probably featuring Ray Dickson and his band.

"We're going to cram Gerlinger to the rafters with salvage, students, and fun. It's a real chance for everyone to help the campus salvage and USO defense drives," said Al Larsen, president of Independent students.

Committees

Ox Wilson, sophomore in business administration, is in charge of intermission entertainment.

Betty Bevil, sophomore in liberal arts, has been appointed by Ronda Harkson, campus USO chairman, to be in charge of all admission articles for service men.

Campus Salvage

Marge Curtis and Bill Lilly, co-chairmen of campus salvage, will direct collection of salvage admission articles.

Don Broderick is in charge of posters for the dance, responsible for seeing living organizations, and in charge of the publicity sign, "Thanks-for-Giving."

Defense Stamps

Another feature of the affair is the present plan for caricatures of Hitler, Hirohito, Mussolini, and Tojo to be blacked-out by defense stamps, which will be sold to students who will then stick them on the pictures of the enemy leaders. Whether these defense stamps will be included as part of admission or sold separately is at present undecided.

Campus clothes are in order for the dance, according to Miss Trevor.

Siberia's Future

prised that Japan has not tried to invade Siberia as yet in this war. Probably Japan feels that she has already too many fronts or, perhaps, Japan expects Germany to penetrate Russia deeper from the west before she attacks Siberia. Also, Japanese remember that already twice, in 1938 and again in 1939, they had large scale border battles with the red army, and that both times they were defeated.

At present Siberia is significant for the men and the material it furnishes against the German invader. It is also important for reasons of military strategy. Yet the really great role of Siberia and, largely because of it that of Russia, lies still in the future.

musician—even by himself—on the local scene is Pete Kylo. He plays a prehistoric cornet in the Chicago mode. Of his notes, 75 per cent cannot be heard over four feet from the dented bell of his horn, but they're worth hearing four miles away. This gives a wierd effect that the joe is scared into a laundryman's problem, as though he had never seen more than two people in front of him at once. But he's not.

As a matter of fact, Pete, like Ray Bauduc, is relaxed to the point of collapse.

However, that is not the most important thing about his playing. What the listener really has to watch is that he isn't missing most of what is going into the mouthpiece, because Pete, as Eddie Johnson likes to say, "goes off into a corner by himself."

TO OUR PATRONS:

With the ever increasing demands being made on transportation systems, and the extreme necessity for the transportation of workers engaged in essential and defense industries, transporting them to and from their jobs in the most efficient manner, it is necessary that shoppers, school children, and non-essential travelers cooperate with the management in carrying out the recommendations of the Office of Defense Transportation with regard to travel.

You can do your part in this War Effort if:

1. If you are a shopper, commence your trip after 9:00 a.m., and return home before 4:00 p.m., and limit your travel Monday to Friday inclusive.

2. School children return home on the first bus after school is out, and do not travel on Saturdays and Sundays. School commutation books can only be good for travel on school days.

3. If you are a non-essential traveler, that is, not traveling to and from work, restrict your travel to week-days only, Monday to Friday inclusive, then only during the slack periods. In so doing, you will make the seats available on week-ends and during the peak hour periods for men in the armed service, defense workers, and other essential workers.

Your co-operation in this manner will lend a great help to the War Effort by relieving congestion on already overburdened transportation systems, and enable them to better serve your service men, defense workers, and essential riders.

If your trip is not essential, postpone it, and buy War Defense Bonds.

ERC Stays Open; Board to Return

Dr. Carl F. Kossack, campus armed forces representative, announced Monday that, regardless of past bulletins issued by the military department, recruiting for the army enlisted reserve corps had not been terminated.

Men who plan to enlist in reserve classes should get their preliminary enlistment material from Dr. Kossack's office, 107 Deady, soon so that they can have all the necessary material when a procurement board visits the campus to make enlistments before the reserve classes are closed.

Thirty-one graduates of Detroit and other Wayne county high schools have been awarded Detroit board of education undegraduates at Wayne university for the current school year.
