

Weddings Recorded

By LORRAINE WOODS

The old saying, "When Cupid shoots his arrow, I hope he Mrs. You," certainly is appropriate for the summer weddings, because many of our students have marched up the aisle to the tune of "Here Comes the Bride."

Carol Bird, '42, said "yes" to Warren Phillips, '42, and they were married May 31, in Eugene. Carol was a member of Orides and Warren a member of Yeomen and Sigma Delta Rho. They are living in Eugene.

Blanche Gustavson, a former member of Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Lambda Theta, and Glenn Williams were married the eve of graduation, May 31, in Eugene. Blanche graduated last year, and is living in Eugene.

Marjorie Schnellbacher, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and Lieutenant George Carter, stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia, were married June 2, in Eugene. Mrs. Carter is a former member of Alpha Gamma Delta. The couple are living in Port Benning.

Vivian Pelman, who attended the University, and Richard Moshofsky were married May 29 in Portland, where they are making their home.

On June 1, Orsa Lee Toll, who attended the U. of O. and was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, wed William Thomsen at a ceremony in Portland. The couple are living in Eugene.

News to many was the marriage of Echo Tomseth, a graduate of the University and a member of Phi Mu, to William Stegner, March 3, in Goldendale, Washington. The couple are making their home in Eugene.

Helen Sutherland and Robert Potwin, both graduates of the University were married at Westminster house in Eugene on June 14. They are living in Portland.

Oregon's Margaret Kortge and Archie Zarewski became bride and groom at a ceremony in The Dalles on June 3. Margaret was a member of Sigma Kappa, and Archie a member of Phi Kappa Psi. They are living in Seattle.
