

From
the Pulpit

By FLORA KIBLER

Sunday starts the week of Thanksgiving. All of us will pause, Thursday, to think: of home, of people we love, of others who are away from home—farther than we. This year, more than any other year in the lives of most of us, we will find our thoughts very serious. The churches of Eugene have planned beautiful services in keeping with the times.

At the Baptist church, Dr. Vance Webster's subject for Sunday morning is "Victory Through Thanksgiving." Sunday school is at 9:45 as usual. COS meeting at 6:15 will be led by Alyce Pepion. At the 7:30 service Dr. Webster will speak on "The Seven Wonders of the World."

Newman Club

St. Mary's Catholic church has mass at 8, 9:30, and 10:30 as usual. Newman club meets at 7:30 in the YMCA. Irene Jolivet is leading a discussion on "Birth Control," the second in a series on sex.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, has Sunday school at 9:30 as usual. The lesson subject for church is "Soul and Body."

"Security of Life"

Rev. Fiscus, pastor at the First Christian church, is speaking at 11 in the morning on "Thanks Be to God." His subject for the 7:30 service is "The Security of the Occupied Life."

At the Congregational church Rev. Williston Wirt is speaking at 11 on "A Day to Be Thankful." By popular request, the student choir is repeating the "Harvest Cantata," which they gave last week, at 7:30.

"Your Gospel"

At St. Mary's Episcopal church Father Bartlam is going to talk on "Your Gospel." Services are at 8 and 11. Canterbury club, the student group, meets at the parish house from 6 to 7.

Rev. Speece at the Evangelical church is speaking at 11 on "Fruits of the New Creation." His 7:30 subject will be "Jesus Visits a Religious Home." The Evangelical church also sponsors a broadcast on KORE from 10 to 10:30.

Thanksgiving Services

The Lutheran churches in town are holding Thanksgiving services Sunday. The Lutheran student association meets at the YWCA hungalow as usual.

The Methodist minister, Dr. Parker, is speaking Sunday morning on "Thanks Living." Youth Bible class meets at 9:45. Wesley Foundation forum will be led by Dr. Quirinus Breen. His subject is "The Function of the Church in a Time Like This."

Practical Thanksgiving

Dr. Tully's subject at the Central Presbyterian church in the morning will be "Practical Thanksgiving." The evening subject is "The Key to Life's Problems."

At the Fairmount Presbyterian church, Rev. Oscar Payne speaks at 11 on "Spiritual Priorities."

At Westminster house, the Sunday morning discussion group which meets at 9:45 is exchanging opinions on "Motivation and Standards for Action." At 6:30 a student panel led by Harold Rhea and Lynn Ellingson will discuss the topic, "What Is Freedom?" Refreshments are served to those who want to come in at 6.

It's Our War

(Continued from page two)

talked about the United Community War Chest campaign. For those interested in knowing the mechanics of the program, there will be another dramatic presentation over KORE at 9:15 p.m., November 24. This cast includes such notables as Mrs. Riasanovsky, Dr. Robert Horn, Jean Taylor, Mrs. Gerda Brown.

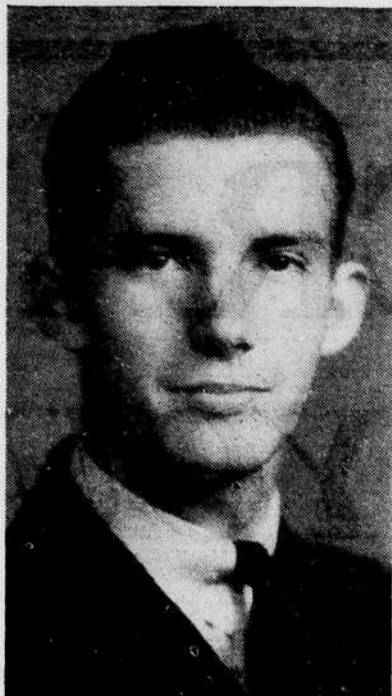

Scene VI, Act II. The scene takes place in the "home ec" department in Chapman. The room is neat and clean with two large tables in the middle at which about fourteen girls are sitting, carefully folding gauze.

Chatter Pattern

Bits of chatter sets a pattern over the quiet murmur of voices—"And when he smiled at the end . . . sighh" from Chuck Pelly. "Who?" "Alan La-ad!" "Gosh, I'd like to have her hair." "Who, Droop-snoop's?" "Meri Corrigan, you are an angel-child! These bandages are beautiful!"

And more—"He was Norma Shearer's agent." "No, She was HIS!" comes from Shirley Brace. "Oh, pooh," says a poor instructor trying to count and hear the latest about Errol Flynn over the radio.

And so, with the addition of

JIM THAYER . . .

director of Thanksgiving day worship services, has promised a well-filled program to take the place of the annual holiday period.

quiet little "damit's" heard here and there, surgical dressing works steadily and diligently on. Next week we'll visit the industrious seamstresses down the hall.

Dr. Stetson Aids State

Dr. F. L. Stetson of the department of education, spent several days of this week in Douglas county where he is helping the state department of education organize the new wartime victory corps in the Douglas county high schools.

UO Loses Pat Palmer

Pat Palmer, president of Alpha Phi, and Homecoming hostess, has left school because of illness. In her place as president is Carolyn Loud. Pat expects to return to school winter term.

Pledges Selected

New pledges, as announced by the dean of women, are: Pat Clark, Alpha Gamma Delta; and Lila Lee Cheney, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Ad Lib

(Continued from page two) tremendous power on the skins, but his real forte is as the world's greatest vibraphonist.

DON'T SPREAD RUMORS DEPT.: Just before deadline Wednesday night, I heard the first rumblings of a supposed breakup in Geo. Carey's campus crew. Tossing the already prepared col'm in the circular file, I batted out what I had heard without sufficient confirmation, only to find out later that trouble, if any, had been patched over and the band is all set for the rest of the term.

Particular apologies to Johnny Rietz and Pat Wood, especially the latter, who took the whole mess as a laugh.

Harlan Fiske Stone, chief justice of the United States, and Joseph Clark Grew, former ambassador to Japan, received honorary degrees recently at Colgate University.

OREGON EMERALD Little Theater Play 'Arsenic'

Night staff:

- Al Howard, night editor
- Lucie Jean Morris
- Shirley Davis
- Jim Sherbert
- Jack Kellogg
- Oda Bali
- Dorothy Stevens
- Blanche Svoboda

Copy Desk

- Marjorie Young, city editor
- Ross Yates, assistant
- Janet Flower
- Jack Billings
- House Nelson
- Hal Larson
- Vic Huffaker

In its first performance in the Pacific Northwest, Joseph Kesselring's Broadway hit comedy, "Arsenic and Old Lace," will be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 26, 27, and 28, at the Very Little Theater, West Thirteenth at Monroe.

Under the direction of Mrs. Virgil Parker, former president of the University of Oregon Mothers club, the show features two University students, Bill Wood and Mary Elizabeth Arkley, former students, graduates, and faculty. Other leading roles are taken by Robert W. Earl, Clara Fitch, Ethel Chase Christie, Dr. Robert W. Horn, Glenn Hasselrooth, and Dr. N. B. Zane.

Reservations for "Arsenic and Old Lace" are available by telephoning 551-J or by calling at 1167 Willamette street.

War Diary Received By Dean Eric W. Allen

A copy of the diary of Vern Haugland, the Associated Press correspondent who spent 43 days in the New Guinea jungle, has been received by Dean Eric W. Allen, of the school of journalism. It was sent to him by Dean James L. C. Ford of the University of Montana school of journalism.

Dean Ford was an instructor of journalism on the campus in 1940-41. He held the position temporarily vacated by Charles M. Hulten, associate professor of journalism, who is now doing war work in Washington, D. C.

After leaving the University, Ford taught at the University of California until this summer when he was appointed dean of the University of Montana school of journalism.

Save Wear and Tear on Eyes During Final Week

- Come in for a check-up today
- It will only take a minute
- If you don't need them we will tell you

DR. ELLA C. MEADE

OPTOMETRIST

Phone 330

14 W. 8th

WANTED!

EMERALD DELIVERY BOY

Hour's Work Daily

Wages: $1

Must Have Car

Call

Betty Biggs Schrick

Phone 3300 — Ext. 351 or 480J

MCDONALD
— RED SKELTON
ANN SOTHERN
in
"Panama Hattie"
CRAIG STEVENS
in
"Secret Enemies"

HEILIG
A Western Thriller!
ROY ROGERS in
"Sunset Serenade"
also
"Smith of Minnesota"
BRUCE SMITH
ARLENE JUDGE

REX Theatre
Bette's Best!!
BETTE DAVIS
GEORGE BRENT
in
"THIS OUR LIFE"
—Also—
"DR. BROADWAY" with
MCDONALD CAREY
JEAN PHILLIPS

MAYFLOWER
"MOONLIGHT IN HAVANA"
ALAN JONES
JANE FRAZEE
"Moscow Strikes Back"
Edward G. Robinson,
Narrator

PUT YOUR PURSE
in the FIGHT!
☆ BUY WAR STAMPS + BONDS ☆