Students Can Now See "al Doctor Wright'— See Page 2

VOLUME XLIV

the event.

garter.

ing to Florence.

tend the auction.

in closing.

Having looked over the stock of goods, she reports "just thousands and thousands" of pens,

books, notebooks, coats, ker-chiefs, and a few freakish items like a black, rhinestone-studded

Said Marge Dibble, AWS president, about the annual fall term

sale of lost and found goods,

"We've been waiting this long in the term for enough articles to accumulate, and the stock looks good. Now if it only doesn't rain!"

All students are urged to at-

"Never can tell what you might be able to pick up!-Better come and see, You might be surprised," said Miss Hamilton

Daily

Frosh-Rooks Battle Tonight-

PC

See Page 4

NUMBER 41

Photo by Bill Goldstein KIM MCKIM AND RUSS HUDSON . weigh Bob Newland's laundry package to see how much it will cost him to send it home . . . Newland was one of the first to take advantage of the new Co-op mailing station which opened Wednesday.

Thanksgiving Day Worship Sponsored by YMCA Group

As part of the ASUO's Thanksgiving day program an allcampus worship service will be held in McArthur court under the sponsorship of the University YMCA, with Tim Thayer, Gior in journalism, acting as head of the committee to plan the morning program, Pete Howard, YMCA president, announced Thursday.

Other members of the committee are Dan Potter, sophomore in liberal arts, Pete Howard, junior in liberal arts, and Eugene Cecchini, sophomore in business administration.

Dr. Morris Speaker

Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will be the main speaker on the program scheduled to start at 11 a.m. Also on the program will be Rev. Williston Wirt of the Congregational church, and Herbert Kuehn, director of Wesley Foundation

Cecchini is in charge of group singing, and the choir for the oc-(Please turn to page six)

Emerald So Sorry

One word left out of a direct quote from Keith Hoppes, business manager of "Watch on the Rhine," helped make a Thursday Emerald story look a little silly.

As a matter of fact, Hoppes did net say, "We expect the cast to do a better job tonight." He really said, "We expect the

Oregana Pix Deadline Set

Unaffiliated seniors will have their Oregana pictures taken Saturday.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be devoted to makeups and those pictures have not previously been taken. The following schedule has been planned: Monday, fraternities; Tuesday, sororities; Wednesday, independents.

Saturday of next week is the final deadline for all Oregana studio pictures.

No appointments are necessary, but better service can be assured for morning sittings.

Library File Complete

Alphabetizing and filing of 20,000 Library of Congress cards has just been completed by the University library, Willis Warren, head librarian, announced Thursday. The cards, which cover the pe-

Seniors to Finance Frosh Necessity for Class Cards AWS Rarities Go on Block Abandoned by Plan Adopted "AWS auction coming up fast ... Tuesday ... 4 o'clock ... in By BETTY BIGGS SCHRICK

LIBRARY U. OF ORE.

front of the Side . . . " announced Freshmen classes in the future will be financed by the Florence Hamilton, chairman of class of 1943, seniors unanimously decided at a class meeting Thursday evening in Commerce hall. This gift will auto-Who the individuals presiding matically do away with the need of class cards. over the block will be is "still Six hundred dollars of the senior treasury will be set a matter to be decided," accordaaside, according to the adopted motion. The three next in-

ERC Enlistment Closes Tonight

The recruiting office of the enlisted reserve corps in rocm 2, commerce, is being closed tonight, according to Lt. R. G. Davis, local ERC representative. Because of the lack of interest in the ERC on the part of University students, the army feels they can no longer afford to maintain an office here.

Because of the passing of the 18-19 year old draft bill, Lt. Davis advises that all of these men (Please turn to page three) coming freshman classes (including the present freshmen) will each be "lent" $200.

This money they will keep until after Junior Weekend. By, this time, according to the educational activities office they should financially be on their feet.

Pass It On

The class will then turn the "borrowed" $200 over to the new first-year group.

In this way, the class of '46 would leave the money to the class of '49, the class of '47 would turn their's over to the class of '50. This way the $600 would be thus a perpetual fund the freshmen could count on to start their college activities.

'Bye Bugaboo

The passage of this plan, which was presented by Ray Schrick, has finally laid to rest the manyyear bugaboo of campus politics, the question of class cards with voting privileges.

(Please turn to Page Six)

Next on Faculty Series "Pope and Recent Criticism' is the subject Dr. Hoyt Trowbridge, University English professor, will discuss in the third speech of this term's lecture series, Tuesday, November 24 at

Dr. Trowbridge Speaks

7:30 in 207 Chapman. Dr. Trowbridge will deal with Pope and his works in the light of changing standards of modern literary views and criticism, speaking from his studies while on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin, as well as Oregon. Distinguished

Before he came to Oregon from Wisconsin, he distinguished himself in the field of seventeenth and eighteenth century English literature, according to C. Valentine Boyer, English department head. He has been twice to read papers at meetings of the Pacific (Please turn to page seven) cast to do an EVEN better job tonight."

And from all the latest reports, they did.

riod from August 1 to the present, are a supplement to the Library of Congress to which the University library recently subscribed.

Execs Propose Late Per

'Unusual New Year's Eve' Given As Reason for Recommendation

By RAY J. SCHRICK WHAT THE COUNCIL DID THURSDAY:

1. Voted to recommend 1 a.m. closing hours New Year's eve instead of 10:30 p.m. permission to the student affairs committee.

2. Received eight recommendations for the name that will be placed on the R. A. Babb trophy for outstanding Oregon Tiletes.

3. Resolved: That Oregon State college and the University of Oregon maintain friendly relations through Saturday's football game.

4. Discussed Love-Marriage series for the 1942-43 year. (Please turn to page seven)

New Year's Eve No. 3

On New Year's Eve the Staters, If ol' Dame Rumor's true, Can keep their women out until The latent hour of two.

Just to keep our reputation In the minds of OSC. On New Year's Eve we'd better set Our closing hour at 3.

-J.W.S.

Men—Attention!

Reservists - having received your questionnaire doesn't restrict your enlistment in a reserve now.

Investigate your favorite reserve today. See Page 6.

Photo by Bill Goldstein

DAN GASSNER . . .

. . freshman in journalism, drops a quarter in the box and "Rings the Bell for a Buddy" . . . a victory bell rings each time a coin is dropped into the box in theUniversityCo-op.