

Volleyball League Play Over; Theta Chis Take Double Win

By BILL STRATTON

The final round of league intramural volleyball wound up yesterday with the Betas, Theta Chis, and Fijis triumphing in "B" league; and the Theta Chis, ATOs, and Canard club winning in the "A" league.

This was the final round before the finals, except for the makeup session scheduled for Friday.

In a "B" league game, the bouncing Beta boys had little trouble taking two straight from the Phi Psis, 15 to 7, and 15 to 2. The Betas were paced by southpaw Glenn Macey who was all over the court and created a backbone for the rampaging Betas.

Theta Chi was scheduled for a "B" game with the Yeomen, but the independent aggregation failed to show, and the Greeks won by default.

In the final "B" game, the Fijis took their easiest victory of the season from the Delt Bs, 15 to 1 and 15 to 2. The Phi Gams were paced by Leonard Lonigan and Jim Stinebaugh who were hot enough to put a pulse in a blood bank.

Easy Game

The Fijis claim this is the easiest game they have had this season.

In the "A" league playoffs, the Theta Chi gang took their second victory of the day, this time at the expense of Omega hall. The dorm dwellers put up a fight to the end in first game, losing 15 to 13, but eased up in the second to give the Theta Chis a 15 to 6 victory.

The Greeks triumphed again when a hot ATO gang walked away from the Gamma hall bunch, 15 to 4 and 15 to 6. The independents offered little competition — partly because Bill Huggins was all over the court and didn't give the Gamma team half a chance.

Canard club didn't get a chance to play their "A" game. Alpha hall forfeited.

Warren Picks Four Trojans On All-Coast

The last two games of Oregon's football schedule left a deep impression in the mind of John Warren, one would gather from the All-Coast team Warren selected.

Warren placed four Trojans (the score was 40 to 0) and two Oregon Staters (the score was 39 to 2) on his mythical team.

An "if"

There was an "if" knifed into Warren's selections. John pointed out that Falaschi of the Pre-Flighters was the best quarterback on the coast. He also made this statement about Pre-flighters Ruetz, guard; Manske and Erdelatz, ends.

John said that the coast was weak in the guard and tackle positions and that he believed that Floyd Rhea was the best guard on the coast.

His team was:

Suesoff, WSC, and Ferguson, California, ends; Wickett, OSC, and Verry, USC, tackles; Seizas, USC, and Ward, WSC, guards; Harrison, Washington, center; Bleeker, USC, quarterback; McCardle, USC, and McInnis, OSC, halfbacks; Kennedy, WSC, fullback.

LLOYD JACKSON . . .

. . . is out of the Duck hoop picture this year with a kidney injury.

Hoopers Brew Tactics For Vancouver Quint

By DOUG DONAHUE

Captain Don Kirsch and his teammates get their first taste of "foreign" competition this Friday night when the cagers from Bruno Studio in Portland breeze into town to test Coach Hobson's Pacific Coast Conference basketball entry.

The Portland boys will be no soft touch for the Ducks, since the new name for the club is nothing but a disguise for last year's Oregon A.A.U. champions, Bradford Tech. Led by Coach Clifford McLean, the studio outfit will take the floor sporting such stars as Chuck Patterson, former Oregon cager, Frank Maishi, Bill Bollman, Dick Hellner, and Bill Roison, all prominent independent stars.

Long Workouts

After getting a squint at themselves last Tuesday night in their intra-squad debacle, "Hobby" has been sending his charges through long workouts in an effort to smooth out some of the obvious rough edges, and should be able to show any spectators who wander into the Igloo a real basketball game.

Then, without so much as giving the Duck hoopsters a breathing spell, welders, riveters, and the nucleus of the O.S.C. student body, all under the name of Vancouver Rammers, take the floor Saturday night in an attempt to really make things miserable for the home town boys.

Throwing over their shipyard duties for the evening will be such big-time cage stars as "Jolly John" Mandic, Sam Dement, and Jack Mulder, all members of Oregon State's 1942 champions squad. As if that wasn't bad enough, the former Beavers are bringing a couple of teammates by the name of Bob Mulder, formerly of W.S.C., and Tom Archer, a member of the Bradley team which copped amateur honors in the state last year.

IM Volleyball Hits Playoffs

Intramural volleyball slipped out of league play yesterday, with the exception of makeup games, and the playoffs are slated to roll next Monday.

The games to be made up are those that were scheduled for November 6, the day before Homecoming.

Homecomings for the playoff will be posted on the bulletin board in the PE entrance Friday morning, Bill Morris, intramural assistant, stated.

Managers of any of the teams who are in doubt about the regulations are asked to contact Bill Morris in the intramural offices in the PE building any morning at 9.

Both "A" and "B" winners from last season promise, from their records, to be in the running against this year. The Phi Delt is the defending champs in "A" competition, and the ATOs will be defending the "B" crown.

performances, Coach Hobson will probably start Warren Taylor, Captain Don Kirsch, Rolph Fuhrman, Bob Wren, and Bob Newland, with Al Popick, Walt Reynolds, and Sam Crowell ready to step in and take over.

Wally Borrevik, Wally Chulo, and Arvid Sutherland, all potential starting material, will ride the bench because of eligibility rules which will hold them inactive for the remainder of the fall term.

Things start popping both nights at 8 o'clock, with students getting into the Igloo by presenting their athletic cards. Outsiders must forfeit four-bits to see the games.

TO OUR PATRONS:

With the ever increasing demands being made on transportation systems, and the extreme necessity for the transportation of workers engaged in essential and defense industries, transporting them to and from their jobs in the most efficient manner, it is necessary that shoppers, school children, and non-essential travelers cooperate with the management in carrying out the recommendations of the Office of Defense Transportation with regard to travel.

You can do your part in this War Effort if:

1. If you are a shopper, commence your trip after 9:00 a.m., and return home before 4:00 p.m., and limit your travel Monday to Friday inclusive.
2. School children return home on the first bus after school is out, and do not travel on Saturdays and Sundays. School commutation books can only be good for travel on school days.
3. If you are a non-essential traveler, that is, not traveling to and from work, restrict your travel to week-days only, Monday to Friday inclusive, then only during the slack periods. In so doing, you will make the seats available on week-ends and during the peak hour periods for men in the armed service, defense workers, and other essential workers.

Your co-operation in this manner will lend a great help to the War Effort by relieving congestion on already overburdened transportation systems, and enable them to better serve your service men, defense workers, and essential riders.

If your trip is not essential, postpone it, and buy War Defense Bonds.
