

Webfoot Mermen Dominate All-Coast Tank Aggregation

By DOUG DONAHUE

It may have been a long time since the yellow and green of Oregon has flown at the top of the coast football standings, but when it comes to swimming the story is slightly altered.

For instance, in the 1942 swimming guide was listed the 1942 all Northern Division tank team. Out of twelve possible placements, take a guess at the number of Oregon men on the squad. Exactly ten men, yes, ten out of twelve possible, from Oregon earned the honors. Jack Robinson led his teammates in not only taking the 220 and 440 yard free style spots, but also in breaking all distance records on the coast by paddling the 440 in exactly 5 minutes and 6 seconds.

Took Everything

The 300 yard medley relay went unanimously to Oregon tankmen, with Chuck Weitzel, Ralph Huestis, and Chuck Nelson proving far superior to any opponents in sight. Webfoot Johnny Mead nabbed the 60 yard sprint spot, while Ox Wilson took all honors in the diving.

Chuck Nelson took the backstroke title, while the Huestis boys, Gerry and Ralph teamed up to make it almost a unanimous Duck team by respectively taking the 100 yard free style and 200 yard breast stroke crowns.

Somehow a couple of boys from Washington, Barr and Denning, managed to sneak by the judges and break the Oregon monopoly by placing on the 400 yard relay team. Johnny Mead and Gerry Huestis "saved" Oregon's face by taking the other spots on the relay team.

A Record

There they are. Add 'em up. Oregon, represented by seven men, took ten out of a possible twelve spots. Records show that no other team in any sport in the history of the Pacific Coast Conference has ever so thoroughly dominated the all-star selections.

Since the above mentioned Swimming Guide failed to pick a team for the entire conference, Jack Dallas, former All-American Webfoot tanker, and Mr. Mike Hoyman, currently acting as coach for the mermen, took it upon themselves to select an All-Pacific Coast conference team. "Their opinions are naturally biased," you say. No, the selections are based on actual times registered in competition.

Of a total of 21 possible points, Oregon registered 9, USC 6, Stanford 3, and UCLA 3. Again paced by Jack Robinson, who nabbed firsts in both of his favorite races, the 440 and 220, our

Frosh Thump Army, 19-0

By FRED BECWITH

After sloshing around on a mud-caked turf for four periods, the University of Oregon freshman football team was rewarded for its efforts with a 19-0 triumph over the Camp White Engineers of Medford last Saturday.

The game, played at Hayward field, was attended by only a handful of students, most of whom were by radio sets listening to the varsity tangle with the USC Trojans.

Ashcom Coaches

The victory was registered by the frosh under the tutelage of acting coach Dick Ashcom, who spelled Anse Cornell, when the latter went south in advance of the varsity caravan, to drum up publicity for the Oregon-USC ruckus.

Sticky Benny Holcomb again led the Duckling attack from his left halfback post. Before five minutes had elapsed in the ball game, Boomin' Benny was off to the races.

Spotting a big hole off tackle, Holcomb darted forth like a bullet from a gun. Before you could

(Please turn to page seven)

SPORTS STAFF

- Fred Beckwith
- Si Sidesinger
- Reid Ferrall
- Bob Caviness
- Bill Stratton
- Harry Glickman
- Ace Calise
- Doug Donahue
- Ned Leibman
- Dan Gassner
- Mary Alderson

Ducks placed 7 out of a possible 15 men on the team.

Other records show that on the basis of times achieved, Oregon ranks at the top of a long list of swimming teams west of the Mississippi, and among the first ten in the country.

JOHN KARAMANOS crashing Rook fullback. (Photo courtesy Oregonian).

Kenney Holds Scoring Lead

Bob Kennedy had little to worry about over the weekend concerning his scoring lead. While the bruising Cougar full shoved only one score over on the Vandays he hoisted his total to 69 points.

Jim Jurkovich, of California, jumped up in the standings with his total of 39 points, to take over second place. Buck Fawcett, Stanford fullback, holds down third spot with 36 points.

	G	Td	Pat	Pts
Kennedy, WSC	7	11	3	69
Jurkovich, Cal.	8	6	3	39
Fawcett, St.	8	6	0	36
*Snelling, UCLA	7	3	10	31
Day, Ore. St.	8	5	0	30
McCardle, USC	7	4	1	25
Hardy, USC	7	4	1	25
Sheller, St.	8	4	0	24

*Snelling kicked field goal.
G, games; Td, touchdown; Pat, point after touchdown.

Volleyball . . .

Coed Playoff on Tap

By MARY ALDERSON

The championship of girls' intramural volleyball for 1942 is at stake this afternoon as the semi-final victors, Susan Campbell and Highland house match wares at 5.

Highland, an underdog at the first of the season, has defeated such contenders as Hendricks hall, last year's champions and Kappa Alpha Theta's outstanding squad. They have an extremely well-balanced team that specialized in team play.

Doris Craig

Doris Craig, tall center forward, is the spearhead of their offensive attack. She is one of the top spikers on the campus and has been given brilliant support by her team mates, especially the center line combination of Gertrude Kay and Audrey Holliday.

Captain Gertrude Kay has chosen to play one period of rotation and one non-rotation half in previous games and predictions are to the effect that this game will be played on that basis.

Susan Campbell is the surprise outfit of the year. Confronted with a lack of material, they were not expected to go far. But by defeating Orides in the upset of the season in the semi-finals, Susies convinced observers that they had a lot of power.

Good Defensively

The teamwork of Susie is good and was a big factor in the Orides upset. The Susie eight showed a lot of skill in recovering smasher and may be able to stop Highland's Craig. Dorothy Gustafson plays a very nice all around game for the dorm girls, both at the net and in setting them up. Helen Gilson is the captain.

Officials for this game are Margaret Shipler and Anna Ban-nich.

TOMMY OXMAN is back in the Duck fold as a quarterback.

Canard Club Tips Sigma Chis In IM Volleyball Thriller

Forfeits seemed to be the feature in today's volleyball games as only three of the scheduled six matches were played. In the series that were played Canard club eked out a win over Sigma Chi, the ATO's defeated the Pi Kaps, and the Fiji's put down a sturdy Phi Sig team in their closest match of the year.

In the first set which was easily one of the best contests of the year, Canard club squeezed by Sigma Chi in a three game thriller, 8-15, 15-12, and 15-10. The leads varied back and forth through all the games, but after the fraternity men won the opener the Canard players had everything under control.

Weiden starred for the winners while Stover sparked the losing team.

ATO's Win

The ATO sextet beat the Pi

Kaps handily 15-7, 15-11 in another good match. The winners had the lead all the time except for a few brief moments at the start of the second game.

Bob Albord was the key man for the ATO's while Moore and Gilbert led the winners.

Although the scores were 15-6 and 15-8 the Fiji's had a rather tough time putting down the Phi Sigs.

Fijis Extended

Bryce Sidesinger was the mainstay of the Fiji's while six-foot eight-inch Royal Denton who played his last game before going into the army led the Phi Sigs.

Sigma Alpha Mu, Phi Sis and the Phi Delts won by default; the losers were Zeta hall, the Yeomen and Sigma Hall in that order.

'House Of Troy' Falls---On Ducks; And The Score Was 40-0; Nuff Said

The house of Troy fell, and nothing but hard-right smack dab on top of a clan of injury stricken Duck gridders in the Coliseum at Los Angeles Saturday by the lop-sided and embarrassing score of 40 to 0.

This is not the first time the Oregons have been waxed by the Trojans, however. The two squads have met 12 times since 1915, and Oregon has only recorded two victories and tied one. Oregon won 35 to 0 in 1915 and 20 to 6 last year. The tie was in 1939.

Jinx Business

Maybe there is something to this jinx business. UCLA tumbled from the top of the ladder at the hands of the lowly Ducks, being cursed with a jinx, and the Oregons were jinxed when they met the Trojans—and look what happened.

Jinx, curses or what have you, Warren made no excuses for the trouncing. About all he is interested in now, is priming for the Beavers at Corvallis Saturday in the "civil war."

About the only good news that comes from the weary Webfoots, is the fact that there were no casualties encountered and that Tommy Roblin and Russ Nowling still have a good chance to gain all-coast honors.

Line Hit Hard

Although the Webfoots were stricken with injuries before the Trojan tilt, and four first string linemen were useless, there are no further casualties and the Ducks are expected to be in good shape for the Beavers come Saturday.

Warren also announced that Roblin and Nowling turned in sparkling performances for the Webfoots, despite the score and their chances for all-coast honors shouldn't be marred.

Nowling snagged some nice passes and stood out defensively. Roblin carried the ball 15 times for a total gain of 38 yards, forming the spearhead of the Oregon attack, what there was of it.