at 1:30. "Fun? Yes," they emphatically and urgently scream. So bring your brass knuckles and snag a man," say Don Stephens and Clint Paine, chairmen.

Wanna fountain pen? Wanna kerchief? Wanna buy back something you lost, maybe, huh? O.K. Petitions are still in order for the AWS auction coming up November 24. They're due by Saturday noon, and should be handed in at the Pink Palace or AWS offices in the Igloo.

Navy, Marines Enlist UO Men

By TED BUSH

University men are taking to the water in typical Duck fashion, according to reports from the joint navy-marine officer procurement board, which concludes its ten-day stay on the campus tomorrow noon.

The navy has accepted 56 men V-1, V-7 program. 113 men have for enlistment in the combined taken the physical examination, of these, 56 have been accepted, 15 temporarily disqualified because of physical condition, and 42 have failed.

"Oregon men are pretty good physical specimens, in fact they are much better than the average of any school we have visited," said Ensign Sidney Anderson, who is in charge of the recruiting program.

V-5 has passed 18 men on the preliminary physical examination. Of the men sent to Seattle, 98 percent pass their flight physical there.

Marines Get Plenty

The "devildogs", too, have had their share, and more, of the male population raise their right hands

Better Transportation Would Lift Coffee Ban

Donald M. Nelson of the war production board told an Inter-American coffee board last week that the rationing of coffee would be lifted as soon as transportation facilities are increased.

and swear "to bear true faith and allegiance."

In a co-educational college they contemplate the enlistment of one out of each 300 students. On the University campus 25 men have been accepted for candidacy to date. This is 15 more than anticipated.

Thirty-two men were given physical examinations by the marine corps.

where cigarettes
are judged

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you . . . and how it affects your throat. For your taste and throat are absolutely individual to you. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T." Prove it for yourself!
