

Two Campus Weddings Highlight Fall Season

Betty Jane Biggs became Mrs. Ray Schrick at a beautiful white wedding September 13 at St. Johns Episcopal church in Marysville, Cal., with Rev. Carl Tamblin officiating. The bride wore a white net gown, fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white orchids, tuberose and bavardia. Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Dudley Blanchard, who wore blue jersey and gold tiera. Maids of honor Betty Morrison and Eleanor Walfskill wore pink marquisette with shoulder veils.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Claude V. Biggs. Best man was J. Wesley Sullivan. Ushers were Bill George, Brooks Cassidy, J. Wesley Sullivan, Dudley Blanchard and Walt Ulrey. Other Oregon guests included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Timmen, and Don Walker. A reception followed the wedding at the Biggs home.

Mrs. Schrick is business manager of the Emerald and her husband, editor in chief. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, and the groom, Delta Tau Delta.

The latest Emerald wedding was held at St. Marys Episcopal church in Eugene when Ruby Jackson became the bride of Bob Frazier at a candlelight ceremony Sunday. Miss Jackson was married in a gown of cream satin and an heirloom veil. Her bridesmaid, Francelle Jackson, wore a floor length white dress. Ted Goodwin was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Jackson.

The bride was affiliated with Chi Omega. The groom was prominent on the Emerald, and was employed during the summer on the Aberdeen Daily World. He will leave for the army soon. Mrs. Frazier will work in Portland.

More than 1,500 University of Michigan students are receiving military training.

What's New For School

An apple for the teacher . . . new clothes for the kiddies . . . Betty Biggs Schrick and Pat Bowers are rivals in their red red corduroy suits . . . those dependable plaids are again at the top of the list for campus wear . . . Lois Hulser's gray-blue silk plaid skirt is just the thing for warm 1 o'clocks.

Monogrammed initials this year adorn the sweater sleeves . . . Palamyra Paladini sports her nickname on a brown cashmere sweater . . . and of course jewelry plays an important part in the coed's life . . . the newest creations in silver are the handmade Mexican rings with bracelets to match . . . KJ Jenkins and Mary Riley are adorned with two of the biggest handmade rings on the campus.

And, of course, fashions wouldn't be complete without mention of pledge dance formals . . . Connie Fullmer was new in heavy white unbleached muslin formal skirt decorated with crayola flowers . . . worn with a sheer white blouse . . . Barbara Younger stunned them in one of the latest peg-top dresses for evening wear . . . a black crepe formal with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves . . . Doris Chapter boosted the new elbow-length sleeved dinner dress . . . with a top of white silk jersey and a skirt of white net . . . plus tons of sequins . . .

Again the gals are reverting to the men's fashions for new ideas in campus clothes . . . Beverly Haeheim flashes an adoption of men's sporty shirts . . . long sizes preferred in this . . . and colored suspenders for high waisted skirts are being featured . . .

Dear Diary

Tomorrow eve we'll whip back from the game instead of the usual Jantzen evening for the annual Hello dance which is being held in the Igloo at 8 o'clock. Mary Bentley, social chairman, says "campus clothes" is the official fashion word for the informal hop. So few musicians made naval reserves or advanced military that the dance committee bought scads of new records for the occasion.

Holmer Elected 'Y' Secretary

The advisory board of the University of Oregon YMCA has elected A. F. Holmer, general secretary of the Eugene YMCA, to serve as executive secretary of the student association. The headquarters of both units are at the same location and Mr. Holmer will serve concurrently as the executive officer of each group.

Mr. Holmer announced that plans for the University YMCA would get under way at once and that the appointment of an associate secretary for student activities would be announced later. Peter Howard, Eugene, president of the student YMCA cabinet will direct the summer program.

Dan Bacot, who has served as secretary of the University Y during the past year, will soon leave Eugene for Berkeley, California, where he will continue his studies at the Church Divinity school of the Pacific.
