

Penny Parade
Hits Road Saturday—
See Page 2

OREGON Daily EMERALD

IM Volleyball
Gets Under Way—
See Page 4

VOLUME XLIV

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1942

NUMBER 31

Penny Parade Marches at Game Saturday; SDX-Emerald Co-sponsor Service Flag

Fags Destined for Local Men

USO to Hold Festivities For Departing Draftees

Contrary to public opinion, only a small percentage of the cigarettes collected for the USO drive will be sent to Camp Adair, Rohda Harkson, chairman of the drive, said today. They will be given to draftees from Eugene and the immediate vicinity, she explained.

Draft parties for the men leaving will be given to encourage them and let them know that the students are behind them, she said. November 7 has been scheduled for the first of the parties, when 30 draftees will leave.

All collection boxes now in campus living organizations will be collected tonight at 6 o'clock and taken to USO headquarters,

ROHDA HARKSON . . .

... chairman of the UO cigarette drive, who is urging all students to "Buy a Pack for a Buddy."

where they will be counted. The total number of cigarettes for the three days will be published Saturday morning with a list of the houses that have gone 100 per cent.

Dancers Give

Saturday evening Miss Harkson will place a consignment of cigarettes on sale during the Homecoming dance. It will be the last donation box of the drive.

Miss Harkson explained that
(Please turn to page eight)

Publisher Ellsworth Goes to Washington

Harrison Ellsworth, Roseburg newspaper publisher, was elected to the house of representatives on the Republican ticket in the election Tuesday. The successful candidate is an Oregon alum.

Ellsworth was elected from the newly-created fourth Congressional district which gives Oregon six seats in congress.

In 1922 he was graduated from the University. He majored in journalism and was active in campus affairs, being business manager of the Emerald.

Friday's Rally To Honor Alums

University life as it was in 1900, 1916, 1928 and now in 1942 will inspire part of the combined radio-rally show Friday night when Earle Russell takes over as master of ceremonies and students get a view of the campus in retrospect.

To carry out the backward look students and alums will be entertained by a special quintet singing popular songs of the past, according to Fred Beckwith, chairman of the radio-rally.

Athletics

Sports will take a featured place on the program beginning at 7:20 p.m. with the Saturday game getting its due share of publicity as Coach John Warren and Assistant Coach Manny Vezie take the spotlight. Several Oregon varsity players will see action in the show, as well as some of the UCLA Bruins and their coach, Babe Horrell.

H. Gregory, sports editor of the Oregonian, may appear on the broadcasts. In case he is unable to be present, the two Associated sports announcers who will give the radio account of the game Saturday will take part in the show.

Lively Script

Script writers Ted Harmon, Joe Miller, Keith Hoppes and Bob Mundt were still busy late Wednesday night putting the final touches on the radio-rally which promises to be one of the most
(Please turn to page eight)

Y Campaigns For New Men

At a luncheon Wednesday noon the YMCA advisory board informed 13 delegates to the men's living groups on the campus of their duties during the organization's November membership drive. Pete Howard, president of the advisory board, presided.

Delegates chosen were Harry Sturges, Jack Malcolm, Hal Dallke, Al Howard, Bob Mickey, Fred Rugh, Malcolm McCallum, Ken Lomax, Bert Dotson, Ralph Dotson, Ralph Johnson, Dan Potter, Harry Johnson, and Ivan Kirschman. These delegates will visit the houses assigned to them and announce the drive to the members. Agents will be appointed in each house to distribute YMCA material and receive memberships.

In addition to the drive being carried on in the living groups, Hal Dallke, chairman of the drive, has announced that Ted Rutledge will be in charge of poster publicity.

Houses to Meet Own Alums; No Special Bus Available

By ROBERTA BOYD

Because of lack of transportation facilities, all houses are urged to meet their own alums, according to an announcement Wednesday by Pat Palmer, hospitality chairman. It is impossible to get a special bus to meet all the trains with the tire shortage.

A schedule of arriving trains is as follows:

Friday—4:57 from the south, 8:38 p.m. north, 11:34 p.m. north.
Saturday—1:23 a.m. north, 1:48 a.m. north, 4:09 a.m. south, 9:46 a.m. south, 12:13 p.m. south, 12:35 p.m. north.

Begin Friday

Homecoming festivities will begin Friday with a speech by Chairman Pat Cloud at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

(Please turn to page eight).

Prejudice

I'm not quite all out for this cigarette drive,

My reason is not one of malice, It's just that I don't like the thought of my fags

Ending up on the streets of Corvallis.
—J.W.S.

Emerald Says 'Sorry'

The Emerald presents its apologies to Bill Goldstein, Emerald photographer, for neglecting to give him by-line credit for photographs published recently.

Kwamas Close Orders For Pom Pons Tonight

The deadline for buyers of pom pons has been set for tonight, according to Clint Paine, rally squad chairman. Orders are being taken in all women's living organizations by Kwamas.

Pom pons will be delivered by rally squad members Friday.

Honoraries Collect Coppers; Flag Adds Star for Each Hero

By G. DUNCAN WIMPRESS

With a gold-starred service flag as their final objective, Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalism honorary, will join hands with the Emerald to sponsor a "Parade of Pennies" at the Homecoming game Saturday afternoon.

Milk bottles will be passed through the stands before the kickoff and spectators are asked to contribute pennies to the flag fund.

Soldiers' Fag Drive Hits Thousand Mark

Last count on the number of packages of cigarettes turned into the "Fag Drive" totaled 1120 Wednesday night, according to Norma Trevorrow, publicity director for the campus war effort. Goal to be reached Thursday, the last day of the drive, is 3000 packs.

Noted Chinese Schedules Talk

Dr. Zing Yank Kuo, Chinese scientist and educator, will be guest speaker at an assembly scheduled for Thursday, November 12, in McArthur court, with all students, faculty members and townspeople invited.

Arriving in Eugene Wednesday evening, November 11, the Chinese doctor will be on the campus Thursday and Friday for his main all-campus assembly and several lectures to clubs and local organizations.

Recently returned from China and a short visit in England, Dr. Kuo is now traveling in the United States on a lecture tour. While in England the professor of psychology delivered a series of lectures to leading English universities at the invitation of the Universities of China committee in London.

Navy, Marine, Air Corps Opens Offices Today

Procurement boards representing the navy, marines, and army air corps opened offices today on the campus for a short stay during which men will be enlisted in the reserve classes of the service arms the boards represent. The army enlisted reserve maintains a permanent office in room 2, commerce.

Navy and Marines

Men who are interested in the navy or marine reserves should report to room 143, physical education, when they have their papers completed. The combined navy and marine board will be here for ten days, November 5 through 14, during which they will make final enlistments in all classes except navy V-5.

First Physical

V-5 aspirants will be given a preliminary physical here and if this is successfully passed they will be sent to Seattle, expenses paid, to be finally enlisted.

Army Air Corps

Would-be army flyers should

The flag will hang in front of Johnson hall and a gold star will be added for each alum killed in action during the war.

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, Druids, junior men's honorary, Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, and Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, will pass the milk bottles and take charge of collecting the pennies.

Chairmen

Russ Hudson, Sigma Delta Chi president, and Ray Schrick, Emerald editor, are general co-chairmen of the drive.

Any extra funds which may remain after the flag is bought will go into the Service Scholarship fund for students who will return to school after the war.

Meet at 1:30

Members of the five honoraries are asked to meet on their respective sides of the field at 1:30 Saturday afternoon, each equipped with a milk bottle. Druids, Kwamas and Skull and Dagger men will meet on the west side at gate three while Phi Thetas and Mortarboards will meet at gate twelve on the east side.

The milk bottles will be passed just before game time.

The service flag will have a white center surrounded by a red border which in turn is surrounded by a blue border. The gold stars will be mounted on the white background.

Brains Count

The mental exam will be given at 8:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. It will take a full three hours to complete.

Enlisted Reserve

Men contemplating enlistment in the enlisted reserve corps should see Lieut. R. G. Davis in room 2, commerce, where a permanent board is established.