

Final Touches Added to Mural

Adding finishing touches to the mural he began last spring is Mr. David J. McCosh of the art and architecture school, assistant professor of drawing and painting.

The mural, done by Mr. McCosh by commission of the federal section of fine arts, will be installed in the post office of Beresford, South Dakota this winter. The professor will supervise the installation.

Subject matter of the mural is a farm scene typical of the farms in the Beresford district. The painting is approximately 8 feet by 20 feet.

As described by Mr. Andrew M. Vincent, professor of drawing and painting, the color tone of the work is fairly high. He also explained that color was employed structurally as well as decoratively by the artist and that it was used in such a way as to show the vigor of the scene it portrayed.

This is the fourth mural that Mr. McCosh has done. One is in Kelso, Washington, and the other two are in the building of the department of the interior in Washington, D. C.

Stovall Recommends CPT Glider Training

James C. Stovall, coordinator of civilian pilot training, highly recommends the glider corps to college men interested in CPT instruction. Men who complete advanced glider training with the air corps are assured a staff sergeant's rating as the lowest status.

"Glider training gives thorough preparation for glider work and also for power plane service, and it offers the most rapid advancement of any branch of the service," reports Stovall.

Thirty-one graduates of Detroit and other Wayne county high schools have been awarded Detroit board of education undergraduate at Wayne university for the current school year.

Miss M. M. Widmer Remembers University

A check amounting to $5070.85 from the estate of the late Margaret M. Widmer has been received by the University, according to an announcement by Dr. Donald M. Erb, University president.

After her death last year, Miss Widmer's saving account was left in a Seattle bank to be held for the art school. The bequest will be used at the discretion of the art department in the furtherance of its work.

In the past generous contributions to student loan funds have been received from both Miss Widmer and her sister, Gertrude D. Widmer.

Hazing Given Wrong Twin

An attempted "freshman uprising" in Sherry Ross hall has died away and again peace reigns supreme.

Led by Gerald Unkeles, Portland frosh, a group of freshmen decided to even up the score after being the subjects of upperclassmen's hazings. Each day two upperclassmen were selected to be dunked in the shower. After several such affairs word got around that the Order of O would take care of offenders.

An informal hacking session for the freshmen's benefit followed. Only fly in the ointment was that the upperclassmen found Gerald's identical twin brother, Harold, and gave him a generous hacking instead.

Man Disrupts Womens P E

Ignorance may be bliss, but women in the 3 p.m. gym classes, Thursday, felt that certainly was no excuse when an unidentified male burst into the dressing room, took one look, and burst back out again.

Confronting a bewildered bystander with a wide-eyed stare, and "Where in—Gerlinger—is the dean's office?" he disappeared in the direction of University street.

Sadies Sally; Abners Rally

By CHAS. POLITZ

Saturday all America celebrates the only holiday F. D. R. hasn't had time to change—Sadie Hawkins day. This is the day the girls are on the hunt, as they are every day, this being the only day, however, they get credit for it. This is the day thousands join the navy to have the girl they just escaped from embroidered on their chests.

Li'l Abner is hiding under a giant oak tabulating his income tax. Daisy Mae is still catching cold in the same "off-the-bias-I-left-the-other-part-at-home" dotted swiss.

Not to Mention

This year the menace to her perpetual objective is Unmentionable, he that heralds his entrance with a tree (in front of him). Mammy Yokum is still exerting the fraternity influence on Pappy Yokum's rural regions. Presarved turnips are as yet not rationed (nobody's had the guts).

Nothing has changed in Dogpatch.

Pool Quarters

Nothing has changed on the campus, either. The boys still pool quarters and take over the city jail for the day, or build bonfires of magenta ribbon bows and bobbie pins to celebrate the occasion.

Sunday all will be normal again. Unmentionable will be unmentioned. Li'l Abner will finish chapter six of his Sears Sloebuck catalog for the 8 o'clock econ class, and Daisy Mae will redot her rotted (shrunk at least) swiss for Tommy Dorsey.
