

Draper, Adler Initiate Oregon Concert Series

Draper and Adler, talented tap dance and harmonica team, who will appear in the University's first 1942-43 Greater Artist concert series on Monday, November 16, include in their program several different and entertaining acts.

Paul Draper, the tap dancer of the team, is his own choreographer and has created an individual style of the dance,

Beard Brawl Heads Named

(Continued from page one)

be held either Friday or Saturday in front of the College Side.

Entertainment at the dance will consist of presentation of the winners of the beard-growing contest and Betty Coed and Joe College titles.

Winner Shaved

Each men's living organization will have one representative in the beard contest, and the winner will be selected at the dance by a committee of campus barbers, who will shave the winner and present him a shaving cup.

Candidates for Betty Coed and Joe College will meet Thursday with a committee who will narrow the list down to four men and women. Couples attending the dance will select the winners by ballot, and each will be presented a trophy.

Beard Brain Trust

The committee for the Whiskerino, now making final plans for the annual sophomore class dance, consists of Bryce Sidesinger, general chairman; Bob Henderson, sophomore class president; Harry Glickman and Bob Aiken, publicity; Phyllis Horstmann, tickets; Hal Brevig, entertainment; Gaynor Thompson, decorations and program; Virginia Campbell, patrols and refreshments; and Jim Popp, high sheriff.

Tickets are now on sale in all men's living organizations at $1.10. They can also be purchased in the educational activities office.

Heathman Appointed To Wednesday Ad Post

The appointment of Dwayne Heathman as Wednesday advertising manager was announced Tuesday by Betty Biggs Schrick, business manager.

Heathman is a freshman journalist from Cour d'Alene, Idaho, where he was co-editor of the high school paper White Pine, and worked on the White Pine advertising staff. He is a member of the University band.

Another change in the advertising staff was the appointment of John Jensen to replace Russ Smelser as Tuesday advertising manager.

All-Campus Vespers Scheduled for Sunday

First all-campus vespers service this year will take place Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the music auditorium, with students, members of the faculty, and townspeople invited.

Theme of this first service will be "The Enduring God" with Genevieve Working and Alice Golden in charge of the program. Organ music will be played by Laurie Pratt and one special number is being planned.

Committee members planning this service will be announced later this week. Vespers are being planned for the last Sunday of each month this year.

Prep Editors Convene Here On Friday

(Continued from page one)
be housed at the various living organizations.

The conference will open with a general session at 9:30 a.m. in 12 Friendly hall during which members will be welcomed by Dr. Earl M. Pallett, executive secretary of the University, and Les Anderson, student body president. Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, will speak on "The High School Paper in Wartime," to be followed by a round-table discussion on "How the High School Papers Have Been Meeting Their Wartime Problems." New officers will be elected for the 1943 session at this time.

Friday afternoon's session will be divided into several groups, the business manager's round-table, with W. F. G. Thacher, professor of advertising, presiding; section for editors and managers of annuals, with J. Wesley Sullivan, editor the Oregonian, presiding; the news and editorial section, with Warren Braun, president of OHSPA, presiding.

Announcement of election results and introduction of new officers will take place Friday evening at a banquet to be held in the Osburn hotel. An informal program is slated for the evening's entertainment.

Saturday morning's meeting will be divided into three divisions, the mimeographed paper section, the news and editorial section and the final general session, at which awards will be presented to the outstanding high school papers. During the afternoon the delegates will be the guests of the ASUO for the football game at Hayward field between Oregon and Idaho.

Mrs. Wilson Relates

At a meeting of the house-mothers Monday afternoon, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson of Hilyard house, gave a talk on her experiences in Honolulu during the Pearl Harbor attack.

while Larry Adler, the harmonica player, is equally talented, having appeared as soloist with eight leading symphony orchestras in the United States and with the London Philharmonic and Sydney (Australia) symphony orchestras.

Program Listed

Their complete program which will be presented to the people of Eugene as well as University students, contains an extensive list of varied numbers.

I. 1st Movement from Concerto in A (J. S. Bach); Sicilienna (J. S. Bach); 1st movement from oboe quartet (W. A. Mozart). Mr. Adler.

II. Capriccio (D. Scarlatti); Minuet (G. F. Handel); Gavotte (A. Thomas); Toccata (P. Paradies). Mr. Draper.

III. Intermezzo from Goyescas (E. Granados); Fandanguillo (F. Torroba); 3rd movement from the concerto for harmonica (J. Berger). Mr. Adler.

IV. Asturias (I. Albeniz); The Blue Danube Waltz (J. Strauss); Dance Without Music. Mr. Draper.

V. Duet: Malaguena (E. Lecuona). Paul Draper and Larry Adler.

Intermission.

VI. Two Russian war songs arranged by Larry Adler. Fire dance from El Amor Drujo (M. de Falla); Rhapsody in Blue (G. Gershwin). Larry Adler.

VII. Golliwog's Cake-Walk (C. Debussy); Blues in the Night (J. Mercer); Old-fashioned folk medley. Mr. Draper.

VIII. Ad lib duet: Mr. Draper and Mr. Adler.

Town and Gown Meets

The YWCA town and gown group will meet this afternoon at 4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. E. E. DeCou for an informal talk. All YW members are invited, especially those who have indicated the town and gown as a special interest on their YW activity interest card.

Leslie Brockelbank is chairman of this group and is especially encouraging girls to come to this meeting.

Mrs. DeCou's address is 929 Hilyard.

ARE YOU BOTHERED BY A COLD?

Try our Resistance Method with Vitamins

Consult us for all your drug needs.

S&H Green Stamps on all but fair trade mdse.

RITE PRICE DRUGS, INC.

Next Door to BROADWAY, INC. Phone 2.

Pom-Poms Go On Sale Wednesday, Thursday

Orders for pom-poms for Oregon's victory-over-Idaho campaign will be taken Wednesday and Thursday in each women's living organization by members of Kwama, sophomore honorary.

Pom-poms will also be available at a booth in front of the College Side Wednesday and Thursday. Students may choose between yellow with green trimming or green with yellow, at the usual price of 30 cents.

"All girls ought to buy pom-poms because they are going to be used in a stunt at the game with Idaho Saturday," emphasized Clint Paine, rally squad chairman.

Order deadline is Thursday evening, and the rally squad will deliver pom-poms Friday afternoon. Phyllis Horstman is chairman of the sale.

Bill Farrell Heads Men's Honorary

Bill Farrell, junior in business administration, was elected president of Druids, junior men's honorary, at a meeting of the group Tuesday night.

Plans for activities during the school year were made, and the Druids' part in the campus effort was discussed. Orientation of freshmen, especially in connection with freshman elections next term, was also discussed.

Other officers will be elected later in the term.

UO-WSC Pix Shown

Football fans have been invited to see a play-by-play showing of the Oregon-Washington games Thursday in 207 Chapman at 7:30. Clint Paine, rally squad chairman, announced Tuesday.

The pictures will be shown for the benefit of students unable to attend the game, as well as to enable them to study the technique and plays in detail. After the showing, open discussion and questions will follow.

"Everyone is urged to come and let the team know they are behind them," Paine said last night.

House Signs To Feature Homecoming

(Continued from page one)

"Full speed ahead" on uncovering their alums in the armed service, is the advice of Mathews to all men's living organizations who are entering the alumni service contest which opened Friday, October 16.

Badminton Club

The Badminton club will meet tonight at 7:30 in Gerlinger hall, and all students and members of the faculty interested in the game are invited to attend, according to Betty Bush, newly elected secretary of the organization.

Tonight's meeting will feature a coke party.

Dick Woodward, who recently completed his junior-year competition on the Colorado university football squad, never played football until he enrolled at C. U.

Joe Squires, star end for the Duquesne university football team has completed his CAA flying course and obtained a private pilot's license.

FOUL PIPE NE'ER WON FAIR MAID

-but Dan's out of the dog house now!

"TAKE YOUR OLD RING and go far, far away! You're finished with college. You're finished with men who smoke smelly pipes! My heart says yes, but my nose says plew! Good-bye!"

SO DAN REFORMED. He switched to Sir Walter, the mild blend of fragrant burleys. His girl took one sniff... smiled... and snuggled. Ever tried a tin? Swell for moonlight and noses!

KEEP OUT OF THE DOG HOUSE WITH SIR WALTER

NOVEMBER 1st

Is the last day to mail Christmas gifts to the boys over seas.

WHAT TO SEND?

- BOOKS
- PIPES
- TOBACCO
- FOUNTAIN PENS
- PENCILS
- CIGARETTES
- PLAYING CARDS

GET THEM AT THE CO-OP

University 'CO-OP'