

Everything Points to Battle--OSC vs UO

By BILL STRATTON

Saturday will see one of the hottest, most unpredictable grid battles on the Pacific coast when Oregon and Oregon State meet on Bell field in Corvallis Saturday for the highlight of the Beaver homecoming.

Even though this tussle is practically unpredictable, a comparison of scores in games played this year gives some indication of who stands on top of the heap—and this makes it an even-Stephen battle.

Oregon upset the apparently bowl bound Uclans, 14 to 7, while the Beavers lost to that same outfit, 7 to 30. On the other hand, OSC beat Cal, 13 to 8, and the Oregons lost to the Bears, 20 to 7.

Joe Day

None of the other games indicate any superiority, except that Oregon State has run up higher scores in most cases. Oregon State trounced Idaho, 32 to 0, and Oregon beat them 28 to 0. Oregon lost to WSC 7 to 0, and the Beavers bowed by a slightly bigger score—26 to 13. Both squads lost to Washington—Oregon, 15 to 7 and OSC, 13 to 0.

Orange Lose to Cards

Oregon didn't play Stanford, but the Beavers took a terrific beating at the hands of the Cards. The Orangemen didn't play Southern Cal, but the Ducks did. Wow, did they play SC!

Lee Gustafson

Even though the Ducks can't give the Beavers much of an edge on comparative scores, they will have to on condition. In the last two games, the Ducks have suffered nothing but the terrific injuries.

On the shelf now, are Jim Shephard, Bill Mayther, Scrappy Rhea, Val Culwell, Dick Ashcom, Len Surlis, and Bill Davis. Any Duck fan knows that any of these men are indispensable, and if they are not ready to face the Staters Saturday, it might prove to be a sad day for the Webfoots and a gala homecoming for Beavers.

Most of these men are com-
(Please turn to Page Six)

Sports

Poor OSC Scribes!—Emerald Team 'Hot'

WITH THE EMERALD SPORTS HOOP TEAM ("Somewhere in Eugene")—Hey, you Barometer sports scribes—feel like running? And that's just what you'll have to do if you plan to keep up with the super-duper collection of casaba stars which the Emerald sports staff has knocking around the Shack.

For the Emerald basketball aces have blown the dust off creaking arms and legs which haven't seen action in years in preparation for the big impending clash between the sports hoop squads of the respective schools.

Squad Driver

Coach "Ace" Calise has driven his boys unmercifully through stiff workouts on the polished surface of the Igloo, trying to build up "wind" for the boys. He declares his boys will stand up under any circumstances, as "long as the game doesn't last over five minutes."

Trainer William Stratton, Esq., in his latest report says the whole squad suffered from exhausted muscles and charley-horses. "Doc" Stratton says "none will be fit to play." (Ed. note—This is a "bear story," and is simply used to make Oregon State confident and catch them off guard.)

Last meeting of the two teams was in 1940 when the Emerald posted a 28 to 27 win, thanks to some deft score keeping by the then Sports Editor Ken Christianson. Chris vehemently denied juggling the count to keep Oregon ahead, charges which were savagely made by the Barometer sports staff.

Squad All Stars

Now you might ask, who the f---&#1b***!! on the sports staff even knows what a basketball looks like, let alone can play the game? We've wondered that ourselves. But the boys are starting to admit now, hidden talents which they have modestly concealed.

We lack a Buck Buchwach, who can shoot with either hand, drop-kick the ball in, and get by with taking steps, but we have

On the . . .

I-M Slate

IM SLATE

- 4:00 Court 40—Phi Kappa Psi "A" vs. Omega "A"
- Court 66—Alpha hall "A" vs. Sigma Chi "A"
- 4:40 Court 40—Pi Kaps vs. Sherry Ross "A"
- Court 66—Sammys' "A" vs. Kirkwood Co-op "A"
- 5:20 Court 40—Kappa Sigs "A" vs. Campbell club "A"
- Court 66—Sig Eps "A" vs. Sigma Nu "A"

others. For instance, take Lee Flatberg, veteran southpaw who is always good for 28 points per game; Fred Beckwith, who was mentioned on Public School No. 4382 all star squad when but a wee lad in grammar school; Si Sidesinger, Joe Miller, Fred Treadgold, Reid Ferrall, Dan Gassner, Ned Liebman, Bob Caviness, a fellow by the name of "Schmaltz," and so many others we can remember them all.

(P.S. If we get too far behind we will slip in any one of our bevy of beautiful babes, namely, Anita Young, June Hitchcock, etc.)

National fees of fraternities and sororities in the United States have been estimated at $3,838,800.

OREGON EMERALD

SPORTS STAFF

- Fred Beckwith
- Si Sidesinger
- Reid Ferrall
- Bob Caviness
- Bill Stratton
- Harry Glickman
- Ace Calise
- Doug Donahue
- Ned Leibman
- Dan Gassner
- Mary Alderson

I-M Volleyball Outfits Chalk Up Triumphs; Delts, Sig Eps, Phi Delts, Betas, Sherry Ross

By NED LIEBMAN

Low scores on the part of the losers featured Tuesday's intramural "B" league volleyball games.

The Betas turned on the heat to swamp SAE, 15-2 and 15-5. Led by Beard's serves and the brilliant net play of Fredericks, the winners were in complete command of the situation at all times. Baker of the SAEs played one of the best games on the floor but was unable to stop the Beta onslaught.

Phi Delts Win

Phi Delta Theta nearly duplicated this feat when they took the measure of Gamma hall, 15-1, and 15-11. The second game was a thriller with the hall men leading up to the last five points.

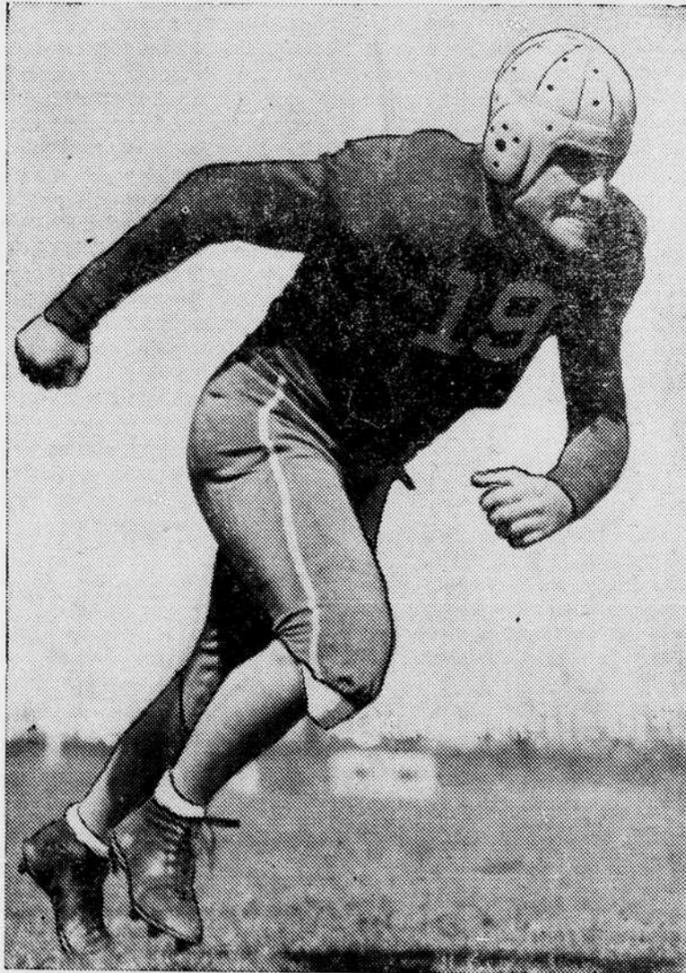

However, the superior net work of Phi Delts decided the issue. The first game came near being a shut-out, the winners holding Gamma scoreless until the fourteenth point. Burns sparked the Phi Delts with Jim Linse starring for the losers.

The Delts after eking out a narrow 15-12 decision in the first game came back for a crashing 15-5 win in the second tussle to stop a fighting Alpha hall sextet. The first game bore every earmark of an exciting series but the Delts put together a sparkling defensive game to outwait the losers to take the win. Both teams were evenly matched with all twelve men playing good games.

Led by Dean Van Lydrag the Sig Eps squeezed past the Sammies, 15-10 and 15-5. The Sammies missing three men of their starting lineup put up a game but losing battle and were unable to maintain the pace of Sig Eps. In both battles the losers led at the outset only to lose the close decisions with the breaks going to the Sig Eps.

Sherry Ross hall won the distinction of the first hall to score a win in the "B" league beating Campbell club, 15-5 and 15-13. Sherry Ross stopped numerous Campbell rallies to take the verdict.

ATOs won by forfeit from the Yeomen.

LAST SHOWING . . .

. . . this year for Charlie Elliott, Duck junior lineman, who will be playing against Oregon State Saturday.

Stellar Coed Athletes Receive All Star Bids

Two girls' all star volleyball teams have been chosen on the basis of performances in the past season of intramural competition. They top off the season's play with a contest Thursday afternoon.

The Green team, captained by Chi Omega's Nancy Lewis, consists of Doris Craig, Highland; Bev Goetz, Hendricks; Dorothy Gustafson, Susan Campbell; D'Ann Shoemaker, Alpha Delta Pi; Wanda Dimmick, University House; Helen Shou, University House; Jean Morrison, Theta; Helen Johns, Delta Gamma; Mary Alderson, Highland; and Janice Thompson, Orides.

The Yellows are led by honorary captain Allyson Hales and consist of Pete Lawson, Orides; Pat Carson, Sigma Kappa; Phyll Root, Theta; Mary Besson, Kappa; Sally Speiss, Gamma Phi Beta; Phyllis Lloyd, Hilyard; Allyson Hales, Kappa; Pat Howard, Sigma Kappa; Mary Ann Delsman, Susie; Audrey Holliday, Highland; and Pat Short, Orides.

BIG MOE . . .

. . . Moshofsky, soft-spoken hard-hitting tackle, another of Warren's seniors, who will be playing his last game Saturday against OSC.

The doors will open about 7:30 p.m. and the play will be over about 10.