

Alum Dance Slated Formal

(Continued from page one)

men in the Side Tuesday at 4:50. Lilly urges every house participating in the contest to have its chairman present.

Rules for the Homecoming sign contest have been formulated by Lilly and his committee, Jim Prir, Nancy Ames, Maxine Marsh, and Ed Atiyeh. These rules are: (1) All signs to be considered by the judges must be officially entered with the contest chairman by 12 noon November 6. All entries must include itemized expense accounts for all material spent on the sign, a brief description of the sign which will enable the judges in making their decision, the name of the living organization and signature of that organization's sign. (2) All signs must be completely finished by 6 p.m. November 6, and judging will take place from 7-9 that night. The judges' decision will be announced at the Homecoming dance. (3) No house will be allowed to spend more than fifteen dollars, including all expenses, to portray their interpretation of "The Home Fires Are Burning."

Adrian Relates

(Continued from page one)

messman, known to Adrian only as "French," stripped off his clothing, tied a line about his waist, and plunged into the shark-infested waters.

For six hours the Negro swam on in spite of Adrian's warnings of the danger, but the messman only responded, "I'm gonna tow this old crate in. Just keep telling me if I'm going the right way," related the ensign.

Rescue Effected

Six hours later they were sighted by a naval barge. Adrian was given immediate hospitalization, but never saw his rescuer again.

Ensign Adrian came here in 1938 and stayed until the conclusion of his sophomore year in 1940. He went to Annapolis and was a member of the graduating class of 1942, being commissioned an ensign at that time. His home is in Ontario.

Gifts totaling nearly $100,000 were received by the board of regents of the University of Minnesota at a recent meeting.

—Courtesy the Oregonian

A NUMBER OF RARE VOLUMES . . . of music from the old masters have been added to the University School of Music library through a gift by the local chapter of Phi Beta, national music honorary. Admiring the collection from left are: Ruth Baker, Mary Bentley, Arnold Elston, assistant professor of music, seated; Dean Theodore Kratt, Marilyn Campbell, Dean Forbes, and Constance Riddell.

Seminar to Hear Dutch Biochemist

Dr. W. J. van Wagtenonk, distinguished Dutch biochemist, who is now assistant professor of biochemistry at Oregon State college, will be guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the chemistry seminar.

Dr. van Wagtenonk spent several years in the Dutch East Indies, later attending the University of Utrecht in Holland, where he obtained his doctor's degree in chemistry. He carried out extensive research work at Stanford university and came to Oregon State in the autumn of 1941 in order to assist Dr. Rosalind Wulzen, formerly of the University.

Wulzen and van Wagtenonk worked on a research project trying to isolate and identify an anti-neuritis principle which is most likely a new vitamin.

Dr. van Wagtenonk's subject in his talk before the chemistry seminar will be "On the Trail of

Survey Taken Of Supplies

A poll of campus and the surrounding district was taken Friday afternoon to determine the number of available rooms, blankets, and all materials for feeding and housing casualties during an air raid. Mary Jane Terry is in charge of the committee of 14 who have divided the area into eight units, from Alder street to Emerald street and from Eleventh street to Eighteenth street. Miss Terry explained that queries were made at all private homes and campus buildings.

Members of the committee are Connie Crockett, Betty Clarke, Gloria Mulloy, Marianne Lynch, Ardis Jensen, Marguerite Lasli, Florence Hamilton, Jenny Lou Flynn, Charlene Pelly, Marsha Cokran, Flora Kibler, Dorothy Fridiger, Emy Lou Fargo, and Pat Farrell.

a New Vitamin," in which he will present the results of his research. The meeting is slated to begin at 4:15 p.m. in room 103,

Caper Girls

(Continued from page one)

gene women won't be reequipped to arrive in costume, although they may if they wish.

"Everyone's so secretive about their costumes," Mary laughed, "that we can't tell anything about them yet, except that they'll probably fit in with the theme, 'The Swing Shifts to Women'."

Collection Depots

(Continued from page one)

rule against donating more than one pack.

Appointments Made

Marion Schaefer, Betty Bevil, and Flora Hamilton have been appointed to the main committee. Other appointments will be made over the weekend.

The representatives will take the day's total collection to the USO headquarters every evening for the counts to be made. The number in the collections will be published during the drive. The Homecoming dance Saturday night is the final chance to donate, after which results will be published according to houses.

The average coed wears a size 14 dress.

R. Farrell Enters Secretarial Race

Robert S. Farrell, Jr., speaker of the Oregon house of representatives, is the Republican candidate for secretary of state.

Farrell served in the house of representatives in the 1935 special session and the regular sessions of 1939 and 1941. It was in the latter session that he was selected by the membership of the house to preside as speaker, the position he now occupies.

Farrell is married, has two young daughters, and is a home owner. He is a member of a pioneer Oregon family, was born in Portland, and was educated in public schools, Hill military academy, University of Washington and the Northwestern College of Law.

"Where to From Here?" Asks Religious Forum

"Where do we go from here—and how," a continued discussion on the concern of young people about their immediate national and personal future, will occupy the student discussion group at Westminster house Sunday from 6:30 to 7:30.

Subject matter to be covered will be determined by the ideas offered by twenty campus leaders who attended a recent YMCA banquet for the purpose of planning an activity program. At the meeting the trend of talk developed into a consideration of practical ways for young people to attack the problems of society.

Constance Injured

Clifford L. Constance, assistant registrar, injured his leg while playing handball last Tuesday and has not returned to work since that time.

W. M. Kiplinger, noted Washington observer, is a graduate of Ohio State university.

Addition, Subtraction Constant at Infirmary

Accidents added to Friday's infirmary casualty list. Patty Van Hoosier and Richard Anderson were admitted.

Enduring and doing their not so feeble best to liven things up a little are Adele Canada, Katherine Ross, Morton Rickhart, Jim Sherbert, Bob Tramp, and Leon Benveniste.

Fred Callison and Fritz Giesecke were dismissed Friday.

Roanoke college, Salem, Va., recently celebrated its one-hundredth anniversary.

"Yes siree...
That Extra Something!"

"Ice-cold Coca-Cola is more than thirst-quenching. Yes siree. It's refreshing. There's an art in its making. There's know-how in its production. The only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola itself. Nobody else can duplicate it."

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO. OF EUGENE

A COMING EVENT CASTS ITS

TOMMY DORSEY