Victory Bell Considered For Victory Scrap Pile

By BOB EDWARDS

Big noise and little noise added together make bigger noise. Bells, don't you hear them bells . . . if the vote goes right today the Oregon victory bell may be consigned to the scrap heap according to the Sigma Nus. The Tri Delt will bring along the cowbells they collected in their travels in the rural districts of the county . . . the only thing the farmer wouldn't let them take was the watering trough.

Sig Kaps, Alpha Hall Photos Billed Today

Alpha hall and Sigma Kappa are slated for Oregon photos today, according to Editor J. Wes Sullivan.

Signs Conform To War Effort

Oregon's men and women living organizations will have a new requirement to win the Homecoming sign contest this year. Bill Lilly, chairman, announced Thursday that signs should promote America's all-out war effort as well as the official 1942 slogan.

Also in keeping with the national war effort is the limiting of funds to be spent on this year's signs. As yet, the exact amount has not been designated, but the announcement will appear in a later issue of the Emerald.

Because of the difficulty in obtaining materials, it is going to take more planning, more work, and more originality than ever before, to make this year's signs as successful as those of preceding years, the chairman pointed out.

For this reason Lilly would like each house to appoint its sign chairman, and be ready to start work as soon as the slogan is chosen.

Last year's sign contest winners were Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Chi.

AAA Faculty Member Directs Housing Plan

Another faculty member answering the demands of national defense is Harlow E. Hudson, instructor in architecture, who is directing a defense housing project in Seattle.

Mr. Hudson has been given a six-weeks' leave of absence in order to work on the project.

Similar construction in Portland occupied his attention during the summer months.

Radio Workshop Broadcasts Drama

The Radio Workshop will present at 7:45 tonight on KOAC, a drama entitled "The Key," directed by Kenneth S. Wood.

Members of the cast are: Arliss Boone, Pat Howard, Louise Rossman, Mary Plowman, Rose Mary Sloane, and Jane Baker. Sound effects are handled by Bob Mundt, Jean Taylor, Wilma Foster, and Elaine Jackson.

The story concerns the adventures of a new nurse at a private hospital for the insane.

The University of Texas has opened new engineering buildings this semester.

Automobiles of ancient vintage are being supplied from all sources but the Phi Sigma Kappa lads have a wrecking lot in their back yard. The Sigma Chis released a story about their scrap heap. They say that nine girls in three cars attempted to borrow a portion of their hoard. We won't mention any names, but it is spelled with three Ds.

The ADPis made the supreme sacrifice by giving up their and-irons . . . their first scrap pile was given to the downtown scrap drive by their housemother. The Chi Psi pledges claim to have a locomotive cornered on the top of a hill . . . all they have to do is figure out how to bring it home. A locomotive whistle would liven up the noise parade. Theta Chi sent out a crew of black boys at 2 a.m. in driving rain to gather the mortal remains of an automobile . . . what price glory?

The housing projects should contact Len Barde . . . the plumbing shortage could be remedied by the collections of bathtubs about the campus . . . Fiji claims to have the corner on the market . . . Canard club has one which came over on the ark . . . as yet no bathtub has been occupied when collected.

Prep Papers Arrive For Contest Judgment

Entries in the annual high school press contest are arriving at the school of journalism and a faculty-student committee has begun judging them, according to Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism.

Each paper is analyzed from the standpoint of news coverage, news writing, editorials, features, balance, and typography. The committee furnishes each school with an evaluation of its entry, outlining its good and bad points.

Best all around paper will be presented a cup, as will also the best paper in schools with less than 500 students, over 500 students, best monthly or bi-monthly mimeographed sheet, best weekly mimeographed paper, and best news stories in local papers.

Dr. Clarence E. Ayres, University of Texas, says a sales tax is bad at all times.

ISA Budget Requirement Met By Levy.

Every independent on the campus was assessed 10 cents to make up the year's ISA budget at the first senate meeting of the term in Chapman hall yesterday. Funds are to be used in promotion of independent social and political interests.

One of the first expenses of the term was the purchase of file cards to be used in organizing a "talent bank" to encourage interested students to participate in activities. All independents may fill out cards which are to be filed in the ISA office in McArthur court and made available to anyone during the office hours of 3 to 4 p.m. Cards may be obtained from local senators.

Larsen Remarks

Commenting on the emphasis ISA is placing on activities this year, Al Larsen, president, remarked, "The only way to further one's position in campus life is to work with and for committees, groups, and organizations."

The following committees were appointed to consider initial ISA activities.

Committees

Agenda: Doris Jones, Margaret Davis, Ivan Kerschman, Jerry Quick, Harold Brevig, and Bill Murray. War activity: Aaron Jones, Jane Webster, Dan Beyer, and Keith Claycomb. Constitutional: Malcolm MacCauley, Jean Mellis, and Hugh Muir.

Betty Ann Keup of Susan Campbell was elected secretary. Thursday at 4 p.m. every two weeks was chosen as the temporary meeting date.

Gifts to University of Michigan in 1940-41 totaled $1,613,562.
