

Don Walker Tours State

Pausing just long enough to tell of his summer travels in a few clipped sentences, Don Walker, chairman of the Oregon federation, suggested that his odyssey be labelled "around the state in a suitcase," or "life from bus to bus."

Walker, representing the University, has been touring the state, lecturing on campus life and answering questions pertaining to Oregon. The questions are many and varied, Walker declared, and remembered that he was asked "what the difference was between a fraternity and sorority."

The success of so many of his meetings with future students Walker declared, depended upon the following Webfoots who arranged the meetings: Roy Seeborg, Astoria; John Busterud and

Bill Huggins, Marshfield; Virginia Wells, Oregon City; Wally Hunter, Albany; Betty Bevil and Sally Childs, Hood River; Russ Hudson, The Dalles; Betty Hoge and Paul Basche, Baker; Carolyn Cordon, Roseburg; Bob Newland, Pat Farrell, Leighton Platt, Medford; Elsie Brownell and Fred Treadgold, Grants Pass; Dave Fortmiller and Jean Frideger, Ashland; Phyllis Foster and Jim Burness, Klamath Falls; Jeff Kitchen and Janet Farnham, Bend; Bud Vandeneynde and Mary Jane Simmons, Salem.

Anderson Appointed

Les Anderson, ASUO president, will take on the additional duties of Oregon federation director for the rest of the summer.

Anderson will succeed Don

Walker, graduate law student, who handled the position until his induction into the army Wednesday, August 12.

Several trips throughout the state are planned by the new director including meetings at Salem, Roseburg, and the Jantzen beach picnic August 31.

Also tentatively scheduled by Anderson are tours to McMinnville, Lakeview, and coastal cities.
