

Cards Admit to Navy Game

Athletic Sale Gives $30 for $9

Admission to the naval air school game on September 26 will be included on the student athletic card, according to an announcement by Oge Young, chairman of the drive. A booth will be set up by the student entrance gate at Multnomah stadium in Portland the forenoon and afternoon of the game, Young stated.

The student athletic card offers $30 worth of athletic entertainment for $9 plus federal tax. It guarantees entrance into every home and Portland contest in every sport, varsity and frosh, played by the University. In addition there is a reduction of $1.50 on the ticket to the Oregon State fray at Corvallis.

$12 for $3.30

As an example of the value of the athletic card, consider the football season. Joe and Josephine Webfoot pay $3.30 for this period, including the federal tax. That price entitles them to admission to the Idaho game, $1.65;

the UCLA Homecoming game, $1.65; the Washington game at Portland, $2.50; the St. Marys Naval air school game at Portland, $2.20; a $1.50 reduction on the $2.50 traditional "big game" with OSC at Corvallis; and a tentatively scheduled game with Willamette on October 17 for $1.10. The frosh games with the OSC Rooks at Portland and here for 75 cents apiece rounds out the home schedule.

Basketball includes the eight northern division home games, numerous practice tilts, and the freshman games. The swim schedule is also during winter term and Oregon's coast championship swim club are at home against some of the top California schools and Oregon and Washington State.

Hobby's Boys Free

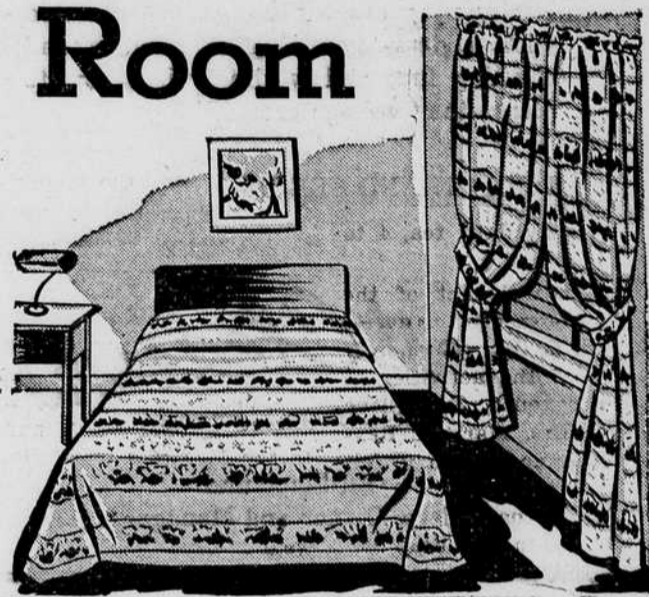

Baseball has eight home games with conference opponents. Hobby's champs are winners of the last six out of nine years.

Venerable Bill Hayward's track and field artists are also on tap for the spring term period.

YOU'LL LIVE In Your Room

Let your room express your personality. The drapes and gaily covered chairs that you choose yourself will make your room 'home' for the school year. You'll find scatter rugs, book cases and cheerful pictures to suit your fancy, too.
