Air Corps Group Due

An army air corps recruiting board will be on the campus Friday, December 4, to enlist men in the air corps.

Men who plan to enlist should see Dr. Carl F. Kosack in his office, 107 Deady, before seeing the board.

Mental examinations will start promptly at 8 a.m. Friday, with physicals for successful candidates being given in the afternoon. Excuses will be granted from class.

The final physical examination for the enlisted reserve corps will be given Thursday, December 3, at 7 p.m., at the health service.

• The holiday greetings mean as much and more today as ever. Gifts are chosen for their lasting qualities as well as beauty by the discriminating shopper. This year, instead of buying many little inconsequential gifts for the members of your house or those at home, invest in a single gift which can be enjoyed now and months later by every member of your living organization or family. Johnson's Furniture Co. have many, many, gift items which can satisfy every gift specification.
