Rally Result-No Vocalists

Pianists, yes, but no vocalists. That's the way things stand at the University school of music at present. For although the school of music is known to contain a number of good vocalists in all ranges of the human voice, none have yet been found suitably recovered from the noise parade to fill the vacancy on the student series of radio concerts over KOAC tonight at 7:30.

"They've all got colds or sore throats or something," complained Sigurd Nilssen, professor of voice, while explaining the vacancy. "I'm afraid that after the Homecoming rally I'll have to close my studio for a week."

As yet the school of music has made no plans as to how to fill the vacancy. According to Professor George S. Hopkins, director of the concerts, a suitable substitution will be made.

Asiatic Linguists Needed by OWI

The teacher placement service of the school of education received word Monday from the office of war information, San Francisco, California, stating that they will require "from time to time the services of writers, translators and announcers able to handle various programs broadcast in languages and dialects of the Far East." They are particularly interested in "persons residing on the west coast, unless they possess outstanding qualifications which would warrant their traveling from a long distance."

Those interested are urged to communicate with Miss Ida M. Pope at the teacher placement service.

Phi Thetas Show UO Life to Coeds

Campus life as the Phi Thetas know it was portrayed Tuesday in Gerlinger hall at their first assembly for freshman women this Freshmen watched the junior women's honorary members fingerprint a social paragon of 4-F draft classifications for the reserve corps, and culminate their annual doughnut sale by consuming non-existent profits. They finished with a skit showing their Red Cross program to help fighting men by sewing on their long flannels for winter.

Sketchy Review

"You are listening to William Wetwash, the lyric falsetto," announced Bob Mundt and Keith Hoppes in their version of a day at a radio station. It included a "good-will program of the north and south for non-music lovers," a sketchy review of Carmen, and choice commercials.

Gene Lea and his quintet furnished the swing, with Ruthie Barton vocalizing.

Phi Theta Upsilon gives an assembly every term for freshman women to acquaint them with all phases of University life, according to Marge Curtis, president. She remarked that the assembly next term is intended to acquaint women with the outstanding men on the campus, such as the heads of honoraries.

Participants

Persons participating in skits follow:

Fingerprinting skit: Barbara Lamb, Beverly Goetz, and Helen Johnson; doughnut skit: Mary Bentley, Mickey Mitchell, and Miki Campbell; Red Cross skit: Rohda Harkson, Sue Sawyer, and Mary Jane Terry.

Joanne Nichols and Janet Ross were co-chairmen of the program.

David Stone Receives ADS Honorary Plaque

David K. Stone, junior in art and architecture, has been awarded an honorable mention plaque by Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising honorary, for his painting entered in last spring's collegiate advertising contest.

The painting, portraying the vital role of war savings stamps, was entered along with other advertising media by the local ADS chapter in the contest whose theme was centered around the nation's war effort. All copy and illustrations were prepared by members of the honorary under the direction of Fred O. May, former business manager of the Emerald. These also received honorable mention.

COURAGE COMES IN ENVELOPES

Being apart from familiar surroundings and loved ones is a trial; it saps morale. But all that is erased—the day is bright and the job is light—when letters arrive daily, penned in familiar handwriting! That's a Sheaffer pen's duty in this war.

Sheaffer's "TRIUMPH" is the newest *Lifetime pen. We began developing it four years before the entry of the United States into war. At that time "TRIUMPH" was undergoing final rigorous tests by land and sea. It has been sold throughou? 1942. Fortunately, practically all of the materials in "TRIUMPH" are of least critical nature . . Men and women in all walks of life will value this
