patriot," a drama which will be released soon.

As a member of Oregon's class of 1916, he gained fame as an athlete. He held the PNA, Far Western, and World's Indoor records for javelin, and the Northwest Collegiate record for pole

His paintings have been exhibited in Portland by the Society of Oregon Arts, and in the Oregon Exhibit.

He was one of the founders of Tabard Inn, literary honorary, and a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Moth Balls Call ROTC Khaki

R.O.T.C. students have been asked by Col. C. L. Sampson, head of the military department, to return uniforms to the ROTC storeroom in accordance with the following schedule:

Companies A and B, Friday; Companies C and E, Saturday; Companies F and G, Monday; Companies I and K, Tuesday; Company L, Wednesday. Hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Uniforms must be returned in order to clear records and insure refund of student deposits. House managers have been asked to cooperate in returning uniforms of students who have left school in the past.

Thank You

For your patronage during the past year. We have particularly enjoyed meeting and getting acquainted with you students.

See Us Next Fall

And let's renew our friendship. When you drive by our yellow and red station be sure and drop in and see us.

DANNER'S

Associated

10th & Olive Ph. 2614

BOOK

EEK

By CHUCK SULLIVAN

Ethan Allen, by Stewart Holbrook, N. Y., the Macmillan Co., 1940.

In this brief resurrection of an early American, author Holbrook shakes the dust off a figure whose personal force, vitality, and importance in American history seem to have been inadequately treated by historians.

Ethan Allen was a huge, harddrinking, courageous frontiersman, always itching for a good fight and usually getting it, fighting first against the British to win American independence, and then against the new nation to establish the independence of Ver-

Capturing Ticonderoga was only a picnic for this man who was later captured by the British and sentenced to be hanged. He secured a change of verdict by means of a clever bit of writing and was sent back to America to be held prisoner at New York until exchanged. Given a brevet colonel's commission, he returned to his beloved Green Hills to lead the fight for Vermont statehood against New York, New Hampshire, Masachusetts, and the new Congress of the United States.

Always a rebel against everything which was contrary to his personal ideas, Allen wrote dozens of letters and pamphlets and one book, popularly known as the "Oracle" (published about 1735) in which he espoused a religion of nature and common sense and condemned the religious hoodooism of Calvinism.

The adventures of Paul Bunyan hardly exceed the legends which are told of this hardy son of the Green Hills. He could bite nails in two, and it is said he drank so heavily that a rattlesnake which happened to bite him one time while he slept staggered off dead drunk.

Such tales are indicative of the style of the book, which is written with unexpected levity. However Holbrook seems in possession of sufficient knowledge to make the work fairly instructive as well as enjoyable reading. His other works include "Iron Brew" and "Holy Old Mackinaw."

Theres a Limit ---Even to Borrowing

Harry Lipsit left a brand new raincoat on a chair in Oregon hall Tuesday afternoon.

When he came back 15 minutes later the coat had been taken. He makes no special plea but a friend has requested that the person who "borrowed" the coat return it to Harry or to the lost and found office at the University depot.

Harry Lipsit is blind.

Be a Smarty

—in a perky little straw hat that perches jauntily on the side of your head.

Be Wistful

-in a fluffy little number that is veiled to give you that sweet and innocent look.

We have appreciated your patronage during the year and we'll see all you coeds again next fall.

Bonnet Nook

. . 907 Willamette

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

13th and Pearl

Sunday

Services-8 and 11 Student Canterbury Club-6:30 Third Floor, Gerlinger

Wednesday-7 a.m., Communion, Gerlinger Hall

Rev. E. S. Bartlam, Rector Phone 4606 or 4808 Miss Caroline Hines, Student Advisor Ph. 4605-J or 4808

You Can Be a

Vision of Loveliness

Joan Miller Washable Frock

made of the prettiest of summer fabrics comprising tissue gingham, seersuckers and cool sheer fabrics, in stripes and checks.

JACKET SUITS

are very popular-you will like every one of the styles we are showing. So important for the summer days ahead.

$3.95 to $5.95

JOAN MILLER WASHABLE SUMMER FROCKS

are so pretty you will want half a dozen, we're sure.

Price $2.98 to $6.95

ARA'S BEAUTY SHOP

We have enjoyed serving you throughout the year and we hope to continue in the future. Let us help you on your biggest day, graduation.

CONGRATULATIONS

MISS GRADUATE

Balcony Tiffany-Davis